Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

In the next few weeks the parish Finance Council will be reviewing and approving the annual financial report of the parish. I know the financial stability of the parish has been a concern of many parishioners. In very general broad strokes the numbers look like this: For Fiscal Year 2020-21 (July 2020 thru June 2021) the parish had Ordinary Income (Sunday Collections and Sacraments) of $1,161,000 and Ordinary Expenses of $1,269,000 for a loss of $107,000.

Obviously, it has been a challenge during this last year and we are so thankful that we were able to receive the government Small Business Administration Payroll Protection Plan amount of $139,000. This amount tipped the scales and has been the financial survival of the parish, and it will help to get us through this current year as well.

We are so grateful to those who have continued to support the parish during the pandemic, especially those who use our Faith Direct Online Giving. This became the stable foundation of our income during the year. We are also grateful to the extraordinary gifts we have received from parishioners whose generosity has lifted us up to continue our ministries and outreach.

To all of our supporting parishioners and benefactors; THANK YOU.

Blessings,

Mmgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Q: A second century British Princess, in Jerusalem on a single-minded quest to find the remnants of the holy cross of Calvary, and her son, a converted Roman Emperor who was going into battle, recall for us an ancient and profoundly spiritual series of events which reflect the teachings of the Church, and which can be summarized in one timeless quotation. What is that quote?

A: The quote in Latin: In hoc signo vinces. The lives of the saints portray a desperate Constantine the Great facing a superior battle force, who knelt to pray in honor of his Christian mother, St. Helena. She was that English princess, later to become a Roman Empress whose feast day is celebrated this week. The histories go on to say that as Constantine prayed in earnest on that battlefield to the crucified Christian God, that he saw a cross of fire in the sky, beneath which were those words:

In hoc signo vinces-
"Through this sign thou shalt conquer."

The king did just that, having placed a standard of the cross before his troops who proceeded to march to victory. St. Helena in holy zeal with her relics, and Constantine the Great, each paid homage to the cross. The Catechism honors the cross in many informative entries, here, underscored with biblical references in Paragraph #623:

"By his loving obedience to the Father, unto death, even death on a cross, Jesus fulfills the atoning mission of the suffering servant who will make many righteous; and he shall bear their iniquities."

The scriptures, the Catechism, and the lives of the saints offer considerable insight into the meaning of the cross of Jesus, and prompt us to learn more. Pope Francis:

"Each time we fix our gaze on the image of Christ crucified, let us contemplate that he, as the true Servant of the Lord, has accomplished his mission...spilling his blood for the pardoning of sins..."

As our wonderful St. James Choir contemplates musically:

"May the spirit of love make us one indeed; one, the love that we share, one our hope in despair, one the cross that we bear."

From across the centuries St. Helena and Emperor Constantine serve to remind us that it is by faith that we do indeed firmly believe:

In hoc signo vinces...

Sunday School

Would you like your children to learn about God’s love for them?
Do you wish there was a way for a preschool aged child to understand the message in the gospel reading?

Consider enrolling your child in our Sunday School program!
If you have any questions or would like to enroll, please contact Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Our registration for the 2021-2022 school year is open on the Religious Education page of the parish website, SaintJames.Church/RE. The website is also where you can find the weekly Faith @ Home resource, which is based upon the Sunday Scriptures we hear at Mass, as well as the Partners in Faith summer calendar of family activities. We hope these resources help you as you raise children of faith.

As we look to next fall, we also seek new Catechists. Pope Francis said in a homily in 2013,

“Who are catechists? They are people who keep the memory of God alive; they keep it alive in themselves and they are able to revive it in others. This is something beautiful: to remember God...”

If you feel called to this formal role of sharing our faith with others as a memory keeper of God, please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or email us at religiously@stjamesparish.org.

The Religious Education Program has Catechists who serve in many areas, including in our Religious Education classes, our Sunday School program, and our Children’s Liturgy of the Word program.

Our community needs your gifts. Please consider how the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve our parish during the coming school year.

God bless!
Andrea Sullivan,
Director of Religious Education

Wall of Remembrance Photos Wanted

To honor our parishioners, family members and friends—from anywhere in the world—who have died during the pandemic, we are asking you to e-mail photos to us of those who have died and they will be printed and honored on our Wall of Remembrance leading up to our parish celebration.

During these long months of COVID, many parishioners found themselves mourning the loss of a loved one without the ability to gather as a community and receive comfort in the rituals of our faith. Because of this, we would like to honor those who have died since March of 2020 in our Masses over the weekend of September 25 and 26.

As part of this Memorial Weekend, we would like to create a wall of remembrance with photos of those who have died. If you lost a family member or friend during this time of COVID, we ask that you share a digital copy of a photo of your loved one, as well as the following information with the Parish Office by contacting Jeannie Haworth at jeannie@stjamesparish.org or by calling 310.372.5228.

Name of your loved one or friend

Relationship (parishioner, family or friend of parishioner)

Date of the death

Was this a COVID or non-COVID death?

We will begin creating our wall inside the church in August, so please feel free to share photos and information about those who were dear to you who have died as soon as possible. Thank you, in advance, for allowing the parish to mourn with you and to celebrate the lives of those we have lost.

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion. It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. You are not alone... <https://hopeafterabortion.com/>

Gospel Meditation

Albert Einstein said that the “true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination.”

Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done.

Quite contrarily, the Gospel demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God’s children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules.

Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God’s compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition.

This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy.

It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall.

Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God’s word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn’t just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That’s why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless.

Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It’s risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That’s why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.
