Thanksgiving in a time of COVID

The restrictions and limitations of life during COVID have challenged us all, and just as we might begin to feel that we have accommodated ourselves to it, we are asked to go a step further, to keep our distance at Thanksgiving. It strikes us as so very wrong, to have to stay away from all of those who are most important in our lives and for whom we want to give Thanks. Our initial thoughts may not be about the blessings we have received this year, but about all the limitations and restrictions that have gone on for so many months.

As the virus surges we have to face the reality that this year our celebrations will be smaller, but it doesn't mean that we are less thankful. More than anyone else in the world, we are a people of HOPE. We trust in God's love for us and the plan that he has for our lives—a plan that is not hindered by the pandemic. Our faith gives us a resolve in the face of adversity to see beyond these momentary situations and know that God's saving work is still active in our lives and our world.

The early church grew in numbers in spite of the severe persecutions they endured because of the witness of their faith, hope and love in the midst of their trials. We have the opportunity and responsibility to continue that work of proclaiming the Gospel and evangelizing our community through that same faith, hope and love—working in our lives in the midst of the pandemic.

Nothing can stop us from being thankful. Take the time this week as we celebrate Thanksgiving to find the peace and joy of God's blessings in your lives and to affirm the goodness in people around you. Let your words and life be God's words and life for your family and friends to uplift them and heal them.

This Thanksgiving we give thanks to the Lord for you and the love of Christ living powerfully in your lives. May the gift of his Spirit continue to strengthen you and inspire you that the gift of faith you have received will become a source of hope and faith for your families and our community.

God Bless you!

Into the Breach

In 2015, Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted issued a challenge to the men of his diocese—to step into the breach.

His exhortation, Into the Breach: An Apostolic Exhortation to Catholic Men, identifies the crisis of faith facing the Church today and presents a vision of the role of Catholic men in combating it.

Inspired by Bishop Olmsted's vision, the Knights of Columbus and the Diocese of Phoenix have joined together to produce a 12-episode video series, also titled Into the Breach. Each episode focuses on a different aspect of authentic Catholic masculinity and features interviews with well-known Catholic commentators and follows the personal story of a man whose life illuminates each theme.

The series can also be used for individual reflection and a study guide is available. By joining together in brotherhood, men receive the support they need to grow in virtue and to take action to serve Christ and others.

We hope that this series help you and all of us to step into the breach. To preview the video:

Gospel Meditation

Many Americans are fascinated with England's monarchy. For many different reasons, we are drawn to the regal pageantry and all of the protocols associated with royal lifestyles. What's most amazing is that for all of the media attention focused on the comings and goings of English royalty, they really have very little effect on the day to day dealings of their country. Thoughts and images of kings and queens are often centered on this story book understanding of who and what they are. We associate protocols, etiquette, and proper words and actions to how we approach members of a royal family. These tools serve the necessary purpose of keeping them isolated, enthroned, and at a distance. There is something attractive about being an observer of ritual, pomp, and circumstance. It's almost theatrical.

Is this how we see Jesus Christ, too? We often behave as if Christ is an isolated, enthroned, royal, and even ineffective king. Jesus wants nothing to do with having the status of an earthly king. Jesus also does not want to be watched, observed, or set apart. He wants to get down and dirty with the very stuff of life especially the poor, marginalized, confused, hurting, lost, broken, imprisoned, and forgotten ones. Jesus is the king who turns the tables on us and wants not only our attention but our engagement and conversion. He wants us to get dirty too.

How we treat other people is at the heart of Christ's kingdom. "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me." At different times in our lives we are all counted among the "least" ones. We may not be physically poor, but we can easily become emotionally and spiritually poor. We may not be marginalized as many physically are, cast aside because they have too many needs or don't quite fit in. But who hasn't experienced isolation, loneliness, inner turmoil, angst, heartache, or loss? Almost every human being has experienced brokenness at one point or another, or will most definitely at some future point, facing discouragement, fear, insecurity. People are thirsty for more than water. We are imprisoned by our prejudices, misconceived notions and ideas, self-focused obsessions and ideologies. There is a lot of pain and many least ones around us. Stop, look and listen. This is what Christ the King is asking us to do. Look deeply into the eyes and soul of your sisters and brothers, all of them, and see Christ himself.

Being a spectator and observing all of the pageantry isn't enough. Jesus wants us to inherit the kingdom and live the kingdom. It is built on the blocks of love, mercy, compassion, hope, faith, and blessing. It engages those who want it, changes and informs minds, inspires and transforms hearts, converts and renews souls, and sets things right. There is such a great need around us. Are you ready and willing to do whatever you can to serve in God's kingdom?

Feed the Needy

We would once again like to thank all of our parishioners for their generous donations over the past several months. This assistance has continued to help us serve an average of 180 meals to the homeless each week.

It is now time to think about the holidays and what we can do within the constraints of COVID.

