Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

We pray that you and your family shared a blessed and SAFE Christmas in these very challenging times. This Sunday as we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family we especially pray for all of our families that you continue to grow in the love of Christ.

We want to remind you that our special Christmas gift to your family is the new book by Matthew Kelly, "I Heard God Laugh", a very helpful and common-sense book that will help you grow in your relationship with God. It is especially important to keep our heart, mind and soul in focus and strong in this time of COVID and we think this book will be an important gift for you.

As we begin the New Year, we ask God's blessing upon you and our entire community that we might find hope, strength and love in the Eucharist and the Word of Christ that we share each time we gather.

Andrea Sullivan is our new Director of Religious Education

We are very pleased to welcome Andrea Sullivan as our new Director of Religious Education. Andrea and her husband Jim and children have been parishioners at St. James since 2011. Andrea has her BA in Religious Studies and her Master of Divinity degree from the University of Notre Dame. She has a wealth of parish ministerial experience and a love for building the faith of families.

Her office phone number is 310.379.3221.

Blessings to you all,

Mmgr. Michael Meyers

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Tragedy and disappointment are inevitable. What sees you through this?

There will be challenges, changes, unexpected circumstances, interrupted plans, hurts, and injustices experienced by every human being at some point in their lives. We will be asked to adjust our plans, change course, and even encounter suffering and death.

Where do we learn all of the lessons we need to live life well? Some of them we learn along the way but much of what we bring to life, positive and negative, comes from our early beginnings, our families.

This is our early world and provides the blueprint for how we see the bigger, more inclusive world, which unfolds before us.

Our families of origin can be sources of grace, heartache or a combination of both. Families are intended to be pivotal in providing us with proper social structure and understanding, a support system, lessons about relationships and communication, and the unconditional acceptance and love we so desperately crave.

They can also determine whether we have an accessible and healthy relationship with God. Many of life's challenges can literally bring us to our knees and require that we possess a strength of character that resides well beyond the superficialities of our world.

At some point we will all need three coping gifts that can be given to us only by God: faith, hope, and love. Our families help us learn that we are not the ones responsible for their creation, but God!

Our experience of early family life colors all of our relationships and what we expect to achieve from life in general. Resolving conflicts, dealing with difficulty and suffering, celebrating accomplishments, prioritizing our needs, listening to God's call, understanding relationships, understanding disappointment, learning about the virtues and living a centered focused life are all lessons our families either succeed in teaching or do not.

To succeed, as God has designed and ordered our world, is to discover his presence and then trust that Presence. The Holy Family can teach even the most dysfunctional family how to best use God's gifts of faith, hope, and love to find him and do his will. Their simple humble example is always before us, showing us the way.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us!

Rejoice in the Lord always! I shall say it again: rejoice! Your kindness should be known to all. The Lord is near.

Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.

Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me.

Then the God of peace will be with you. Phil. 4:4-9

The Feast Day of the Holy Family

We have been living in unprecedented times with COVID changing many aspects of our lives.

These changes have caused many challenges to families, but they have also affirmed our commitment to safeguarding our children and young people. As the year comes to an end we are reminded of the resiliency exemplified by the Holy Family in their Advent journey – the love Mary and Joseph had for their son, Jesus Christ, and the many ways in which they nurtured His Spirit as a model for our families.

Join the Holy Family's call by taking time next Sunday on the Feast Day of the Holy Family to nourish your own family's spirituality. ## Into the Breach

Inspired by Bishop Olmsted's vision, the Knights of Columbus and the Diocese of Phoenix have joined together to produce a 12-episode video series, also titled Into the Breach. Each episode focuses on a different aspect of authentic Catholic masculinity and features interviews with well-known Catholic commentators and follows the personal story of a man whose life illuminates each theme.

The series can also be used for individual reflection and a study guide is available. By joining together in brotherhood, men receive the support they need to grow in virtue and to take action to serve Christ and others.

We hope that this series help you and all of us to step into the breach. To preview the video:

Mary, the Ark of the New Covenant:

"Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus.

Christmas Meditation

In Blaise Pascal's work, Pensees, he says: "What else does this craving, and this helplessness, proclaim but that there was once in man a true happiness, of which all that now remains is the empty print and trace?"

