Friends and Family GATHER HERE

Welcome one another, then,
as Christ welcomed you,
for the glory of God.
Romans 15:7

Dear Parishioners,

The following Teachers and Aides of St. James Religious Education Program Grades 1 – 8 celebrated the end of a great year together at a dinner hosted by Msgr. Mike: Sherie Marrazzo, Rosemarie Williams, Jean Marzolino, Robyn Solimando, Barbara Mullen, Kathy Ryyth, Yoli Baluyot, Margaret Michaels, Jeanne Haworth, Maureen Bradford, Eileen Welser, Eileen King, Deborah Williams-Stiffler, Mary and Marcia Wiest, Kelly Bode, Debora Martins. I would like to thank them along with Mark and Louise Ramirez, Christina Salfity, Alex Luna, Caroline Antony, Christine King, Dianne Staso, Tina Ruta, Christine Ferrero, Anne Wheeler and the many wonderful parents who provided snacks and assistance with set-up, serving and clean up for our Spirit Days, Parent Meetings and Special Celebrations throughout the year!

Msgr. Mike's 40th Anniversary

Congratulations to Msgr. Mike on his 40th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood.

extend their thanks and blessing to Msgr. for his impact he's had on their lives.

Our students donated over $710.28 to the Missionary Childhood Association as one of their service projects during Lent. This money will go directly to help the poorest of the poor children living in 81 countries around the world. Also, many food items were donated to help the poor in our area.

Our Annual "Baby Shower for Life" Masses were amazing! This shower benefits mothers who are being counseled at the Pregnancy Help Center. Students are asked to bring in a baby-need item to be used in preparing a gift package for the new mothers. It includes diapers, wipes, shampoo, and ointment. The altar steps were overflowing with these items. We thank our wonderful parents for their continued generosity and support for these mothers who have chosen life.

For our Closing Classes, the Jr. High students and their families gathered for a special Mass led by Msgr. Mike.

A pizza party, for the students and their families was held following the liturgy. Also, our Youth Minister, Gabriel Reyes spoke to our students and their families about the wonderful confirmation program here at St. James. The Elementary classes Grades 1-6 gathered at the Parish Center for a celebration led by Msgr. Mike and Fr. IK which included a Prayer Service, Blessing of the Children, Teacher Appreciation and Presentation of Student Certificates followed by refreshments for all.

So now we turn the page and begin Registration for the 2017-2018 year. Forms will be mailed to all current families and will be available on Tues., June 6th for all new families. The Religious Education Office will be closed from July 17th -August 11th and will reopen Monday, August 14th.

God Bless You!

Special Open Parishioner Meeting Hosted by the Parish Pastoral and Finance Councils

Wednesday, June 7,
7 pm in Kavanagh Hall

Need to Replace Doors of the Church and add a Protective Canopy

We have been struggling with the front doors of the church for several years. They are seriously deteriorated and ready to fail because of their constant exposure to the weather.

The parish Pastoral Council and the Finance Council have both been reviewing the situation for almost a year. Their recommendation is to replace our existing doors, and add a canopy to the front of the church. A concern for all is that the doors and canopy should compliment the church and enhance the architecture and presentation of the church from the street.

On June 7th, the parish Pastoral Council and the Finance Council are hosting a special Open Parishioner Meeting to present the situation and recommendation for the project. It is more costly than we would like, but we believe it is the best for our stewardship of the parish.

We invite you to this informative and important meeting to understand and discuss the problems and options available for us so that we can move forward together as a faith community as we have brought Christ to the South Bay for the last 125 years.

Above are six canopy options under consideration.

Fr. IK Moving to Hospital Ministry

In coordination with the Archdiocese, Fr. IK has been preparing for hospital chaplaincy ministry and will begin a chaplain residency program this summer. He will end his assignment as Associate Pastor at St. James on June 30th. We have been blessed by his passion for ministry and his joyful presence. The details of his new assignment have not yet been completed so we are still waiting for official confirmation for it.

We pray for God's blessing upon him.

Fr. Simeon—Our New Associate Pastor

Fr. Simeon Song will join our parish family on July 1. He's currently at St. Lawrence Martyr. Ordained in 2015, he was in the graduating class with Fr. Juan Cano.

He's passionate about outdoor activities including cycling, hiking, and camping. An avid cyclist, he traveled and camped from San Francisco to LA in seven days. Welcome!

James: Pearls for Wise Living

11-DVD Sessions by Jeff Cavins
Continues through June 27
Tuesday Evenings 7-8:30pm
Kavanagh Hall

James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. Its teachings speak loudly to those who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and their faith.

This study offers “pearls for wise living” by applying the wisdom of James to our current day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances.

Catechism Q&A

Q: Can you suggest a topic of interest in the catechism beginning with letter V?

A: Yes. There's a great topic in Article 7, the section called, Life in Christ. VIRTUES. "A virtue is an habitual and firm disposition to do good."

