Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

"Oh God, Creator of the universe, who extends your paternal concern over every creature and guides the events of history in the goal of salvation, we acknowledge your fatherly love when you break the resistance of mankind and, in a world torn by strife and discord, you make us ready for reconciliation."

Renew for us the wonders of your mercy: send forth your Spirit that He may work in the intimacy of hearts, that enemies may begin to dialogue, that adversaries may shake hands and peoples may encounter one another in harmony. May all commit themselves to the sincere search for true peace which will extinguish all arguments, for charity which overcomes hatred, for pardon which disarms revenge. Amen." Pope Saint John Paul II

Msgr. Mike & Fr. Emmanuel

In the midst of this crazy and fearful time we are going through, I have found a beautiful light that I wanted to share with you. The sisters of the Poor Clares of Arundel have created a serene and beautiful recording of meditations mixed with light instrumentation. I would encourage you to listen and bathe in the quiet sounds of peace. - Rosine Sorbom

Feed the Needy Update

Happy New year to all of our Saint James Parishioners. We again want to thank you for your generosity over the Christmas season. We could not have had such a successful Christmas celebration for our Homeless Community without you.

As the new year begins we continue to prepare 180 lunches weekly on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays for the needy. Your kind assistance is needed whenever possible to provide the following: Hamburger buns; chips; lunch meat; cheese sticks; fruit such as grapes and oranges:

6 - 8 ounce small water and juices.

These items all fit into lunch bags or into back packs.

We cannot accept or distribute used clothing due to the potential for spreading COVID 19.

Thank you again for your support. You are a blessing to our ministry and Homeless Community.

Please contact me at 310.488.9480 if you have questions or need additional information.

Maybe you grew up Catholic
Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.. Questions.
Doubts. Yearning. But not sure for what. We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.
Welcome home.

Q: The Catechism refers to it as:
 "...an epitome of the whole Gospel."

What is it that can be characterized as the epitome of the whole Gospel?

A: The epitome, the summary, the embodiment, and the expression of faith to which the catechism refers can be found amid the decades of - The Rosary.

Catechism Paragraph #971 reads: "The Church's devotion to the Blessed Virgin is intrinsic to Christian worship. The Church rightly honors the Blessed Virgin with special devotion. From the most ancient times the Blessed Virgin has been honored with the title of 'Mother of God,' to those whose protection the faithful fly in all their dangers and needs..."

In these days of dangers, needs, and exceptional challenges we indeed fly to Marian prayer, with rosary hopefully and confidently grasped. Ave Marias can be said individually; within our family; safely and responsibly spaced apart from other devotees; and we can even fly to the rosary in virtual unison at many sites online. Pope Francis, speaking at a Wednesday General Audience last October spoke about Marian prayer:

"Even today, in this time of the pandemic, it is necessary to hold the rosary in our hands and pray for us, our loved ones, and all people."

Our St. James choir sings the familiar devotional strains of the Ave Maria, Schubert's version that originated as part of his Opus 52 that centered on a composition called Ellen's Third Song, drawn from Sir Walter Scott's The Lady of the Lake. Franz List composed three variants of Ave Maria for piano. Charles Gounod has a similar, popular musical treatment. The Choir sings "Ave Maria" the Hail Mary, based on the Gospel of Luke, which Bible scholars say was originally written in eastern Mediterranean Greek, well before the Latin text that we employ, reflecting the words of the archangel Gabriel:

"Hail Mary- Ave Maria
 Full of grace- gratia plena
 The Lord is with thee - Dominus tecum..."

As the Catechism says about our Lady:

"She shines forth on earth, until the day of the Lord shall come, a sign of certain hope and comfort to the pilgrim People of God. When we pray to her, we are adhering with her to the plan of the Father...we can pray with and to her. The prayer of the Church is sustained by the prayer of Mary and united with it in hope."

Sweet, clement, Mary.

Together we are indeed, pilgrims on a journey.

Dominus tecum..

St. James Social and Sanitizing Protocols

Into the Breach

Inspired by Bishop Olmsted’s vision, the Knights of Columbus and the Diocese of Phoenix have joined together to produce a 12-episode video series, also titled Into the Breach. Each episode focuses on a different aspect of authentic Catholic masculinity and features interviews with well-known Catholic commentators and follows the personal story of a man whose life illuminates each theme.

The series can also be used for individual reflection and a study guide is available. By joining together in brotherhood, men receive the support they need to grow in virtue and to take action to serve Christ and others.

We hope that this series help you and all of us to step into the breach. To preview the video:

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

This week, our students will not have classes on January 26 and 27 due to a Teacher In-Service. Enjoy the extra time as a family! The following week, we will continue this year’s Safe Environment training. Please be sure to return your child’s permission slip for the Empowering God’s Children training if you have not done so. The permission form can be accessed on the Religious Education page on the parish website.

