Fr. Emmanuel's Farewell

This weekend we will be bidding Fr. Emmanuel farewell at all the Masses.

Due to COVID restrictions on large gatherings of people as well as food service restrictions, sadly we are not able to have any kind of formal reception.

Fr. Emmanuel will be at all the Masses Saturday/Sunday to say goodbye and you will have a chance to greet him with your own thanks.

Fr. Emmanuel was ordained in Nigeria and has been at St. James since September, 2018 and we have been blessed so much by his presence here. We know he will be missed!

Fr. Emmanuel has always been eager and enthusiastic about ministry and helping wherever he is needed. He has fit into life in the rectory so well and Fr. Jim and Fr. IK. and I have found him to be a welcome addition to the house.

We have appreciated his faith and his humor as we acknowledge we have been blessed by this time we shared together. Our blessings go with him.

He is being assigned to a parish in the Diocese of Springfield, Missouri. We will share the details of his assignment once he has arrived there and can give us his contact information.

Msgr. Mike

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

There are not too many people who are privileged to be where they want and love to be.

I must confess that there were times I stopped to ask myself if I deserved all the love I was getting at the St. James church. I am grateful to God for the opportunity to serve at this parish. Most especially for the sustained enthusiasm.

My stay here would not have been memorable if the pastor was not kind and supportive. Monsignor Meyers created a fraternal and calm environment for me to work for him.

Thank you, Msgr.. In the same vein, I extend my sentiments of gratitude to Fr. Jim and Fr. IK. for their friendship and encouragement.

To the wonderful deacons and their wives, and to the staff of St. James Church, I thank you for always being there and your unquantifiable support.

If we weren't lacking space here, I would have mentioned every ministry that had the best interest for me, to them; and to all our parishioners who always smiled at me, prayed for me and gave me gifts, I will never forget.

Thank you all.

Silver and gold, I do not have, but my simple prayer is that the good Lord will continue to bless you graciously.

May He let His face shine upon you.

May He give you peace.

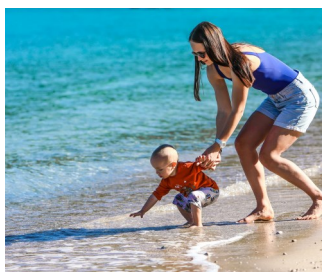

May He reward you abundantly and give answers to your prayers.

Amen.

Please, continue to pray for me as I do the same for you. Thank you.

Fr. Emmanuel Konyeaso

Gospel Meditation

Any builder worth his or her salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone.

Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success.

Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference or starting point.

Hence, what unfolds is a tapestry of relativism, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, the pursuit of love without a simultaneous pursuit of its source can be shallow and self-focused.

Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and properly anchored to the real cornerstone.

Jesus is the true and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. It is only in following the Risen One as the way, the truth, and the life that we can move from being well grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones.

Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope, and love will be difficult to find unless we listen to the right Voice. It is when we learn to listen to the voice of God that we begin our journey on the road to salvation.

It is only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, who can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding themselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color their choices and influence their decisions.

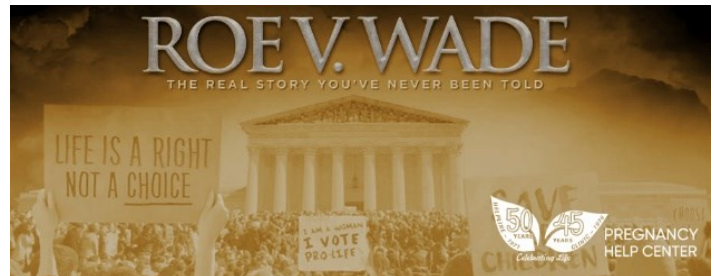

The foundation of their lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas people who believe that they are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made them, have this incredible unconditional relationship at their source which has tremendous significance. Their allegiance is not to themselves but to their Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite their will to His. There is a cost. We have to give up our life in order to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. It is only when we finally figure this out that the true cornerstone of our lives will be properly laid and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Spiritual Adoption

Daily prayer for a period of nine months:
"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." - Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Your prayers CAN make a difference between whether a baby will be born...or aborted. Our prayers can also be a form of spiritual support for both of the parents. Please share the love of life given to you by the Lord of all life and join in spiritually adopting a baby.

Q: A Bishop in Pittsburg recently made the point that the word Easter should not only be categorized as a noun, it should also be considered a verb. To what sort of action of faith could he have been referring?

A: The Catechism of the Catholic Church, (a beautifully actionable instructional faith summary), teaches about the Church's mission in the world, and how all Christians are called to the "fullness of Christian life and to the perfection of charity."

"Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature." Mark 16:15

Our Saint James Choir puts it to music in a song of justice, "We Are Called" :

Come, open your heart! We are called to act with justice, we are called to love tenderly, we are called to serve one another, to walk humbly with God."

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops points out some of the action words of mission found in the Catechism:

"The disciples of Christ must not only keep the faith and live in it, but also profess it."

The Bishops add:

"Evangelization is the essential Catholic mission. The new evangelization is not a matter of merely passing on a doctrine, but rather of a personal and profound meeting with the savior."

Pope Paul VI wrote in Evangelii Nuntiatio, (Evangelization In the Modern World):

"Evangelism will always contain - as the foundation, center, and at the same time, the summit of its dynamism - a clear proclamation that, in Jesus Christ... salvation is offered to all men, as a gift of God's grace and mercy."

That Bishop in Pittsburgh causes us to note many action words on this topic. He also said that evangelism could begin with small moves, like inviting someone to Church, or to do good loving deeds for one's neighbor.

Again, our Choir, with a song of unity:

*We are many parts, we are all one body,
And the gifts we have, we are given to share.
May the Spirit of love, make us one indeed;
One, the love that we share, one, our hope in despair,
One, the cross that we bear.
If you love, then you will know the Lord.*

All part of the beauty of the action of our mission.

Religious Education

Happy Fourth Sunday of Easter, Friends and Families of Saint James!

Just as the joy of the Easter cannot be contained in a single day, we hope that the joy of our parish children who are receiving the Sacrament of the Eucharist for the first time spills over into the St. James community!

This weekend at all our Masses and next weekend at the 5:30 Vigil Mass, we continue to celebrate First Communion.

We hope that we may all be filled with renewed awareness of the gift we receive in the Body and Blood of Christ. Please keep the children and their families in your prayers.

Congratulations, First Communicants!

A Prayer for Healing & Protection

Most merciful and loving God,
We come to you in our weakness.
We come to you in our fear.
We come to you with trust.
For you alone are our hope.

We place before you the pandemic present in our world.
We turn to you in our time of need.

Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died into your eternal home.

Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in your care.

Jesus, I trust in you. Jesus, I trust in you.
Jesus, I trust in you. Amen.
