Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

"Oh God, Creator of the universe, who extends your paternal concern over every creature and guides the events of history in the goal of salvation, we acknowledge your fatherly love when you break the resistance of mankind and, in a world torn by strife and discord, you make us ready for reconciliation."

Renew for us the wonders of your mercy: send forth your Spirit that He may work in the intimacy of hearts, that enemies may begin to dialogue, that adversaries may shake hands and peoples may encounter one another in harmony. May all commit themselves to the sincere search for true peace which will extinguish all arguments, for charity which overcomes hatred, for pardon which disarms revenge. Amen." Pope Saint John Paul II

Msgr. Mike & Fr. Emmanuel

The Parish Office is closed on January 18th in honor of Martin Luther King Jr. holiday.

"There is some good in the worst of us and some evil in the best of us. When we discover this, we are less prone to hate our enemies."

"We must come to see that the end we seek is a society at peace with itself, a society that can live with its conscience."

— Martin Luther King Jr.

Feed the Needy Update

Happy New year to all of our Saint James Parishioners. We again want to thank you for your generosity over the Christmas season. We could not have had such a successful Christmas celebration for our Homeless Community without you.

As the new year begins we continue to prepare 180 lunches weekly on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays for the needy. Your kind assistance is needed whenever possible to provide the following: Hamburger buns; chips; lunch meat; cheese sticks; fruit such as grapes and oranges:

6 - 8 ounce small water and juices.

These items all fit into lunch bags or into back packs.

We cannot accept or distribute used clothing due to the potential for spreading COVID 19.

Thank you again for your support. You are a blessing to our ministry and Homeless Community.

Please contact me at 310.488.9480 if you have questions or need additional information.

Linda Cabibbo, Ministry Coordinator

Maybe you grew up Catholic
Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.. Questions.
Doubts. Yearning. But not sure for what. We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Q: For some, each new year arrives with a New Year's Resolution. It may be a generally vague, "I'm going to lose weight," or, "I'll be a better person..." Admirable, but what is an example of the sort of resolution that may be more precisely reflective of church teachings?

A: Firstly, we know that there are many kinds of resolutions.

Our St. James choir observes certain musical resolutions potentially in every song setting as part of the celebration of the liturgy. Musical resolution takes place in the transitional passing of a voice part or maybe in the progression of a chord from a dissonant to a composed, consonant tone. That's one kind of resolution.

Resolution is also a determinative act. It can be an act of answering or solving. It may be an act of analyzing a complex notion into simpler ones; again an act of determination. A literary work may see resolution when dramatic complications are worked out along a narrative.

A math problem seeks resolution.

There are levels of resolution in video and audio systems, copy machines and computers. Clarity.

Resolution can simply be a firmness of resolve. Resolution is often a formal expression of opinion. An official body or assembled group may reach resolution by consensus.

One official body, the Church through the Catechism, has many teachings on the nature of resolution, frequently linked to the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation as part of a call to conversion, the kind of conversion that transcends the lesser, often transitory resolutions one often finds and makes.

In this discussion of resolve, mercy, and transformation, the catechism highlights the life of St. Augustine, pointing out: "...and his own painful quest would only be resolved by his conversion to the living God." What a resolution that was.

Pope Francis often puts out a list of yearly resolutions, and they are as we would expect, "clearly rooted in Catholic teachings." It's traditionally a list of ten resolutions published by various sources.

Here is a selected sample of the Holy Father's New Year's Resolutions compiled from the past few years:

1. Don't gossip.
2. Finish your meals.
3. Make time for others.
4. Stop judging others.
5. Make it a habit to "ask the Lord."
6. Take care of your spiritual life...
7. Take care of your family life...
8. Watch out for anger, and complaining continually...

9. Take care of brothers and sisters who are weaker...
10. Be happy.

It may be said that the nature of these and other like resolutions, if adopted and internalized, might allow us an aspirational shot, beginning this new year at, "being a better person," by virtue of the kind of resolution that leads to a conversion to the living God.

Be happy.

Into the Breach

Inspired by Bishop Olmsted’s vision, the Knights of Columbus and the Diocese of Phoenix have joined together to produce a 12-episode video series, also titled Into the Breach. Each episode focuses on a different aspect of authentic Catholic masculinity and features interviews with well-known Catholic commentators and follows the personal story of a man whose life illuminates each theme.

The series can also be used for individual reflection and a study guide is available. By joining together in brotherhood, men receive the support they need to grow in virtue and to take action to serve Christ and others.

We hope that this series help you and all of us to step into the breach. To preview the video:

St. John's Seminary

St. John's is a truly Catholic Seminary. Catholic means "universal," and our community draws its students, faculty, and staff from many cultures and nations. This diversity enriches seminary life and reflects the experience of the Church Universal.

Most of the men ordained from St. John's will go on to serve the Church in the southwest United States. But others will return to their homes in Africa, Asia, and elsewhere, making the whole world better with the formation they received here.

Our faith is not just about ideas. It's really about having an encounter with God and, in particular, the Risen Christ!

Once we give ourselves over to the notion of God's presence, we have to train ourselves to listen for God's voice and be attentive to God's call.

Having companions on our faith journeys is so incredibly important as they can help us fine-tune our listening skills and discern God's voice from others we may be hearing.

Faith is all about having these profound encounters not only with God but with our brothers and sisters, and creation itself. Anyone or anything that is alive with God's presence becomes an occasion for God to speak and call us to deeper graces and experiences. "Come, and you will see."

The example and teaching of Jesus, the lives of the saints, those living among us and those glorified in heaven, and the wonder and beauty of creation can all serve to help us listen more clearly and assist in positioning ourselves for this profound God meeting.

It is an encounter that can quickly and easily lead to a friendship and intimate intertwining of our souls to their Maker, making a claim on us like no other. Then, the Word of God moves from being just a body of ideas to something we simply accept and do. The person of Jesus Christ swiftly moves from being just a good prophet in word and deed to the incarnate presence of God Himself, the Lamb of God. The voice leads us to the Person behind it.

The Gospel is hard to follow.

We can intellectually debate whether what Jesus said is really what we are asked to do. The Gospel ideas do not always make sense in our practical, secular world.

The person of God always does. We can debate the practicality and sense of ideas and doing so often keeps the more difficult ones at a safe distance away from us.

Jesus said to love our enemy, but we really don't need to do that, our minds try to convince us. It just doesn't make sense. Yet, if we are truly in love with the God who is behind the voice of those words, they make perfect sense.

Our deep and intimate love of this God would even find us laying down our lives for Him if necessary. Speak Lord, your servant is listening. ©LPi

Holy Hour Adoration

Our Holy Hour Adoration is Friday, January 22nd inside the church.

Three Guidelines:

- 1. Be Silent. Don't rattle prayers or silently review stresses. Be still exteriorly and interiorly.
- 2. Be Attentive. It's not simply a reading hour — reading should be an entry-point to prayer.
- 3. Be Alert. Sit, stand, or kneel respectfully. Quick tip: If you get sleepy, stand up!

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

You are not alone... <https://hopeafterabortion.com/>

Spiritual Adoption

Daily prayer for a period of nine months:

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." -
Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Your prayers CAN make a difference between whether a baby will be born...or aborted. Our prayers can also be a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.

A Prayer for Healing & Protection

Most merciful and loving God,
We come to you in our weakness.
We come to you in our fear.
We come to you with trust.
For you alone are our hope.

We place before you the pandemic present in our world.
We turn to you in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in your care.

Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.

Jesus, I trust in you. Amen. -Author Unknown