This he tries in vain to fill with everything around him, seeking in things that are not there the help he cannot find in those that are, though none can help, since this infinite abyss can be filled only with an infinite and immutable object; in other words by God himself."

We have a difficult time accepting that fulfillment and happiness are not achieved by our own merits but through a relationship with God. We are hardwired for this relationship and it is in our DNA. The simple fact is that we come from God and are designed to return to God.

If our beginning and our end define who we are, why would we not want to seek the One who can truly satisfy?

The world does not realize that it is waiting. It is waiting for the birth of God in time, within one's soul and in eternity. We get so confused by seeking other momentary satisfactions that we misinterpret the hunger within. We crave God.

The union of God and humanity, revealed in Jesus Christ, is precisely what sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. We are so lost. God is with us. The prophet Nathan told this to King David, the angel said this to Mary and the birth of Christ brings this Good News to us. We do not need to be busily looking for more things but must learn to find contentment and blessing in the One Presence.

If you are feeling unsettled, anxious, angry, disgruntled, disconnected, unhappy, worried, fearful, off center, becoming overly self-indulgent, unable to spend time alone and without distraction, then there's a good chance you are lost.

Now is the time to allow God to find you!

Ponder the holy simplicity of Mary's call to be the Mother of God. "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord.

May it be done to me according to your word."

When we are helpless and at home with our emptiness, God will fill us.

Our Savior has come.

Celebrating the Sacrament of Baptism

After Jesus was raised from the dead and before he ascended to His Father, He commissioned His disciples by giving them this mission:

“Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you” (Mt. 28: 19-20a).

By the Roman Catholic faith, which we profess, we are commissioned in the same way to baptize and thus build up our Church. In spite of the current challenges presented by COVID-19, we at St. James are continuing in the mission of Jesus in a safe and sensible way. We continue to provide a logical process to prepare parents and godparents for baptism. We invite you to contact Deacon Bob DnBob99@gmail.com.

He will reply to your email with next steps and will make himself available to guide you through the process.

Q: The Catechism of the Catholic Church presents a number of instructive paragraphs describing the many manifestations of God. These manifestations or, Theophanies, include: an indelible Seal; a powerful, guiding Hand of imposition; the Finger of God that wrote on tablets of stone and which cast out demons; a Dove; Fire; a Cloud; Anointing; and the living Water that wells to eternal life.

Can we name another of these theophanies which is also a part of our familiar, immediate, heartfelt expression of faith, as well as a regular feature of the liturgy?

A: Yes. The catechism has many references to "the Light." As part of our active participation in the Mass, we may all bear witness to the light through sacred music. One of the St. James Choir's familiar favorites, "Christ, Be Our Light," by composer Bernadette Farrell, beautifully reflects a sacred spirit that is authentically true to all that manifests a God to whom we turn for guidance and assurance:

*"Longing for peace, our world is troubled.
Longing for hope, many despair.
Your word alone has power to save us.
Make us your living voice.
Christ be our light! Shine in our hearts.
Shine through the darkness.
Christ be our light!
Shine in your Church gathered today."*

The many representations of God, in those theophanies that the catechism describes are divinely profound, yet they remain wholly embraceable, no matter where and how his Church gathers today; forever shining through the darkness.

Exposition of the Eucharist

During these months of the pandemic there have been many people coming to the church to pray.

The Holy Eucharist is at the side entrance of the church in a monstrance where it will be easily accessible from the parking lot.

While so many have not had the opportunity to attend Mass or receive the Eucharist, we hope this will provide you with an opportunity to come into the presence of the Lord to be strengthened and guided by His loving presence.

At this time we will begin with the exposition of the Eucharist from 7 am to 7 pm every day.

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

You are not alone... <https://hopeafterabortion.com/>

Spiritual Adoption

Daily prayer for a period of nine months:

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." -
Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Your prayers CAN make a difference between whether a baby will be born...or aborted. Our prayers can also be a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.

A Prayer for Healing & Protection

Most merciful and loving God,
We come to you in our weakness.
We come to you in our fear.
We come to you with trust.
For you alone are our hope.

We place before you the pandemic present in our world.
We turn to you in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in your care.

Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.
Jesus, I trust in you. Amen. -Author Unknown
