Pastor's Letter

End of Summer Returns Us to 'Normal'

Father Soney Sebastian joins us for all our Masses this weekend. He is preaching for the Diocese of Idukki, India, as part of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles' Mission Co-Operation Plan to support the needs of the Mission Churches around the world.

We thank you for your warm welcome and generous support. The entire collection we receive for this appeal will be sent to the Diocese of Idukki.

With the opening of schools last week and this week for both public school students and St. James students we have reached the unofficial end of summer. As we welcome our students returning to classroom instruction it will be under some restrictions which we hope can be lifted in the near future.

Many of our ministries and programs will be beginning in the next several weeks, from Ministry to the Homebound to Bingo and from Adult and Youth Confirmation programs to Coffee & Donuts on Sunday mornings.

We continue to follow the County of Los Angeles mandate to wear masks inside, which includes all our Masses—and we thank you for following those guidelines as we try to keep our community safe during this current outbreak of the virus.

We realize that not everything is going to be 'normal', but it is exciting that we can begin again to be the active community of faith that the Lord has called us to be.

Stay safe and have a blessed week,

Blessings,

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Our registration for the 2021-2022 school year is open on the Religious Education page of the parish website, SaintJames.Church/RE. The website is also where you can find the weekly Faith @ Home resource, which is based upon the Sunday Scriptures we hear at Mass, as well as the Partners in Faith summer calendar of family activities. We hope these resources help you as you raise children of faith.

As we look to next fall, we also seek new Catechists. Pope Francis said in a homily in 2013,

“Who are catechists? They are people who keep the memory of God alive; they keep it alive in themselves and they are able to revive it in others. This is something beautiful: to remember God...”

If you feel called to this formal role of sharing our faith with others as a memory keeper of God, please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or email us at religiously@stjamesparish.org.

The Religious Education Program has Catechists who serve in many areas, including in our Religious Education classes, our Sunday School program, and our Children’s Liturgy of the Word program.

Our community needs your gifts. Please consider how the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve our parish during the coming school year.

God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,

Director of Religious Education

"Welcome Back to School" Celebration Fundraiser Event at St. James School . All (adults) are welcome - fun games, food, DJ, and prizes
Saturday, Sept 11th 7pm-11pm

Q: The St. James Choir sings: "Whoever walks in God's love tires no one, nor grows weary."

What does the Catechism of the Catholic Church say about this liturgically-enhancing music?

A: The Catechism says this about walking in God's love:

"Without the help of grace, men would not know how to discern the narrow path..."

Q: The Choir sings:

"Our eyes are turned to the Lord Jesus Christ, our eyes are turned to the lord God, our savior." What is the corresponding teaching of the Catechism?

A: The Catechism says "...the believer seeks to know and do God's will."

Q: The Choir sings:

"Our darkness is never darkness in your sight, the deepest night is clear as the daylight." The Catechism?

A: "...the cloud, now obscure, now luminous, reveals the living and saving God..."

Q: The Choir sings:

"The Lord hears the cry of the poor..." What is the corresponding, validating Catechism teaching, reflective in this music?

A: The Catechism quotes Romans, "Rejoice in your hope, be faithful in tribulation." It also refers us to the Beatitudes,

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Q: What is a general example found in the Catechism about the amalgamated celebration of the Christian mystery and music?

A: Writing about the musical tradition of the universal Church as a "treasure of inestimable value", the Catechism says:

"Song and music fulfill their function...closely connected to the liturgical action. In this way they participate in the purpose of the liturgical words and actions, the glory of God and the sanctification of the faithful."

Or, as the articulate and emotional St. Augustine described a musical experience at Mass:

"How I wept, deeply moved by your hymns, songs, and the voices that echoed in your Church! Those sounds flowed into my ears, distilling the truth in my heart."

May we all hear, soon, the music once again, always faithful in tribulation.

Wall of Remembrance Photos Wanted

To honor our parishioners, family members and friends—from anywhere in the world—who have died during the pandemic, we are asking you to e-mail photos to us of those who have died and they will be printed and honored on our Wall of Remembrance leading up to our parish celebration.

During these long months of COVID, many parishioners found themselves mourning the loss of a loved one without the ability to gather as a community and receive comfort in the rituals of our faith. Because of this, we would like to honor those who have died since March of 2020 in our Masses over the weekend of September 25 and 26.

As part of this Memorial Weekend, we would like to create a wall of remembrance with photos of those who have died. If you lost a family member or friend during this time of COVID, we ask that you share a digital copy of a photo of your loved one, as well as the following information with the Parish Office by contacting Jeannie Haworth at jeannie@stjamesparish.org or by calling 310.372.5228.

Name of your loved one or friend

Relationship (parishioner, family or friend of parishioner)

Date of the death

Was this a COVID or non-COVID death?

We will begin creating our wall inside the church in August, so please feel free to share photos and information about those who were dear to you who have died as soon as possible. Thank you, in advance, for allowing the parish to mourn with you and to celebrate the lives of those we have lost.

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

Purity

Matthew 5:8

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

1 Corinthians 6:18

Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body.

1 Thessalonians 4:3-5

For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God;

1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Galatians 5:19-21

Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Colossians 3:5

Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

Romans 13:14

But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Psalms 24:3-4

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully.

1 Thessalonians 4:3-8

For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each one of you know how to control his own body in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. ...

Gospel Meditation

“Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods.”

We struggle with our gods. They appear in the forms of things like money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these “gods” because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves.

How can you go wrong with that?

We buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, then it is worth setting other things aside to pursue it. In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with “who is God” and to whom do we belong is a real one and one that can easily find us empty and experiencing disillusionment.

The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised “more.” But in pursuing the more and the satisfying we lose track of the cost, and the cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in pursuit of something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only “feels” true. While the true and real God certainly promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God’s kingdom (not our own), love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, that we must die to ourselves in order to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are hard things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that many, who may be attracted to Jesus at first, walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods.

But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, then where else will we find it? To whom can we go? There is only one source of truth and life, Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life and if we do not go to him, then where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal that requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find ourselves, through the Body and Blood of Christ, connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It’s a choice we all have to make. ©LPI
