Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Holy Week and Easter were such a joy this year and it was so exciting to see our community beginning to gather again as more and more are getting their vaccinations. It is the healing grace of Christ's Resurrection and the promise of the Kingdom that brings us a new hope and confidence in the midst of the world. The power of a community gathered in faith with Christ, sharing His Word and His Eucharist brings each of us the strength, hope, love and life that none of us possess on our own. We have been richly blessed at St. James to be in a community that is so welcoming and makes us know we are home.

The cover of the bulletin this week comes from our 10 am Easter Mass last week at the school as one of our children could not help but dance for joy during the Communion meditation song. This is one of the unexpected blessings of celebrating Mass outdoors.

On another much more unexpected note, Fr. Emmanuel has accepted a parish assignment in the Diocese of Springfield, Missouri.

He will begin his assignment there on April 27th.

Fr. Emmanuel came to Los Angeles in 2015 for his Masters Degree in Theology at Loyola-Marymount University, which he completed in 2018.

His bishop allowed him to remain in Los Angeles to experience parish life here and we have been blessed to have him assigned at St. James for the last 2 ½ years.

He has shared with us his deep faith, his extensive knowledge of Scripture and his passion for his ministry and the Gospel.

We will have his farewell at all the Masses on the weekend of April 24-25, as pandemic regulations allow.

Msgr. Mike

Maybe you grew up Catholic
Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.. Questions.
Doubts. Yearning. But not sure for what. We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.
Welcome home.

Gospel Meditation

What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. "Mercy is the heart of God," Pope Francis tells us. The image of a heart has been used to point to the very life source of a person as it is the organ that allows life to flow through our veins and sustain us. Mercy is the heart of God. Imagine this dynamic, powerful, compassionate, piercing, embracing, loving, propelling, penetrating, absorbing, and enveloping, transforming presence of God flowing into the very depth of our souls. It is God's mercy that allows blood to flow through our veins. It is God's mercy that forms every atom of our being and leads us to what is true. God's mercy reveals all superficiality and falsehood, and lays bare all distortions, empty promises, weakness, and sin.

"Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope," Pope Francis continues. God's all forgiving, compassionate love is with us. When we finally believe and accept that Christ's resurrected transfigured presence resides with us, we then find within us a strong confidence to accept life's imperfections and disappointments and move on. Every day is a new adventure in new life. God leaves the past behind and opens doors to the future. It doesn't matter how many mistakes we made yesterday. All that matters is what we do tomorrow and what we learn along the way. It is so easy to remain tethered and mired in the past, but there is no need to do so. God is all about tomorrow and the work God has yet to do in our lives.

Mercy gives birth to hope. Hope for the greatest of sinners and hope for the worst of disasters. There is nothing God cannot do and nothing God cannot fashion. After all, everything we know and treasure was once nothing, and look what God did with the nothing God had! The resurrected Christ stands before us with nail marks in his wrists and wounds on his body as a testament that not even injustice, suffering and death can trample over and destroy God's mercy. What have we to fear? Why do we keep ourselves from peace? Our lack of faith prevents us from going forward and fully receiving the holiness God desires to breathe upon us. Breathe in God's mercy, allow the wind of God's presence to kiss all of your sins and caress all of your fears. Exhale peace. ©LPi

Religious Education

Happy Easter, Friends and Families of Saint James!

Thank you to everyone who participated in our Feed the Needy Drive!

The response from the Preschool, the Mom's Group, Sunday School, Saint James School, Children's Liturgy of the Word, Confirmation and Youth Ministry, and our Religious Education families was overwhelming!

Thank you for showing your love for God by loving our neighbors with such an outpouring of generosity.

As we celebrate Easter, we also approach our parish's First Communion celebrations, which will be held during regular parish Masses on April 17, 18, 24, and 25.

We hope that all parishioners will keep the children and their families in their prayers as they finish their preparation for their special day.

May your family's celebration of this greatest feast in our Church year bring you hope and joy, and may you be aware of God presence with you in your celebrations!

Happy, happy Easter! God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,
Director of Religious Education

Sunday School

Would you like your children to learn about God's love for them? Would you like them to know basic Catholic prayers, but also to feel comfortable just talking to God in their own words? Do you wish there was a way for a preschool aged child to understand the message in the gospel reading?

If you have any questions or would like to enroll, please contact Sheila Kelly at 714.391.3949. Please text me first and let me know you are asking about Sunday School. You may also email me sikelly3156@gmail.com.

Q: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

How does this last paragraph of the Gospel of Matthew, set amid the events of Eastertide, contribute to guiding the Church’s vision of its continuing commission of evangelization?