Parents of children preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, please remember that changes have been made to the schedule. The parent meeting will be held today, January 24, on the school field at 1:30. There will be no meeting on Monday, January 25.

Finally, we ask that you please pray for all the parish children who are preparing for their First Sacrament of Reconciliation, as well as for their families, and continue to pray for them as they prepare for their First Communion later this year. If you need suggestions for family prayer, please check out the Religious Education page on the parish website, where we have recently added some common prayers for Catholic families.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call. We are here Monday to Thursday from 9am-3pm, and our phone number is 310.379.3221.

May God bless you!

Andrea Sullivan

Director of Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James.

January is a very busy month as we celebrate Martin Luther King Jr. and prepare for Catholic Schools Week, Valentine’s Day and the 100th day of school are right around the corner and we are also approaching progress reports for the 2nd trimester.

We are beginning registration for the 2021- 2022 school year. We are accepting applications for grades TK – 8. New Student registration is available on our website SJScatholicSchool.org; we will have a Virtual Open House for new families on Thursday, January 28th at 9 am and 6 pm. Please email the school office@sjscatholicSchool.org or phone 310.371.0416 to reserve a spot.

God Bless you,

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

*I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.*

*Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.*

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

*Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

Gospel Meditation

It was a normal day by all accounts, but John just wasn't feeling himself.

He was a little lightheaded and out of sorts and certainly not himself. Later in the afternoon, he experienced chest a sharp pain in his chest and arm. Quick thinking and action brought John to the Emergency Department with a diagnosis of a significant heart attack. Surviving this ordeal, he found himself face to face with his cardiologist having an honest conversation about things that needed to change.

“I came close to death,” John found himself thinking. Then came the remorse. He was a young man with a loving wife and children who were very close to facing life without him. John found himself with intense sorrow for living an unchecked and self-indulgent life that almost brought him to his demise. He wanted to change.

We all have our wake-up calls.

We have experiences and encounters that call us to really think twice about choices we have made and directions we have taken. Often, we find ourselves looking at those we have hurt square in the eye and wallowing in our foolishness. We regrettably realize that we have allowed our ego needs to lure us into making some cruel mistakes. We impulsively say things and flippantly do things that reveal our unredeemed and unhealed self. It is a self we stumble over and try to tame but can't quite seem to master and control. Help!

We spin our wheels naively thinking that we will somehow, perhaps through persistence, get ourselves unstuck.

But, we don't.

We just get out of the car, feeling very helpless, and ignorantly look at the mess we got ourselves into. Did we ever think to ask someone for help? Or, taken the advice of One who is wiser and avoid this route altogether?

“Come after me,” are words that Jesus says to all of us.

In order to heed his invitation, we have to leave our ego-self behind and follow. When we really see and understand the freedom, peace, justice, and love he offers, we find ourselves with such sorrow in our hearts for how foolish and silly we have been.

All of the misguided choices and sinful actions come full view and we see how risky our random impassioned behaviors really have been.

Repentance is beautiful.

When done with a sincere and contrite heart, it directs us to the glory that can be ours, ignites us with the challenge of living a life in service of others and reminds us that all is well.

Holy Hour Adoration

Our Holy Hour Adoration is Friday, January 22nd inside the church. Next date is Feb. 12.

Three Guidelines:

- 1. Be Silent. Don't rattle prayers or silently review stresses. Be still exteriorly and interiorly.
- 2. Be Attentive. It's not simply a reading hour — reading should be an entry-point to prayer.
- 3. Be Alert. Sit, stand, or kneel respectfully. Quick tip: If you get sleepy, stand up!

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

You are not alone... <https://hopeafterabortion.com/>

Spiritual Adoption

Daily prayer for a period of nine months:

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." -
Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Your prayers CAN make a difference between whether a baby will be born...or aborted. Our prayers can also be a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.

A Prayer for Healing & Protection

Most merciful and loving God,
We come to you in our weakness.
We come to you in our fear.
We come to you with trust.
For you alone are our hope.

We place before you the pandemic present in our world.
We turn to you in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in your care.

Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.

Jesus, I trust in you. Amen. -Author Unknown

Sunday School

Would you like your children to learn about God's love for them? Would you like them to be familiar with favorite Old and New Testament bible stories? Would you like them to know basic Catholic prayers, but also to feel comfortable just talking to God in their own words? Do you wish there was a way for a preschool aged child to understand the message in the gospel reading?

If you have any questions or would like to enroll, please contact Sheila Kelly at 714.391.3949. Please text me first and let me know you are asking about Sunday School. You may also email me at skelly3156@gmail.com.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the recent Baby Bottle campaign. You helped raise over $5,000 for the Pregnancy Help Center, assisting them to continue to provide free services, including ultrasound, and support even more women to make life-affirming choices about pregnancy. Your gift saves lives. If you forgot to turn in your baby bottle, you can still do so at mass or donate online at supportphctorrance.org/contribute
