Love God. Love all People. Make Disciples.

Sat. Vigil 5:30 pm in church | Sunday Mass 8 am in church, 10, 12 noon at St. James School | Mon.-Sat. 8 am in Church

Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit;
he cried out, “What have you to do with us,
Jesus of Nazareth?
Have you come to destroy us?
I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”
Jesus rebuked him and said,
“Quiet! Come out of him!”

Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Celebrating our Masses outdoors comes with its own set of issues.

Getting the initial layout of canopies set up in July took several weeks to purchase and assemble. We dealt with fog, dew and cold without too much difficulty. The wind has been another story.

In early November a windy day blew over 7 of our 8 canopies. Salvaging about half of the pipes, we were in competition with every restaurant with outdoor seating to get replacement parts and eventually with the help of the Knights of Columbus we were able to rebuild the canopies and improve the layout...until the rainstorm the end of December weighed down the biggest of our canopies until it collapsed, and remains unrepaired.

January 19th was another windy day that blew down several of the canopies and again the race of salvaging reusable parts to reconstruct enough canopies for Mass last Sunday. With the prediction of high winds for Sunday night and Monday we finally had enough sense to enlist the help of some of our 1st Communion School and Religious Education dads to help remove the tarps after Masses and save the day because those howling winds definitely would have destroyed everything. The dads will return on Saturday to put the tarps back up on the frames again and ready for Sunday Masses.

And so it goes. The simple Sunday Masses on the school field aren't always so simple. Some days it has just been Father Emmanuel and me taking canopies apart or reassembling and Rob Blee has been a constant help as well. With the Knights and dads the heavy work gets done.

We take on the challenge gladly each time because it means we can gather together as a family of faith for another few weeks. Nourished with the Eucharist we are refocused in heart and mind to deal better with things even more challenging like the pandemic, work and family.

Blessings,

*Msgr. Mike
Fr. Emmanuel*

Q: St. Augustine, the incredibly converted fifth-century Bishop and Doctor of the Church was born in the ancient town of Hippo-Regius in North Africa. He made many observations about prayer, including the familiar pronouncement that, “those who sing, pray twice.”

Staying in this musical vein, he went on to say: “The words of our prayers are hymns, and when we sing them we add to them a fuller dimension of honor and praise...song is the gift God has given us to unite our heads and our hearts in praise.”

Our St. James Choir, in adherence to that Augustinian view, loves to add its voice in singing praise and honor by the saving word of God:

“Take the word of God with you as you go. Take the seeds of God’s word and make them grow. Take the love of God, the love of God, with you as you go.”

The disciples, in Luke 11 asked Jesus: “Teach us to pray.” Their master entrusts to them the Lord’s Prayer, the prayer that the catechism calls, “the summary of the whole Gospel, ...the most perfect of prayers.”

Matthew Kelly, in his book, I Heard God Laugh, offers a contemporary, practical, and accessible look at a prayer process that he believes should be indispensably central to our busy lives as we take the word of God with us as we go.

Among the author’s touchstones leading to a kind of wonderfully conversational form of prayer is, gratitude. One begins by thanking God in a personal dialogue for whatever one is most grateful for each day.

Next steps include: learning from personal shortcomings; pondering significant moments of the day; asking for forgiveness that leads to an abiding sense of peace; working to discern a better version of oneself; and, praying for others.

These daily steps, this habitual prayer, culminates with the praying of the Our Father.

Kelly believes that this method, practiced beginning within a 10 minute period of daily routine, will advance you spiritually as never before. It’s a user-friendly, potentially powerful approach to prayer.

We go then, about our daily lives of faith as the saintly Bishop Augustine exemplified, with head and heart full of praise, reassured and thankful that the love of God is with us as we go in peace to serve the Lord.

Into the Breach

Inspired by Bishop Olmsted’s vision, the Knights of Columbus and the Diocese of Phoenix have joined together to produce a 12-episode video series, also titled Into the Breach. Each episode focuses on a different aspect of authentic Catholic masculinity and features interviews with well-known Catholic commentators and follows the personal story of a man whose life illuminates each theme.

The series can also be used for individual reflection and a study guide is available. By joining together in brotherhood, men receive the support they need to grow in virtue and to take action to serve Christ and others.

We hope that this series help you and all of us to step into the breach. To preview the video:

Gospel Meditation

Most of us are quiet people who desire to live a good and holy life, promote the values and mission of the Gospel as best we can and desire to one day inherit the surprise of life eternal God promises to us.

We are not trail blazers.

We are simple people who want to do the simple things of life well. But there are others who left a more profound impact along the way of the paths they walked.

Folks like Dorothy Day, Martin Luther King, Thomas Merton, Gandhi, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and many others left lasting impacts and legacies. Like Moses, they show us by word and deed who God is and what integrity and a purpose driven life look like. They show us how to be holy. We need Moses people like these to give us inspiration, hope and an example of holy living.

We do not need to do what they did or even mirror their relationship with God.

Each one of us is God's special creation, with a purpose and soul known only to us. We need to learn how to open up and bring, without compromise, our soul-ness to life. We know when someone is authentic and centered because they always point to truth, even though they struggle and sin themselves, and they embody an unspoken timeless wisdom that just sounds and feels right. Jesus taught with this same type of authority and it astonished many who listened.

We do not need to move mountains, advance a cause, write books or become notable. All we have to do is become credible witnesses of the faith we profess. Moses people can teach us how to do this.

St. Oscar Romero was an amazing man and a Moses figure for sure. He saw God in the burning bush and brought the flame of Gospel faith to the poorest of the poor, challenging the evils of the society in which he lived. He was tireless and persistent. He must have gotten very close to the problem because it cost him his life. He suspected it would.

St. Romero said, “When we leave Mass, we ought to go out the way Moses descended Mt Sinai: with his face shining, with his heart brave and strong to face the world’s difficulties.”

We can learn from this wisdom. If we allow the power of the Mass to truly transform us, we will leave that holy encounter changed. Our face will shine, and we will have courage. We can then bring what we have received to life's challenges. That sounds doable, doesn't it? Because of the example of our simple holiness, people will be amazed.

Holy Hour Adoration

Our Holy Hour Adoration is Friday, February 12th, inside the church. This is the last opportunity. We'll be having Stations of the Cross on Fridays during Lent.

Three Guidelines:

- 1. Be Silent. Don't rattle prayers or silently review stresses. Be still exteriorly and interiorly.
- 2. Be Attentive. It's not simply a reading hour — reading should be an entry-point to prayer.
- 3. Be Alert. Sit, stand, or kneel respectfully. Quick tip: If you get sleepy, stand up!

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

You are not alone... <https://hopeafterabortion.com/>

Spiritual Adoption

Daily prayer for a period of nine months:

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." - Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Your prayers CAN make a difference between whether a baby will be born...or aborted. Our prayers can also be a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.

A Prayer for Healing & Protection

Most merciful and loving God,
We come to you in our weakness.
We come to you in our fear.
We come to you with trust.
For you alone are our hope.

We place before you the pandemic present in our world.
We turn to you in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in your care.

Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.
Jesus, I trust in you. Amen. -Author Unknown