A: In the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the seeds of evangelization are consistently sprinkled throughout. Paragraph 2104 summarizes:

“The social duty of Christians is to respect and awaken in each man the love of the true and the good. It requires them to make known the worship of the one true religion which subsists in the Catholic and apostolic Church. Christians are called to be the light of the world.”

This “social duty of religion” outlined in the catechism is reflected in our own St. James Mission Statement:

“The mission of St. James Church is to build up the Body of Christ by evangelizing those weak in faith, healing the hurt and alienated Catholic, nourishing the faith and commitment of its active members.”

Additionally, as part of this paradigm, parishioners are encouraged to be, “...in right relationship with one another.”

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has defined evangelization as:

“Bringing the Good News of Jesus into every human situation and seeking to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel itself. Evangelization must always be directly connected to the Lord Jesus Christ. Evangelization happens when the word of Jesus speaks to people’s hearts and minds. The fruits of evangelization are changed lives and a changed world- holiness and justice, spirituality and peace.”

The Church and the Catechism provide many narratives about the evangelizing spirit and related evangelizing actions. Our Choir draws from the Ministry and Mission section of its Hymnal as part of a musical call to evangelization in the familiar song,

“Take the Word of God With You”
Take the love of God with you as you go,
Take the seeds of God’s love and make them grow,
Go in peace to serve the world,
in peace to serve the world,
Take the love of God with you as you go...

Speaking about the many forms of evangelization, the Catechism and the Bishops teach that as part of evangelism’s core essence of love:

“We can only share what we have received; we can hold on to our faith only if it continues to grow. But if salt loses its taste, Jesus asked, with what can it be seasoned?

The continuing story of salvation in Christ involves each of us one by one as well as society itself. How else could it be? The Gospel must overflow from each heart until the presence of God transforms all human existence.”

The Catechism teaches that it remains for the Church and for all who seek right relationship with one another to honor the good news of evangelization in its many forms and to continue to nourish the faith as Christians called one by one to be, “the light of the world.”

History of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy

In 1935, St. Faustina received a vision of an angel sent by God to chastise a certain city. She began to pray for mercy, but her prayers were powerless. Suddenly she saw the Holy Trinity and felt the power of Jesus' grace within her. At the same time she found herself pleading with God for mercy with words she heard interiorly:

Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world; for the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us. (Diary, 475)

As she continued saying this inspired prayer, the angel became helpless and could not carry out the deserved punishment (see 474). The next day, as she was entering the chapel, she again heard this interior voice, instructing her how to recite the prayer that our Lord later called "the Chaplet." This time, after "have mercy on us" were added the words "and on the whole world" (476). From then on, she recited this form of prayer almost constantly, offering it especially for the dying.

In subsequent revelations, the Lord made it clear that the Chaplet was not just for her, but for the whole world. He also attached extraordinary promises to its recitation.

Encourage souls to say the Chaplet which I have given you (1541). Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death (687). When they say this Chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the Merciful Savior (1541). Priests will recommend it to sinners as their last hope of salvation. Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this Chaplet

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

You are not alone... <https://hopeafterabortion.com/>

Spiritual Adoption

Daily prayer for a period of nine months:

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." -
Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Your prayers CAN make a difference between whether a baby will be born...or aborted. Our prayers can also be a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.

<http://spiritualadoption.org>

only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy (687). I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy (687). Through the Chaplet you will obtain everything, if what you ask for is compatible with My will. (1731)

Prayed on ordinary rosary beads, The Chaplet of The Divine Mercy is an intercessory prayer that extends the offering of the Eucharist, so it is especially appropriate to use it after having received Holy Communion at Holy Mass. It may be said at any time, but our Lord specifically told St. Faustina to recite it during the nine days before the Feast of Mercy (the first Sunday after Easter). He then added: "By this Novena, [of Chaplets] I will grant every possible grace to souls." (796)

It is likewise appropriate to pray the Chaplet during the "Hour of Great Mercy" — three o'clock each afternoon (recalling the time of Christ's death on the cross). In His revelations to St. Faustina, Our Lord asked for a special remembrance of His Passion at that hour.

A Prayer for Healing & Protection

Most merciful and loving God,
We come to you in our weakness.
We come to you in our fear.
We come to you with trust.
For you alone are our hope.

We place before you the pandemic present in our world.
We turn to you in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in your care.

Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.

Jesus, I trust in you. Amen.

Philosophy
We believe in creating a warm and loving environment
where children can
learn about themselves,
gain an understanding of others
and develop strong self-esteem.