In the past years we have had a Christmas party in Kavanagh Hall for families in need, but we cannot have the same type of party this year. Large indoor gatherings are prohibited, but we still want to share our Christmas spirit.

We are unable to have our Annual Giving Tree this year so we are planning to give food and toys to needy families outside Kavanagh Hall on Saturday, Dec. 12. We are asking your generosity and assistance once again for the following:

Toys and games for children ages 2 - 12

Warm clothing such as sweat shirts with hoods, pants sizes L and XL, ponchos, scarves, gloves, hats and sleeping bags

Gift cards for Smart & Final, Walmart and Target

We will begin collecting these items on Mon., Nov. 23 and continue through Wed., Dec. 9.

Donations can be dropped off at Kavanagh Hall on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 11am to 2pm. If these hours are not convenient donations will also be accepted at the Parish Office, Monday-Friday at 124 N. Pacific Coast Hwy. from 8am-4pm (closed 12-1)

Thank you in advance for your generosity and good will for our homeless community. If you have questions please contact me, Linda Cabibbo, Feed the Needy Ministry Coordinator at 310.488.9480.

*I will praise
the LORD
at all times.
I will constantly speak his praises.*

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

It was a busy week at St. James School!

We celebrated Mass on the Grass with grades 5-8, Student Council had a food drive for the Feed the Needy Program, and Trimester 1 report cards were sent home.

Thank you, Father Emmanuel, for helping us remember to be grateful at this Thanksgiving time.

Classrooms ended the first trimester and moved into the 2nd trimester. Many grades created Art Projects for the season and learned about the First thanksgiving.

We had a minimal day on Friday and began the much needed break for the holiday.

The Faculty and Staff here at SJS, wish the parishioners of St. James a Happy Thanksgiving!

God Bless,

Catholic Q and A

J.P. Alegria

Q: The St. James Choir presents many beautiful ecclesial musical settings that reflect and enhance the liturgy, pay homage to sacred scripture, and show reverence to the teachings of the catechism. One of these musical thematic settings refers to the loving initiative of God, an expression of his ancient covenant. It is a covenant which states: "There is no greater love says the Lord, than to lay down your life for a friend." What does the catechism say about the things we can do today regarding this covenant of empathy, simple care, charity, and love of neighbor?

A: The catechism points out that The Ten Commandments state what is required in the love of God and love of neighbor. The first three commandments concern love of God, and the other seven commandments, love of neighbor. The divine aspects of justice and worthiness of neighbor, community, and society that the Choir sings about is extensively presented in the catechism's discussion of the commandments; the Decalogue. It is interesting, instructive, and self-evaluative reading.

Translated to the realities of everyday lives, today and throughout history we find examples of those same divine principles of love of neighbor as well as lack of love of neighbor. Here, in a beautifully similar, if secular setting, a quote from England's preeminent 18th Century verse satirist, Alexander Pope, in his poem, Elegy: So perish all, whose breast ne'er learn'd to glow For other's good, or melt at other's woe... Pope expresses what the catechism teaches, which is that our positive response to God's command to love our neighbor will ensure that we will indeed feel that inner glow in witnessing a neighbor's blessings, and that we can empathize, or "melt" over another's misfortune. We may even, someday, sing out once again about "no greater love."

Confession 4pm Saturday- Church Parking Lot

The purpose of Confession is to reconcile man to God. When we sin, we deprive ourselves of God's grace. And by doing so, we make it even easier to sin some more. The only way out of this downward cycle is to acknowledge our sins, to repent of them, and to ask God's forgiveness. Then, in the Sacrament of Confession, grace can be restored to our souls, and we can once again resist sin. learnreligions.com/the-sacrament-of-confession-542139

Celebrating the Sacrament of Baptism

After Jesus was raised from the dead and before he ascended to His Father, He commissioned His disciples by giving them this mission:

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you” (Mt. 28: 19-20a).

By the Roman Catholic faith, which we profess, we are commissioned in the same way to baptize and thus build up our Church. In spite of the current challenges presented by COVID-19, we at St. James are continuing in the mission of Jesus in a safe and sensible way. We continue to provide a logical process to prepare parents and godparents for baptism. We invite you to contact Deacon Bob DnBob99@gmail.com. He will reply to your email with next steps and will make himself available to guide you through the process.

Exposition of the Eucharist

During these months of the pandemic there have been many people coming to the church to pray.

The Holy Eucharist is at the side entrance of the church in a monstrance where it will be easily accessible from the parking lot.

While so many have not had the opportunity to attend Mass or receive the Eucharist, we hope this will provide you with an opportunity to come into the presence of the Lord to be strengthened and guided by His loving presence.

At this time we will begin with the exposition of the Eucharist from 7 am to 7 pm every day.

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

Spiritual Adoption

Daily prayer for a period of nine months:

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." - Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Your prayers CAN make a difference between whether a baby will be born...or aborted. Our prayers can also be a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.

Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.

Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in your care.

Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.
Jesus, I trust in you. Amen. -Author Unknown
