Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

“A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat,
so that it was already filling up.

Jesus was .. asleep. They woke him.

He ... said to the sea, “Quiet! Be still!”

The wind ceased and there was great calm.

They were filled with great awe and said to one another,

“Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?”

Pastor's Corner

Honoring the men of our lives on Fathers Day

Fathers Day is a special day for us to remember and lift up the men of our parish. It is a day for all the men in our community, who nurture us, support us and guide us in our becoming and who show by their examples the fruits of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness and faithfulness. Thank God for the dads who love unconditionally.

Fathers meet us in some very different ways, and today we celebrate them all. We thank God for the gift of fatherhood.

For fathers embracing their vocation that they may find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

For those men who have taken in others' children through adoption and foster care or mentoring, showing us that the love of God far extends beyond biological ties.

For fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering, that they may know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

For the special love of God as our Father when we need Him most, to bring healing to men for whom we had or have difficult relationships with as fathers.

We thank you, Lord, for the men who have influenced our lives in so many ways. Continue to bless them and guide them and help them to know how important their gift of love is to us all. Fill them with the grace of your Holy Spirit as we lift our voices in your name, O heavenly Father in whom we adore. Amen.
Blessings to you all,

Msrgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Tuesday Night Online Bible Study

Our group is starting a new 8 week course on "Romans: The Gospel of Salvation" by Ascension.

The first lesson begins on June 22nd. The group meets every Tuesday night at 7pm using Zoom.

Please contact Donna Wilson (dwilson94@gmail.com) or Randy Sgro (rsgro@sbcglobal.net) if you would like to join in this study.

Happy Father's Day from all of us here at St. James Youth Ministry!

Congratulations to the newly ordained Fr. César Guardado! He's been a great friend since he joined St. James as a seminarian back in 2018 and was a huge support to our ministry during his stay here. He even returned to assist us during our weekend retreat last year before the pandemic happened! We are so excited for you & will continue praying for you, Fr. César!

Registration for the upcoming 2021-2022 Confirmation year will open in early July 2021. Details will be found on our youth ministry website, the church website, our social media accounts & here on the bulletin once registration goes live. We look forward to continuing the journey with you!

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Good news! Our registration for the 2021-2022 school year has gone digital and is open on the Religious Education page of the parish website!

SaintJames.Church/RE

But wait, there is more to look for on the parish website over the summer! We will continue to post the weekly Faith @ Home resource, which is based upon the Sunday Scriptures we hear at Mass, as well as the Partners in Faith newsletter each month. We may not be in classes, but our faith journey continues! We hope these resources help you as you raise children of faith.

Finally, we are seeking Catechists for next year. Pope Francis said in a homily in 2013, "Who are catechists? They are people who keep the memory of God alive; they keep it alive in themselves and they are able to revive it in others. This is something beautiful: to remember God..."

If you feel called to this formal role of sharing our faith with others as a memory keeper of God, please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or email us at religiously@stjamesparish.org.

The Religious Education Program has Catechists who serve in many areas, including in our Religious Education classes, our Sunday School program, and our Children's Liturgy of the Word program.

Our community needs your gifts. Please consider how the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve our parish during the coming school year.

God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,

Director of Religious Education

Update on Fr. Emmanuel

Since leaving St. James on May 1st, Fr. Emmanuel has moved to the Diocese of Springfield, Missouri, where he was initially assigned as Administrator of a parish where the pastor had travelled to India and became 'stuck' there because of COVID restrictions.

He has just shared with us that on July 1st, he will be reassigned to his own parish as Administrator.

He will be assigned to :

Sainte Marie du Lac Church
350 S Main St.

Ironton is a small town with only 1,500 residents.

The church has 3 Sunday Masses.

Fr. Emmanuel is doing well and looking forward to moving there.

He sends greetings to all at St. James.

Part of our DNA of faith as St. James parishioners is our Church, including the statue honoring St. Joseph and all he represents. This includes the etched words overarching the statue from Romans 12:21, part of Paul's Letters to the Christian community in Rome.

