All Saints Day and All Souls Day, November 1st & 2nd

This Sunday, November 1st is All Saints Day and we celebrate all of those who have so wonderfully and faithfully lived their lives in witness to God's love for us.

A Special Mass for our Deceased

This year, while All Souls Day is Monday, November 2nd, at the Noon Mass on November 1st, we will remember and pray for all of those who have died during the last year, especially the members of our parish who have been called home to the Lord. Their names are honored on the next page. It will also be a Mass for all of us to remember in prayer those members of our families and friends who have died during the last year. At this Mass you are invited to place their names in a special basket that will be presented during the Mass.

All Souls envelopes are located on the table at the entrance of the St. James School field during the 8, 10 and noon Masses. Return them in the collection basket or bring them to the Parish office and your deceased loved one's names will be placed on the altar and included in our All Souls' Masses throughout November.

Parish Annual Financial Report

The Annual Financial Report for the parish for 2019-2020 fiscal year is printed on page 4 of this bulletin. A major concern for us is that our ordinary income from Sundays and Holy Days and sacraments was $96,000 less than our expenses. The loss would have been greater but the Finance Council decided to limit the amount of assistance we could give to our sister parish in Los Angeles, San Miguel Church and School and some other charities we normally support. The report also includes a footnote regarding the assistance we received from the federal PPP (Payroll Protection Plan) Loan.

For the current year, (July—September, our income is $18,000 less than our expenses. The effect of our parish being closed during the pandemic has been a substantial reduction of our Sunday Collection. We have managed so far to reduce our expenses by 15% from our projected budget and we continue to make every effort to manage well the operations of the parish. We are so thankful for all who continue to support the parish in this difficult time.

Blessings!

Msgr. Mike

All Souls' Day

According to Catholic belief, the soul of a person who dies can go to one of three places. The first is heaven, where a person who dies in a state of perfect grace and communion with God goes. The second is hell, where those who die in a state of mortal sin are naturally condemned by their choice. The intermediate option is purgatory, which is thought to be where most people, free of mortal sin, but still in a state of lesser (venial) sin, must go.

Purgatory is necessary so that souls can be cleansed and perfected before they enter into heaven. There is scriptural basis for this belief. The primary reference is in 2 Maccabees, 12:42 and 12:46 "Turning to supplication, they prayed that the sinful deed might be fully blotted out... Thus made atonement for the dead that they might be free from sin."

Additional references are found in Zechariah, Sirach, and the Gospel of Matthew. Jewish tradition also reinforces this belief as well as the tradition and teaching of the Church, which has been affirmed throughout history.

Consistent with these teachings and traditions, Catholics believe that through the prayers of the faithful on Earth, the dead are cleansed of their sins so they may enter into heaven.

The official name of the celebration in the Roman Rite liturgy of the Roman Catholic Church is "The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed".

Winter Gear for Homeless Neighbors

The House of Yahweh in Lawndale is collecting winter gear for our homeless neighbors who need extra help to stay warm, dry, and healthy.

Saturday, November 21st is Community Service – Winter Gear Collection Day at the House of Yahweh. Here is a list of the things needed to help our homeless neighbors make it through the cold and rainy months: warm clothes, ponchos and rain pants, water resistant footwear, warm socks, gloves, tarps, sweat shirts with hoods, sweat pants, knit and rain hats, and scarves. Bring winter gear donations to the House of Yahweh anytime or visit us on 11/21 from 9a.m. to 1:p.m.; if you have time, we could use a few volunteers that day; call or visit <https://www.hoy-southbay.org/request-email/>.

If you need more information, please call 310.675.6412, or check out our website at www.hoy-southbay.org. In lieu of merchandise donations, cash, check, or credit card donations are accepted; please mark your donations for "Winter Gear"; more information at <https://www.hoy-southbay.org/donate/>.

Feed the Needy

We continue to feed the homeless on Mon., Wed., and Fri., with lunch bags and toiletries. We want to thank all of our parishioners who have been so faithful and gracious with regular donations. We could not provide the wonderful lunches for our people without your support. We are still in need of the following items: hamburgers buns, chips, lunch meat, cheese, small 8oz.drinks like juices and water, granola bars, cheese sticks and fruit such as grapes or oranges. Thank you!

Gospel Meditation

I remember as a child the meticulousness my father would bring to a task. Whether it be tending to a chore in the yard, repairing something, or painting a room, the tiniest of every detail demanded his attention. He had great patience. I benefited greatly by his example and remember these lessons well. We all need examples to follow. It is important to identify folks who excel at simple things and show us how to do things well. There are those among us and those who have gone before us who serve as these models and witnesses. They are ordinary people who in their "extraordinary ordinariness" capture our attention and allow us to see things more clearly.

These are the prophets, martyrs, teachers, witnesses, heralds, and innovators who bring a single-minded devotion to God to even the simplest of tasks they perform. They have an openness to being used and become vessels of Divine justice, mercy, and presence. They call us to the "more" of life and point us to the Gospel in all of its simplicity and splendor. They remind us of the little ones of the Kingdom and the values we all need to cultivate and possess. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the peacemaker who often are rejected not only by those who have far different agendas but by those you think would welcome them.

All of the saints in heaven and on earth form this cloud of witnesses who journey with us as we make our way through life. They offer us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. They direct us toward true happiness and remind us that we are all called to be saints. All it takes is desire, love, and fidelity. There is much we can learn from the official saints of the church. Their guidance is ever before us and ever with us. But there is also a lot to learn from the unofficial saints of the church. They sit beside us every Sunday, are our neighbors and ordinary people we meet every day. Because of the devotedness of their faith, they remind us to keep going, remain focused, and cultivate purpose and meaning, and give voice to those who have none. The inspiration is all around us.

Pay attention to the details. Do what you do with great love. Know that you are not alone. Believe that you can persevere. Have great faith. ©LPi

Confession 4pm Saturday- Church Parking Lot

The purpose of Confession is to reconcile man to God. When we sin, we deprive ourselves of God's grace. And by doing so, we make it even easier to sin some more. The only way out of this downward cycle is to acknowledge our sins, to repent of them, and to ask God's forgiveness. Then, in the Sacrament of Confession, grace can be restored to our souls, and we can once again resist sin. learnreligions.com/the-sacrament-of-confession-542139

Celebrating the Sacrament of Baptism

After Jesus was raised from the dead and before he ascended to His Father, He commissioned His disciples by giving them this mission:

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you” (Mt. 28: 19-20a).

By the Roman Catholic faith, which we profess, we are commissioned in the same way to baptize and thus build up our Church. In spite of the current challenges presented by COVID-19, we at St. James are continuing in the mission of Jesus in a safe and sensible way. We continue to provide a logical process to prepare parents and godparents for baptism. We invite you to contact Deacon Bob DnBob99@gmail.com. He will reply to your email with next steps and will make himself available to guide you through the process.

Q: "Count your blessings..."

In good times and in trying moments we may appreciate those blessings. The catechism, in a discussion of the profession of faith in Paragraph 736 summarizes the source and the power of the gifts we enumerate and appreciate. How does the Holy Spirit work in each of us, gifting these most essential of gifts?

A: The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains: "God is love, and love is his first gift, containing all others. God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit..."

The fruits of the Spirit are: love joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

We count our blessings.

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." - Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen
