Celebrating our Freedoms this July 4th

This weekend as we celebrate the 4th of July, we appreciate the freedoms and democracy that we have in this country. While we celebrate our individual freedoms we remind ourselves that these freedoms are shared by us all as a country. The freedom we share today was hard-fought to establish and has been hard-fought to maintain.

It continues, not because I insist on my own freedoms and rights as an individual, but as a country, and as each individual in this country, we insist on the same freedoms and rights for everyone. It's hard to believe that after 245 years of 'freedom', we still struggle, and often fail, to provide those rights and freedoms to all.

On this day we are so thankful for the religious freedom that we have and the opportunity to gather and worship God as a Catholic community of faith and to uphold these same rights for other faiths. May the respect that we have for ourselves and the respect and value we have for others help us to deal with any polarization that divides us and seek to promote the middle ground that unites us and enables us all to protect the life, liberty and pursuit of happiness we seek.

Blessings,

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Our in-person meetings began in May, also shown on Zoom for those who could not attend.

We were able to do our Retreat and to celebrate Our Blessed Mother's crowning in person on May, 19th.

We donate generously to several charitable causes. Members give their time, energy and support to help others in the service of Christ. CDA members enjoy each other's company at their monthly meetings held on the third Wednesday of each month at Kavanagh Hall.

At this time, we are inviting all Catholic women of all ages from all surrounding parishes who are dedicated to Church and country to join our Court. Before each meeting we start by saying the holy Rosary.

We have various functions throughout the year to help raise funds for the different charities we support.

Aside from the National charities we support St. James Homeless, Ronald McDonald, Children's Hospital and various others. If you are looking for a Catholic women's group to join, we are the one!

The Differences in Sins

As a result of Original Sin, human nature is weakened. Baptism, by imparting the life of Christ's grace, takes away Original Sin, and turns us back toward God. The consequences of this weakness and the inclination to evil persist, and we often commit personal or actual sin.

Actual sin is sin which people commit.

There are two kinds of actual sin, mortal and venial. Mortal sin is a deadly offense against God, so horrible that it destroys the life of grace in the soul.

Three simultaneous conditions must be fulfilled for a mortal sin: 1) the act must be something very serious; 2) the person must have sufficient understanding of what is being done; 3) the person must have sufficient freedom of the will.

The sacrament of Confession is available every Saturday from 4-5 pm in the church parking lot.

It is the ordinary way for us to have our sins forgiven. This sacrament is a powerful help to get rid of our weaknesses, grow in holiness, and lead a balanced and virtuous life.

Happy 4th of July!

As our vibrant ministry continues to grow with excitement from our teens, we find ourselves in need for more adults to walk alongside our youth as Adult Core Members. No experience needed! Visit our website to join or contact the Youth Ministry office for more details.

Registration for the upcoming 2021-2022 Confirmation year will open very soon! Details will be found on our youth ministry website, the church website, our social media accounts & here in the bulletin once registration goes live.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Our registration for the 2021-2022 school year is open on the Religious Education page of the parish website, <https://www.saintjames.church/RE>. You can also find the weekly Faith @ Home resource, which is based upon the Sunday Scriptures we hear at Mass, as well as the Partners in Faith newsletter for each month. We hope these resources help you as you raise children of faith.

As we look to next fall, we also seek new Catechists. Pope Francis said in a homily in 2013,

“Who are catechists? They are people who keep the memory of God alive; they keep it alive in themselves and they are able to revive it in others. This is something beautiful: to remember God...”

If you feel called to this formal role of sharing our faith with others as a memory keeper of God, please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or email us at religioused@stjamesparish.org.

The Religious Education Program has Catechists who serve in many areas, including in our Religious Education classes, our Sunday School program, and our Children's Liturgy of the Word program.

Our community needs your gifts. Please consider how the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve our parish during the coming school year.

God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,

Director of Religious Education

What to do if your child is missing

It is every parent's worst nightmare — losing a child somewhere. If your child is missing, knowing what to do and acting quickly can help bring him/her home safely.

First, call the police. Give them a full description of what your child looks like, what he/she was wearing, when you last saw him/her. Provide pictures if possible. Then call the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children at 1-800-THE-LOST (1-800-843-5678).

If your child is missing from home, check your house thoroughly: behind and in large appliances, in closets, under beds, in your cars.

At a recent 8am Sunday Mass, Monsignor Mike was talking about the Trinity, a subject rooted in love. It followed that Monsignor quoted Mark's Gospel about love and the "Greatest Commandment" that the long-ago scribe discussed with Jesus.

Q: Which is the first of all the commandments?

A: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength."

Q: The Sadducees gave way to the Pharisees who persisted in the questioning: What is the second?

A: The second is this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Q: What does the Catechism teach about the charitable love of God?

A: In one of more than 30 entries about the subject of love, the Catechism states: "This is the path of charity, that is, of the love of God and of neighbor. Charity is the greatest commandment. It respects others and their rights. Charity inspires a life of self-giving."

Q: How did Pope Francis echo the pastoral insight of Monsignor Mike and the spiritual guidance of the Catechism?

A: In his own Homily, the Holy Father said: "Today's Gospel Reading reminds us that the whole of Divine Law can be summed up in our love for God and neighbor. Two sides of the same coin; you cannot love God without loving your neighbor, and you cannot love your neighbor without loving God."

Q: How does the Saint James Choir give us a measure of musical summary of the whole of Divine Law?

A: With a David Haas composition they sing a song of divine grace, and aspirational gathering: "Where there is love, there is God. The love of God has gathered us together, Alleluia." Two sides of the same coin. It's good to know, (as the Choir sings), that, "Love will endure."

Gospel Meditation

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it.

The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized.

Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.