Simple, beautiful, inspired: virtues.

Consider the following words from the catechism; how they ring and resonate in their poetic appeal and aspirational essence, like lyrics to music: "Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things."

And as you're thinking, consider a connection point between this topic in the catechism and Matthew Kelly's Chapter 12 in Resisting Happiness.

The catechism: "It, [Virtue], allows the person not only to perform good acts, but to give the best of himself."

Kelly on his call to holiness: "God wants you to become the best version of yourself. Every moment of everyday, every situation, every person we encounter is an opportunity to become a better version of ourselves."

Happy encounters and happy reading!

Gospel Reflection

"Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" Then, he said it again. And then,

"he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'" Jesus brings peace, and he brings the Holy Spirit. Peace, in fact, is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. Today, on this feast of Pentecost, we remember the dramatic outpouring of the Holy Spirit that came upon those first apostles and the peace that came along with it. But we do more than remember. We also celebrate the presence of this same Spirit in our midst.

Through the sacrament of baptism, every Christian receives the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit in his or her soul. Thus, the gift of peace is already ours! The question is whether or not we have really begun to appreciate and utilize this most precious gift.

Like the apostles who had locked themselves up "for fear of the Jews," we too are capable of imprisoning ourselves in our own anxieties. We fret and worry about the future, about our sufferings or our disappointments, and too often let these concerns stifle the true peace that Jesus offers us.

But the Church today urges us to rejoice and to step out in faith like the apostles who left their fears behind them. Peace not only alleviates our fears, it also frees us to live our faith to the fullest, to have the courage to take risks, and to leave our comfort zone for the sake of the Gospel. This is what we are called and, not only that, empowered to do. Anything less is a kind of spiritual poverty we bring upon ourselves. God has given us the gift of himself, present and available in every moment, every place, and every situation. May we recognize this most wonderful gift and give thanks with grateful hearts.

Confirmation 2017

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."
Acts 1:8

After two years of preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation, these teens received the Holy Spirit and have completed the sacraments of Christian initiation - Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist; the foundations of every Christian life.

Thank you to all those who assisted in guiding them through their journey under Gabriel Reyes' direction as Youth Minister.

Everyday Stewardship

There are some things I miss now that my children are older. Fewer snuggles, fewer moments of awe and wonder, and fewer crazy questions that make me laugh. However, if I'm honest, there are some things I do not miss, especially the birthday party. I loved the aspect of celebrating my child's birth, but most years the party cost too much, involved too much stress, and resulted in a lot of presents that ended up in my garage. Today, nice dinners with family and friends sharing time together have taken the place of the "birthday party" and that is fine with me.

Centuries ago, God moved in such a profound way and sent his Holy Spirit upon us, imparting to the Church gifts that remain with us today. That first Pentecost was a first birthday party of sorts, with people gathered to celebrate their common faith in Jesus Christ. Of course, that party had none of the trappings of a child's event at Chuck E. Cheese's, but instead presented us all with generous gifts that could be used for the glory of God instead of the stuff children discard after a few weeks.

Every year I think it is important to really celebrate what God has given to us, the Church, on the feast of Pentecost. The generosity of God knows no limits and the Holy Spirit is alive. It's just that the gifts from this celebration need to be used or the celebration will be hollow. The gifts are free to us even though they are priceless. It would be poor stewardship to toss them in the garage with all those toys that time forgot.

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Fr. IK's Mom is here!

We are excited to have Edith Ikeocha here from Nigeria at St. James. Her quiet presence has been felt here by our community. How amazing it must be to see your son become a priest and celebrate Mass in America. God has blessed us through her and we extend her our gratitude for raising her son in such a faith-filled way. His homilies are full of passion and sets our hearts on fire for becoming better Christians. Please welcome and thank her for her faith and her son.

Mary Campbell Funeral

Monday, June 5th 1:30pm

We remember her. We remember that voice.

Mary Campbell helped bring the Liturgy of the Word to the faithful with a reverent spirit, distinctive presentation, and a giving heart.

This servant of God articulated the good news in a way that underscored the depth and saving grace of the creator's inspired narrative. She brought the familiar, stirring words of timeless salvation to life.

Because so many of us at St. James were blessed to know and appreciate this child of God, we pause to remember her in our prayers.

Fellowship

Get to know members of our St. James family over a cup of coffee. Delicious coffee and tasty doughnuts after the 8 and 10 am Sunday masses in Kavanagh Hall.

Prayer after Communion

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds, hide me.
Never permit me to be parted from you.
From the evil enemy, defend me.

At the hour of my death,
call me and bid me come to you,
that with your Saints I may praise you for age upon age.

Amen.

Violence within the home affects the entire community

Angelus News recently published an article on how domestic violence affects the entire family and the community members of all ages. In the article Dr. Ana Nogales, said "domestic violence not only leads to an altercation between two partners, but can harm innocent children. We need to be alert, and not tolerate abuse at home or in the community."
