Pandemic shut-downs looming

At this time with the quickly increasing statistics of COVID it appears that more drastic closures are becoming imminent (if they have not already happened). It may mean that gathering, even to celebrate Mass, may be temporarily suspended. If so, Fr Emmanuel, Fr. Jim and I will continue to celebrate a recorded Mass daily for the community and it will be posted on our website.

Obviously, this is not the ideal way to celebrate Mass, but staying in touch with the Scriptures, the Eucharist and the Community is vitally important to keeping our lives balanced and focused on the important realities of our lives.

We are all frustrated by the prospect of not being able to gather for prayer as we want, but we also realize that every time we gather together we are putting the lives of our brothers and sisters at risk and so we choose to stay as safe as possible for a short while knowing that we have done so for the good of us all. Signing a release waiver might sound like a good idea so we can attend Mass together, but not at the cost of maybe celebrating your funeral-or you celebrating my funeral.

Advent is a time of longing—longing for God to touch our world with His saving grace because the world cannot answer our deepest needs. It is Christ Jesus who made that a reality and we continue to find hope and healing in the gift of His life and the power of the Gospel He proclaimed for us. In Him we are able to look beyond the limitations of the world and our lives and find peace, hope and love in the new life he calls us to share with him.

May your hearts be open to the promise of new life in this Advent season.

Blessings!

Msgr. Mike

THE SACRAMENT OF PENANCE & RECONCILIATION

1422 "Those who approach the sacrament of Penance obtain pardon from God's mercy for the offense committed against him, and are, at the same time, reconciled with the Church which they have wounded by their sins and which by charity, by example, and by prayer labors for their conversion.

I. What is This Sacrament Called?

1423 It is called the sacrament of conversion because it makes sacramentally present Jesus' call to conversion, the first step in returning to the Father from whom one has strayed by sin.

It is called the sacrament of Penance, since it consecrates the Christian sinner's personal and ecclesial steps of conversion, penance, and satisfaction.

1424 It is called the sacrament of confession, since the disclosure or confession of sins to a priest is an essential element of this sacrament. In a profound sense it is also a "confession" - acknowledgment and praise - of the holiness of God and of his mercy toward sinful man.

It is called the sacrament of forgiveness, since by the priest's sacramental absolution God grants the penitent "pardon and peace."

It is called the sacrament of Reconciliation, because it imparts to the sinner the life of God who reconciles: "Be reconciled to God." He who lives by God's merciful love is ready to respond to the Lord's call: "Go; first be reconciled to your brother."

VI. The Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation

1440 Sin is before all else an offense against God, a rupture of communion with him. At the same time it damages communion with the Church. For this reason conversion entails both God's forgiveness and reconciliation with the Church, which are expressed and accomplished liturgically by the sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation.

Only God forgives sin

1441 Only God forgives sins. Since he is the Son of God, Jesus says of himself, "The Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins" and exercises this divine power: "Your sins are forgiven." Further, by virtue of his divine authority he gives this power to men to exercise in his name.

1442 Christ has willed that in her prayer and life and action his whole Church should be the sign and instrument of the forgiveness and reconciliation that he acquired for us at the price of his blood. But he entrusted the exercise of the power of absolution to the apostolic ministry which he charged with the "ministry of reconciliation." The apostle is sent out "on behalf of Christ" with "God making his appeal" through him and pleading: "Be reconciled to God."

Reconciliation with the Church

1443 During his public life Jesus not only forgave sins, but also made plain the effect of this forgiveness: he reintegrated forgiven sinners into the community of the People of God from which sin had alienated or even excluded them. A remarkable sign of this is the fact that Jesus receives sinners at his table, a gesture that expresses in an astonishing way both God's forgiveness and the return to the bosom of the People of God.

Gospel Meditation

You are at the eye doctor and it's time for the peripheral vision test.