Q: What is a significant feature of Paul's letters?

A: These letters are described by theologians as "the systematic unfolding of the apostle's thought, expounding the gospel of God's righteousness that saves all who believe." Each time we are in Church we may consider those words which are extracted from a section of that chapter in Romans subtitled, "The Duties of Christians."

Q: What are these timeless words?

A: "Be not conquered by evil but conquer evil with good."

Q: How is St. Joseph, a man who epitomized righteousness, selflessness and that spirit of carrying out his duties, seen among the impressive panoply of saints by the Church?

A: Vatican News service places Joseph at the "crossroads between the Old and New Testament, ...always venerated as a father by the Christian people. In him Jesus saw the tender love of God, the one that helps us accept our weakness, because it is through and despite our fears, our frailties, and our weakness, that most divine designs are realized."

Q: This year has been designated the "Year of Saint Joseph." How did this commemorative designation come to be?

A: "The Holy Father, marking the 150th anniversary of the declaration of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church, wrote the letter, Patris Corde, (With a Father's Heart), against the backdrop of the Covid-19 pandemic, which, he says, has helped us see more clearly the importance of "ordinary" people who, though far from the limelight, exercise patience and offer hope every day. In this, they resemble Saint Joseph, the man who goes unnoticed, a daily discreet, and hidden presence, who nonetheless played an incomparable role in the history of salvation."

Q What does the Catechism teach about the role of St. Joseph?

A: In keeping within the role of the mostly silent, righteous father, the Catechism, in the section called "The Profession of Faith", provides a narrative which focuses primarily on the divine Son, and Mother Mary. Joseph is described as a man who, with his wife, accepted events with faith, providing, as the catechism puts it, a sort of "lesson of silence."

Q: The Pope's letter, Patris corde ends with a prayer to Saint Joseph. How does that prayer end?

A: "Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life."

Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen."

Or, as we at Saint James observe and believe:

"Be not conquered by evil but conquer evil with good..."

Due to pandemic restrictions St. James will not be hosting the families on their scheduled week of June 20th-26th.

Gospel Meditation

As we look at our lives and world events, do we ever find ourselves wondering if God is sleeping?

After all, maybe God's patient, unconditional love has run its course and He is finally fed up with humanity's reluctance to accept the truth about who we are. God really can't be that patient! All throughout human history, many have prayed to God for intervention or for particular needs. Because their prayers were not answered in the way they wanted or anticipated, they felt that God may have abandoned them. Were they right? It seems that we are continuing, at a rapid rate, down a path of destruction. Do you not care, God, that we may be perishing? When the boats of our lives are rocking and the seas tumultuous, we want to know that we have God's attention. Even more so, we want God's intervention.

Maybe the storms and the waves are necessary. If we listen, they can teach us valuable lessons. Without them, we would never learn that we have the strength to endure, understand the uselessness of fear and worry, or develop the ability to really trust. If God immediately rushed in and simply calmed things down before they got difficult, what good would that really be? We would miss opportunities to learn how to drink more deeply of life, treasure its complexity, irony, and beauty and fully engage ourselves in surrendering to the love of our Creator. It is easy to walk on the surface of life without immersing ourselves in its messiness.

Life has to burn its way through us in order to bring us to a place of secure trust. It's unfortunate that some prefer a shallower journey.

That's the balancing act that comes with faith. It is not God's job to prevent us from encountering the torrential rains and winds of life. Many believe that if faith is done the right way that God will provide for smooth sailing. That's not how it works. God permits us to ride out the difficult stuff knowing that the storm will eventually be calmed. Do we not have faith that God will do this?

True faith trusts in the steadfastness of God's love when the seas are calm and when they are choppy. God's unconditional loving presence shines through all of it and endures forever. Knowing this allows us to put our boats out into uncharted waters without hesitation.

Knowing that we prefer the comfort and safety of what we know to be still waters, how do we feel when Jesus says, "Let us cross to the other side"?
