Pastor's Corner

We are all members of the Body of Christ. Our actions and how we treat each other has effects beyond our own self. As we strive to grow towards spiritual maturity and become more like Christ, the blessings extend to the entire community.

We were blessed by all those who participated in the Women's Cornerstone Retreat and those core members who worked to make this event a beautiful encounter in Christ's love.

Cornerstone Retreats are offered once every year. If you've missed this one, consider attending one next year. Remember these women in your prayers as we grow together as disciples of Christ.

Welcome!

Friends and Family GATHER HERE

Welcome one another, then,
as Christ welcomed you,
for the glory of God.

Romans 15:7

Cornerstone Testimony

"Dear Sisters of Saint James Cornerstone,

How can I begin to express my gratitude for the abundant grace poured out at our 2017 Cornerstone for Women retreat?

I would like to thank all the leaders of their heavenly wisdom challenging me to simply be present and listen to experience the teaching and how to accept every day blessings. I heard encouraging and sometimes difficult words that stirred my heart to go deeper and discover more about myself in this journey called Faith.

This weekend was transformative in so many ways for me I realized I too am a messenger. We all are. I would like to thank all of you sisters who joined us. Bless you all.

The women of the cornerstone team gave so much to us it was life-changing for me I remain forever grateful of your great love." - A Women's Cornerstone Sister

Campaign for Human Development: Collection—Nov. 18

This is the domestic anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ "... to bring good news to the poor ... release to captives ... sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out.

CCHD provides the Catholic faithful with concrete opportunities to live out the love of God and neighbor in ways that express our baptismal call and continuing Eucharistic transformation.

CCHD is made possible by your generous support, along with Catholics in the United States, especially through an annual parish collection.

CCHD is an essential part of the Church in the United States' social mission, and a unique part of the Catholic community's broad commitment to assist low-income people, families and communities.

As we approach Thanksgiving, let us remember those that depend on us for spreading the Good News.

Everyday Stewardship

For all I know this Everyday Stewardship reflection is the last one you will ever read. That's not because I fear you will no longer get something out of reading these. At least, I hope not! It is because Jesus may very well return by this time next week. Then there will be no more need for reflections like these in bulletins, on websites, or wherever else you are reading this. You think the odds are against this happening in the next few days? I can gamble from time to time but I guess this is not something I am willing to say won't happen for sure. We do believe Jesus will come again, don't we?

For all of us there are things we put off until tomorrow. Sometimes, that tomorrow never comes. We act like we have all the time in the world. However, time on this earth is for certain one thing that does not exist in unlimited supply. Death is the primary way earthly time ends for us. Yet there will come a time when Jesus returns and if you and I are still living at that time, I hope he finds us ready.

Are you ready for such an event? Have you taken seriously your decision to be a disciple of Jesus Christ? Has that decision moved you to live a life of stewardship where all you have and are belongs to God? Or have you put all of that off to somewhere down the road? Chances are you will be reading next week's reflection and nothing too earth changing will have happened. But then, maybe, just maybe, this time is when we all lose that bet.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Gospel Reflection

"But the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps."

The foolish versus the wise. Today's parable sets these two groups in stark contrast to one another. Two crowds of young women wait for a wedding feast. One group comes prepared for the unexpected, the other just assumes everything will go according to schedule. But it doesn't! The Bridegroom is late, and the foolish virgins are left out in the dark--literally--while the wise ones enjoy the feast inside.

The lesson here is not just about having foresight and gathering the corresponding equipment. It's about being ready for the second coming of Christ. Jesus himself is the "Bridegroom." Traditionally we refer to the Church as the "Bride of Christ" and we, as the people of God who constitute the Church, are even now awaiting the real feast, the culmination of time when Jesus returns. But are we standing among the wise or the foolish as we wait?

Jesus tells us today, "Stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Are we spiritually awake? Do we have extra oil to see us through, or are we hitting the bottom of the barrel and running on spiritual fumes so to speak?

Do we think it's enough to do the bare minimum as we wait for Christ--stepping into church without really being present, or calling ourselves Christian without really taking up the challenge of the cross?

In order to avoid standing outside the feast with the foolish, we will want to make sure we fill our flasks with oil or, in other words, fill our hearts with the love of God, fill our minds with his word and his teachings, and fill our souls with the virtues that unite us to his will. If we stock up on these important supplies, we can count ourselves among the wise!

It's Getting Cold Outside

As we approach Thanksgiving and acknowledge the blessings we have received this year, we often overlook how insulated we are from the elements. Rain or shine, cold or hot, we can easily take for granted how comfortable we are regardless of the weather or season.

Consider the homeless children of God, our brothers and sisters who have to deal with changing weather and seasons. If you have an unneeded sleeping bag taking room in storage or have any dark clothing such as sweat shirts and pants, hoodies, gloves, stocking caps, consider how you can be a blessing to someone.

Drop off these items (especially sizes M to XL) at the Parish Office. You'll not only warm a fellow brother or sister in Christ; you'll feel the warmth in your own heart during this Thanksgiving season.

Connect with a 'Sister' this Christmas

Do you have a relative that you've lost contact with, and maybe wouldn't even recognize, but wouldn't hesitate to help out if they needed it?

The community of our sister, San Miguel Parish, while rich in history, culture and spirit, is economically disadvantaged and would welcome your assistance. Its Learning Center, run by the Presentation Sisters, provides lessons in English and other subjects to adults who are trying to earn their GED, improve their lives and support their families. You might be able to teach or tutor (you don't need to know Spanish), or provide legal aid or financial assistance. There are many ways to help. You can start by being a friend. No matter what your gifts or talents, they would love to meet you.

Join the St. James Social Justice Ministry on a visit to San Miguel Church and the Learning Center on Thursday, December 7th.

We will meet in the St. James church parking lot after 8 am Mass (by 8:45 am) and return at about 11 am.

If you would like to carpool, contact Sheila Anderson at 310.374.0551 to reserve your seat. If you plan to drive separately, meet the rest of the group at the Presentation Learning Center by 9:30 am. Park at San Miguel School, 2270 East 108th Street in Los Angeles. The Learning Center is across the street at 2216 E. 108th Street.

We Make Music

'Hi, my name is Paul Zdanek. In 1990, I just started playing bass and saw a request in the bulletin that a bass player was needed for the 5:30pm Sunday Mass.

Tom Ratto was the music director and gave me the opportunity to join the group. Fr. Tim was the Pastor and Fr. John was Associate Pastor. We were just a small combo and Fr. John would join us on guitar. We became a close knit group and would go out for pizza after Mass. Once in a while Tom had a dinner party for us. It was a good way to make friends with people that shared the same Catholic values. We played together three years until a change was made to go to traditional organ music at this Mass.

Around 2002, I saw another request in the bulletin for a bass player for the 10am Mass. I auditioned with Kim Wargo and have been here since.

I am happy to be supporting the low end and always feel after playing at the 10am Mass that my week is off to a good start.

The choir is a major part of the Holy Days such as Ash Wednesday, Easter, Christmas, etc. As we practice the music I find myself really thinking about the upcoming events. For example during Lent the music is more subdued. As I am playing I think about what Lent means. On Easter Sunday the music is joyful and I can feel the excitement. At the All Souls Mass as I am playing and listening to the words of the song I always get a few tears. The best way to describe being in the choir is I am an active participant in the Mass.'