You know the one. It's where you put your head up to a contraption and have to click a switch every time you see a squiggly line. If you don't concentrate and maintain optimal focus, you will miss them and skew the outcome of the test. You can easily find yourself with a diagnosis that really isn't accurate! Concentration and focus are key to succeeding with this evaluation. They are also key to developing a healthy, vibrant spiritual life. If we do not bring our full consciousness to the task, concentrate with all our might, be watchful and vigilant, we are not going to see God's loving presence flashing before our eyes!

That's why we need Advent. Let's face it. We can easily get distracted, focus on nonessential and superficial things and lose touch with what really matters. Our attentions wander. We daydream and even become a bit overwhelmed and tired. All of the stresses and demands of life consume us and we find ourselves constantly trying to play catch up rather than relishing the moment of the now. "Now" moments are so fleeting. They flash before us like those squiggly lines on a screen. Present moments go as quickly as they come but it is important to discover them and rest in them as often as we can. Though gone in a flash, these now moments of encounter with God teach powerful lessons and offer a grounding in truth that can be found nowhere else. It's the grace of Advent to become watchful and attentive because we are never sure when God will surprise us.

God loves surprises and love thrives on them! God's now moments of surprises come as tender instants of intimate connection where I find profound peace, experience joy, and rest in love. These are Advent times reflective of the now moments when Christ first was born, when God surprises us during every time we care to watch and when the great surprise of Christ's second coming dawns upon us all. But, to discover the grandeur and experience the awe of these now times, we have to be ready. We have to want to be there. We have to believe. And, we have to have the desire to soak in as much as we can in the time we have before us.

Feed the Needy

We would once again like to thank all of our parishioners for their generous donations over the past several months. This assistance has continued to help us serve an average of 180 meals to the homeless each week.

It is now time to think about the holidays and what we can do within the constraints of COVID.

In the past years we have had a Christmas party in Kavanagh Hall for families in need, but we cannot have the same type of party this year. Large indoor gatherings are prohibited, but we still want to share our Christmas spirit.

We are unable to have our Annual Giving Tree this year so we are planning to give food and toys to needy families outside Kavanagh Hall on Saturday, Dec. 12. We are asking your generosity and assistance once again for the following:

Toys and games for children ages 2 - 12

Warm clothing such as sweat shirts with hoods, pants sizes L and XL, ponchos, scarves, gloves, hats and sleeping bags

Gift cards for Smart & Final, Walmart and Target

We will begin collecting these items on Mon., Nov. 23 and continue through Wed., Dec. 9.

Donations can be dropped off at Kavanagh Hall on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 11am to 2pm. If these hours are not convenient donations will also be accepted at the Parish Office, Monday-Friday at 124 N. Pacific Coast Hwy. from 8am-4pm (closed 12-1)

Thank you in advance for your generosity and good will for our homeless community. If you have questions please contact me, Linda Cabibbo, Feed the Needy Ministry Coordinator at 310.488.9480.

Into the Breach

The Knights of Columbus and the Diocese of Phoenix have joined together to produce a 12-episode video series, also titled Into the Breach. Each episode focuses on a different aspect of authentic Catholic masculinity and features interviews with well-known Catholic commentators and follows the personal story of a man whose life illuminates each theme.

The series can also be used for individual reflection and a study guide is available. By joining together in brotherhood, men receive the support they need to grow in virtue and to take action to serve Christ and others. <http://www.kofc.org/intothebreach>.

Becoming a Lector

Online via Zoom
 Monday evenings 7:30 pm.
 Dec. 7, 14, Jan. 4, 11, 18

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

This week was a break for faculty and students! The Thanksgiving week was Zoom free, it was a time to enjoy families and rejuvenate. School is back in session tomorrow and we begin the 2nd trimester.

Before students left on their break, students council had a food drive where they asked all St. James families to contribute. Then student council delivered the supplies to the St. James Kitchen. Thank you to our council for reminding us to be thankful and generous.

Pray for our students as they return for those weeks between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

God Bless,

Noreen Maricich

Catholic Q and A

J.P. Alegria

Q: In defining the word, religion, a dictionary may vaguely and dismissively characterize it as the practice of a set of beliefs, but how does the Catholic Church present and fully live out its own definition of religion?

