Q&A

Q: What is it that works in communion with all the baptized, that fulfills the vocation of the faithful, that issues the Word of God, dispensing the teachings of the law of Christ as it sustains you on your way, giving the grace of the sacraments? It's the example of holiness in the spiritual tradition and long history of the saints, celebrating the model and source in the all-holy Virgin Mary. What is it?

A: The Mother and Teacher in this Body of Christ, with the central offering of the Eucharist is, the Church! Read about the Church in your Catechism of the Catholic Church.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Today we ask that you remember in a special way our church elders. Our priests and our pastors who have retired from full-time ministry. Those who faithfully served our faith communities as 'shepherds' of local churches.

HOPE AND FORGIVENESS

There were some interesting conceptions of sin prevalent in the time of the Hebrew scriptures. There was the belief that God punished sin immediately. Those who suffered disease or misfortune were, therefore, sinners getting their due from the Almighty. Today's first reading hints at another kind of God. When David admits his sin, Nathan declares, "The LORD on his part has forgiven your sin" (2 Samuel 12:13b). Here was not a vengeful God but a merciful God. What good news that must have been to David and those who, like him, could be honest enough to admit their sinfulness! Jesus is the good news of God's mercy and forgiveness incarnate. Without Jesus, perhaps the good news would have been too good to believe, too difficult to imagine. But there he is in today's Gospel, the God-man, forgiving a sinner and declaring that she is forgiven because of her great love. There is hope, then, for the rest of us sinners, if only we love enough!

"To forgive is to set a prisoner free and to discover that the prisoner is me."

St. James Pictorial Directory Celebrating our 125th Anniversary

We are hoping to have all of our parishioners included in this special part of our parish history. We'll begin taking pictures in September and plan to be finished before Harvest Festival. Having your picture in the directory is free, plus you will receive a complimentary 8x10. Additional prints are available to purchase at a reasonable price and they will be back in time to give as Christmas gifts. All participants will be entered into a raffle drawing with a chance to win a special gift from Msgr. Mike. To schedule your photo-sitting appointment, you can either visit our parish website and click on the link (Life Touch Picture), or you can type the following link into your web browser:

Volunteers Needed: If you are interested in being a host to greet our parish families as they arrive for their photo-sitting appointments, please contact Robin at 310 372-5228 or robin@SaintJames.Church. Each shift is 2 1/2 hours (there are three shifts per day from September 6 - October 16). You can sign up with your spouse or a friend, and all volunteers will receive discount vouchers from Life Touch to purchase pictures. This is a wonderful opportunity to not only serve your parish, but to get to know more families in our community.

THANK YOU to all of our wonderful volunteers! The first week of hosting our homeless families was a complete success!!!!

If you are interested in helping during the week of July 10th, contact Pat Reed at 310 533-4942 or pdreed67@gmail.com

DID YOU KNOW

Implement safety rules for kids going to summer camp

Summer camp is a time-honored tradition for kids. Whether it’s an all-day camp or cabin sleepaway, kids can get out of the house,
 learn new skills, and make friends. Parents who send their kids off to camp should be sure to research the camp and the counselors who will be watching their kids. If your child is going to sleep
 -away camp, check in by phone or mail regularly. Ask questions and ensure that your child is safe and cared for at any camp. For a Detailed instructions are printed up and are located in the vestibule of the church. If you have any questions, please call the parish office.

Our Parish Mission Statement

The mission of St. James Church is to build up the Body of Christ by evangelizing to those weak in faith, healing the hurt and alienated Catholic, and nourishing the faith and commitment of its active members. We encourage those in our Faith Community to be:

- involved in regular Mass attendance
- participants in the sacramental life of the Church
- committed to personal spiritual growth
- registered and contributing members of the Church
- supportive of the community through ministry and service in right relationship with God and one another.
