Pastor's Corner

Please join me in welcoming our new Director of Youth Ministry, Vincent Dao. He comes to us from St. Rose of Lima parish in Chula Vista where he was Director of Confirmation and Youth Ministry for three years. He will be leading our Confirmation program, the Edge program for 7th and 8th graders and the LifeTeen Ministry. He'll be here at the end of September. Msgr. Mike

My name is Gerardo Avalos.

I was born in Mexico in the state of Michoacan, in a small town named Cumuato. I am a student from St. John Seminary in Camarillo, California.

During this year, I am here at St. James in Redondo Beach for my internship year. I am here to gain experiences and get advice and more knowledge from Msgr. Mike Meyers and the other priests.

Of course, I come to learn faith from each one of you, to be of service to this parish and share our love of God and his Church. For my part, just like you, I want to serve you and God with all my heart and with all my talents.

I thank you again for your warm welcome. For me it's a beautiful, wonderful community. It's joyful, it's loving and it's friendly.

Only one thing worries me and that is not speaking English well. For this reason I ask for your help, your patience and charity.

I would like when I talk to you, if there are words that I do not pronounce correctly to please correct me. This will be very helpful for me to improve my pronunciation and my English. Do not feel sorry for correcting my English! It's a good thing! I feel grateful and happy that you can help me to speak better English.

I am so happy to be here. This place is like paradise. God bless you and thank you.

Gerardo

Catholic Q & A

"Antiphon"

Q: One feature of the liturgy, (our ecclesiastical public worship), is the Antiphon. Will you give us a definition of this term, please? What is an antiphon?

A: Evolving from the French, antiphone to Medieval Latin, to Greek antiphona, meaning anti- "over against" + phone - "voice", Dictionary.com tells us that we've seen a re-adoption of the word antiphon, which had become "anthem" in England and since lost its original meaning along these lines. Related terms: antiphonal and antiphony.

For us, the relevant term, antiphon, is more precisely, "a verse or song to be chanted or sung in response." It could be a psalm, hymn, or prayer sung in alternate, ("against voice"), parts. This alternating verse or verses can be sung as a prelude or conclusion to some part of the service.

Around the year 1500, the definition of antiphon was interestingly put this way: "A versicle sung responsively..." For those of us at St. James, let's know our antiphon, and please sing your responsive part of the antiphon. Active participation! Just follow Director Kevin, the cantor, and the choir.

Cornerstone is a 26 hour retreat, allowing adults to become more actively involved in their spiritual development. In this dynamic retreat we see that our story is also God's story — both the good and the bad—and we can truly begin to understand and see ourselves and others and how God is working in our lives.

Cornerstone is offered separately for men and women once a year. This powerful and engaging retreat allows us to consider our unique experience in the world trying to deepen our faith. The experience will also have a deep impact on our relationships to family and work.

There is no cost for this retreat—it is being provided for you as a gift from the men and women who experienced the retreat last year. Your small leap of faith now will become a lifetime of blessing. SaintJames.Church/Cornerstone

The McGarrys joined St. James Parish in April of 1974, with two small children, Michele and Robert. They have been constant and faithful parishioners for 43 years.

Carol is a Catholic Daughter and was a Juniorette leader. She was also secretary for the Parent Council, coach for the SJS volleyball team, proofreader for the St. James on-line newsletter, and is currently chairperson of the Funeral Ministry. Tom has volunteered for the Cub Scouts, been a longtime usher, and is a money counter. He is always supportive of any job Carol takes on, frequently problem solving and helping anonymously behind the scenes.

Together, they were active in Marriage Encounter, co-chaired Sunday Hospitality for five years, and gave extensive time to Bishop Montgomery as the executive chair couple of the major fundraiser, a dinner and auction party. For several years, they volunteered as shoppers for the 1736 Family Crisis Center, a shelter for abused women and their children.

They also make delicious coleslaw for our parish BBQs.

Gospel Reflection

"I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?"

The parable Jesus tells today is the story of a king, but in truth it is about Jesus himself. He is the "king" who has forgiven our debts. We are the "servants" whose sins have earned us chastisement. But when we repent and ask for Christ's mercy, he grants it to us without hesitation.

The point of the parable, then, is that we too should extend this mercy to others. We should not be like that "wicked servant" who begged for mercy but would not show it to others.

Elsewhere, Jesus teaches us to pray, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors" (Mt. 6:12). We use different words, but a similar meaning when we pray the Our Father asking God to "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." But are we sure that we mean what we say?

It's important to pause and evaluate how we are doing in this regard. Are we harboring any grudges? Are there people we refuse to forgive? Is there a situation where we are seeking revenge instead of extending mercy? Jesus asks us to do otherwise.

He reminds us that we have already been forgiven. We are right now enjoying the benefits of his forgiveness. So we are called to bear in mind our own sins, failings, weaknesses, and "debts" when we deal with others instead of thinking that we are perfectly innocent and acting as if we've never been the beneficiary of mercy.

So let us do our best to forgive as we have been forgiven. This doesn't mean approving of wrong behavior; God doesn't ask us to do that. But he does ask us to let go of bitterness and foster mercy instead.

Baptisms in August

Holy Baptism holds the first place among the sacraments. Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit and the door which gives access to the other sacraments.

Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church. . Jesus commands his disciples to proclaim the Gospel to all nations and to baptize them.

Congratulations to the parents, godparents, family and friends who have witnessed this sacrament. Please welcome our newest members of our church and support their families on their faith journey:

Everyday Discipleship

Life was not always easy with my father when I was growing up. Let's just say he made many decisions along the way that led to fear, anger, and sadness for my family and me. Unfortunately, I was the only one in the family that would years later truly forgive him for his actions. My mother and sister held onto the resentment and anger they felt all their lives. For my father and me, reconciliation led to several years of a deepening relationship before his passing in 2011.

Forgiveness is not easy and I do not consider myself better or stronger because I was able to forgive and my family members could not. However, I can say that the blessings I received due to forgiveness and a renewed relationship with my father were far better than the animosity experienced by others. I also learned that forgiveness benefited me far more than my father.

As good stewards of time, we must realize that each passing day will never come again. What we do with that time is completely up to us. We can be wise and use it to build bridges, heal wounds, and cultivate love where there is hate. We can also choose to waste time in fear, resentment, and anger. I thank God often for the gift of my dad. However, I thank God more for the gift of time spent with him and the ability to see him not with my human eyes, but with the eyes of Jesus.

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
