Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits...
So they went off and preached repentance.
The Twelve drove out many demons,
and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. Mk. 6:12, 12-13

Maybe you grew up Catholic
Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.. Questions.
Doubts. Yearning. But not sure for what. We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.
Welcome home.

Come, now is the time to worship

Come, now is the time to give your heart
Come, just as you are to worship
Come, just as you are before your God
Come

One day ev'ry tongue will confess You are God
One day ev'ry knee will bow
Still the greatest treasure remains for those
Who gladly choose you now

One day ev'ry tongue will confess You are God
One day ev'ry knee will bow
Still the greatest treasure remains for those,
Who gladly choose you now

Willingly we choose to surrender our lives
Willingly our knees will bow
With all our hearts, oh, mind and strength
We gladly choose you now

Oh, come, just as you are before your God
Come, oh you nations
Come, come and worship
Oh, come (come and worship your maker!)

Respect Life Ministry

Your help is urgently needed to stop mail order abortion!

Sign the petition to stop the FDA from removing health and safety standards required for the distribution of the dangerous Chemical Abortion Pills aka RU486. Before these pills are prescribed, women are required to visit a doctor to determine gestational age and rule out ectopic pregnancy. Lifting standards would endanger not only the life of the preborn baby but also the woman's life and allow her to purchase by mail without a doctor's exam. Go to ThisIsChemicalAbortion.com to sign and watch a short 5-part docuseries.

Wendy Bell, Director

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Our registration for the 2021-2022 school year is open on the Religious Education page of the parish website, www.saintjames.church/re. The website is also where you can find the weekly Faith @ Home resource, which is based upon the Sunday Scriptures we hear at Mass, as well as the Partners in Faith newsletter for each month. We hope these resources help you as you raise children of faith.

As we look to next fall, we also seek new Catechists. Pope Francis said in a homily in 2013, "Who are catechists? They are people who keep the memory of God alive; they keep it alive in themselves and they are able to revive it in others. This is something beautiful: to remember God..."

If you feel called to this formal role of sharing our faith with others as a memory keeper of God, please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or email us at religioused@stjamesparish.org.

The Religious Education Program has Catechists who serve in many areas, including in our Religious Education classes, our Sunday School program, and our Children's Liturgy of the Word program.

Our community needs your gifts. Please consider how the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve our parish during the coming school year.

The Office of Religious Education will be closed starting this Friday, July 16, through August 15, but we will check emails and phone messages once a week during that time. Please reach out if you have questions about registration or becoming a Catechist.

Have a great summer, and God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,

Director of Religious Education

Q: The Light.

- Let your light so shine that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.
- The Lord is my light and my salvation.
- A voice in the desert testifies to the light.
- Christ be our light.
- Let there be light...

Yet, marked with practical and literal contrast, we can find many examples in scripture of spiritual darkness.

One foreboding example is found in Proverbs:
"The way of the wicked is darksome."

How can we continue to elevate our collective lamps of discernment from under the bushel basket to assure a proper level of personal illumination, sufficient for our spiritual journey?

A: That ubiquitous and familiar symbolism of divine light is described in the Catechism as one of the "theophanies." That section of the Catechism called "The Profession of Faith" defines theophanies, (such as the imagery of light), as manifestations of Christ. The Bible and the Catechism are rich with the fulfilling salvation of the manifested, enlightened grace of God.

The Church celebrates the August 6 Feast Day of the Transfiguration of the Lord as a crowning moment of the light of manifested glory. In one description of the Transfiguration we read, "...he is God, and lives for all eternity in a blaze of dazzling and unapproachable light."

The Choir sings a Bob Hurd song of light, inspired by the Gospels, called Transfigure Us, O Lord:

"Light for all in darkness, the hungry have their fill, tidings for the humble, the healing of all ills; these we glimpse your glory, God's promises fulfilled."

Manifestations of Christ. The light of divine, transformative, healing faith.

May our light so shine.

Gospel Meditation

Maybe the work is best left to the professionals. That's how many people view the preaching of the Gospel. That's the stuff priests, religious, deacons, lay ministers, and other professional Church people do. It has little to do with me. Well, that's not really true. The fact of the matter is that preaching the Gospel has everything to do with you, with all of us who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. Nobody gets off the hook from that job. The question is, however, how do we do it? Well, there's a safe way, which many choose, to preach the Gospel — and the risky way. The safe way pretty much keeps the Gospel in church and around like-minded people. I say my prayers, go to Mass, contribute to the food pantry, tithe, and attend Bible Study. That pretty much covers the bases, right? Wrong.

The risky way is the more challenging way and for many, the “road less traveled.” Imagine those first disciples going out and into people's homes. They must have had some amazing conversations with folks about God's kingdom, changing their hearts, forgiving sins, and looking at the world differently. They must have met people who were hurting, exiled from their communities, neglected, lost, or living self-insulated lives in a society that served the rich and neglected the poor. While there were many who welcomed what they had to say and the conversations they had, there were others who no doubt rejected them and literally tossed them out on their ears! The Gospel, while being a message of joy and hope, is not always received well by those who are very comfortable keeping things as they are.

The risky way involves example and conversation. We have to take the Gospel from church and carry it with us wherever we go. What kinds of conversations do we have with others? We interact with those closest to us, in our work, social circles, institutions, corporations, in politics, and beyond. Our conversations with others reveal a great deal about how we see things and what we consider important. If we are really interested in seeing God's vision for the world succeed, then we will talk about it. It will become a part of our everyday conversation and find its way into our interactions with others. How will we preserve the dignity of human life and encourage others to have a relationship with God? We must be the example, live value centered, virtuous lives, stand against injustice, combating racism, and learn ways to resolve conflicts without violence.

If we are going to succeed going forward, we have to find a way to bring our prayer centered lives into the marketplace. Our conversations have to change. Not everyone wants to hear what the Gospel has to say. That's a risk God asks us to take. ©LPi