A: The catechism starts with the premise that the first Commandment summons us to believe in God, to hope in him, and to love him above all else. It teaches about "authentic" worship and faith, individually and as social beings.

Pope Francis wrote that whether as part of a discussion of ecumenical matters or fundamentalism, or universality, or evangelization, that religion, "should not build walls." "Religion should be a "channel of brotherhood."

In scripture, we find in Hebrews 11 that religion is about faith and works, citing many examples such as:

"By faith, Abraham offered up Isaac."

That "authenticity of religion" referenced in the catechism is a hallmark of the preaching of our own patron, St. James. His words are memorialized on the outside north wall of our Church:

"Be Doers of the Word."

James, one of the "Sons of Thunder," wrote about religion with his customary boldness:

"Faith by itself; if it has no works, is dead."

Scripture and the catechism encourage works of religion that please God: caring for the aged, the poor, the widow, the sick, and the prisoner; seeing the face of Jesus in their faces.

The multifaceted principles and practices of our religion are wonderfully clarified in Hebrews 13:

"Do not neglect to do good."

Advent begins Sunday

Advent comes from the Latin word meaning "coming." Jesus is coming, and Advent is intended to be a season of preparation for His arrival. While we typically regard Advent as a joyous season, it is also intended to be a period of preparation, much like Lent. Prayer, penance and fasting are appropriate during this season.

Advent is not as strict as Lent, and there are no rules for fasting, but it is meant to be a period of self-preparation. The purple color associated with Advent is also the color of penance. The faithful should fast during the first two weeks in particular and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The color of the Third Sunday of Advent is rose. This color symbolizes joy and represents the happiness we will experience when Jesus comes again. The Third Sunday is a day of anticipatory celebration. It is formerly called "Gaudete" Sunday; gaudete means "rejoice" in Latin.

Finally, Sundays during Advent, just as during Lent, should not be given to fasting, but instead to celebration because we celebrate the resurrection of Our Lord every Sunday.

Confession 4pm Saturday- Church Parking Lot

The purpose of Confession is to reconcile man to God. When we sin, we deprive ourselves of God's grace. And by doing so, we make it even easier to sin some more. The only way out of this downward cycle is to acknowledge our sins, to repent of them, and to ask God's forgiveness. Then, in the Sacrament of Confession, grace can be restored to our souls, and we can once again resist sin. learnreligions.com/the-sacrament-of-confession-542139

Celebrating the Sacrament of Baptism

After Jesus was raised from the dead and before he ascended to His Father, He commissioned His disciples by giving them this mission:

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Mt. 28: 19-20a).

By the Roman Catholic faith, which we profess, we are commissioned in the same way to baptize and thus build up our Church. In spite of the current challenges presented by COVID-19, we at St. James are continuing in the mission of Jesus in a safe and sensible way. We continue to provide a logical process to prepare parents and godparents for baptism. We invite you to contact Deacon Bob DnBob99@gmail.com. He will reply to your email with next steps and will make himself available to guide you through the process.

Exposition of the Eucharist

During these months of the pandemic there have been many people coming to the church to pray.

The Holy Eucharist is at the side entrance of the church in a monstrance where it will be easily accessible from the parking lot.

While so many have not had the opportunity to attend Mass or receive the Eucharist, we hope this will provide you with an opportunity to come into the presence of the Lord to be strengthened and guided by His loving presence.

At this time we will begin with the exposition of the Eucharist from 7 am to 7 pm every day.

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

You are not alone... <https://hopeafterabortion.com/>

Spiritual Adoption

Daily prayer for a period of nine months:

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." - Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Your prayers CAN make a difference between whether a baby will be born...or aborted. Our prayers can also be a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.

We come to you in our fear.
We come to you with trust.
For you alone are our hope.

We turn to you in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in your care.

Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.
Jesus, I trust in you. Amen. -Author Unknown
