Los Angeles Archdiocese Celebrates 250 Years

This week the Archdiocese of Los Angeles will launch the "Forward in Mission" Jubilee Year in honor of the 250th anniversary of the founding of Mission San Gabriel Arcángel, the birthplace of Christian faith in Los Angeles.

During this year of Jubilee, September 11, 2021 through September 10, 2022, all are invited to commemorate this historic occasion by praying for spiritual renewal in our local Church. Our focus will be: To revive the life of faith in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles through the proclamation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the raising up of a new generation of missionary disciples.

The Jubilee Opening Mass with the Rite of the Opening of the Holy Doors of the Cathedral happened this Saturday at 11 am. In addition, 22 churches have been designated as Pilgrimage sites throughout the archdiocese.

There will be activities and prayer throughout the Jubilee Year and we invite you to open your hearts to celebrate with us as we give thanks for the proclamation of the Gospel in Los Angeles with the beginning of the Franciscan mission churches in California.

We will continue to advise you of Jubilee activities throughout the year. More information and pilgrimage parishes are available at: ForwardInMission.com

Blessings,

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

WALL OF REMEMBRANCE

So many people have been touched by the first phase of our Wall of Remembrance and we know that as it grows it will become of source of prayer and healing for us all.

This wall of photos honors all our parishioners, family members and friends from around the world who have died since the beginning of COVID in March, 2020 to today. Some had COVID, but most did not.

Our common experience is that from the beginning of COVID, no one has been able to gather properly as family or community to mourn and celebrate the lives of those who have died.

On the weekend of September 25 and 26 at all our Masses we will have special prayers and blessings for those whose lives are remembered on the walls of the church.

To add a family member or friend to our Wall of Remembrance: send a digital copy of a photo of your loved one to the Parish Office to Jeannie Haworth at: Jeannie@StJamesParish.org or by calling 310.372.5228.

Include the Name of the Deceased, Date of Death, Relationship (parishioner, family or friend of a parishioner) and whether the death was COVID or non-COVID.

May God's Peace be upon you, your family and friends.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

We encourage you to worship together as a family on Sundays during our 10am Family Mass. CLOW uses the Children's Lectionary (shorter, simplified readings tailored to little listeners!) and features a homily specifically addressed to young people. CLOW will start again on October 3, 2021.

About Children's Liturgy of the Word

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be available at the 10am. Masses in the Parish Hall. This important ministry invites children to participate in Sunday worship and hear a reflection at an age appropriate level.

Children, ages 4-8, are invited to attend. Children's Liturgy of the Word is considered "church" even though the children are dismissed from the larger congregation for the Liturgy of the Word. We provide sacred space for them to worship together with their peers. The children learn how to walk in a procession, sit quietly to listen to the Gospel story, prayerfully reflect on God's Holy Word with the adult leader, and then offer their own Prayers of the Faithful. They, then process back into church to sit with their family for the rest of the Mass.

Process during Mass

After the opening prayer at Mass, the Presider will invite the children to the front of the church for a blessing. The children process from Mass to Kavanagh Hall. Parents are always welcome to attend with their children.

Leaders

We are currently looking for leaders and teen volunteers to help with this ministry. The leaders for the Liturgy of the Word for children receive special training and resources. We will have two adult leaders who prepare for this special ministry with children.

Each Liturgy of the Word leader must have a current Virtus[®] certificate prior to working with the children and must be fingerprinted by the Archdiocese.

Children's Liturgy of the Word is offered most Sundays at 10am Mass. Please check the bulletin for details.

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

In addition to the core curriculum, SJS students attend classes that enrich their education and allow students to shine in the arts and physical education. Our students attend Spanish class, Music class and PE with teachers that specialize in these subjects. PE classes center on units that teach team sports and physical fitness. Spanish classes are held 4 times a week for grades TK -8th, our students often test out of the beginning Spanish classes as they enter High School. Music and PE are held once a week and teach students the value and joy of athletics and song!

God Bless you,

Noreen Maricich, Principal

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

It's not too late to sign up for programs within Religious Education!

Whether you hope to enroll your child in Sunday School or start them on the path to First Communion or simply hope to continue their faith formation through Religious Education classes, there is still time.

Our first parent meeting will be held on Zoom later in September, and classes will begin in October. Please visit our page on the parish website to enroll:
<https://SaintJames.church/RE>

It's also not too late to respond to that call from deep in your heart, prodding you to serve as a Catechist this year! We will help train you and support you as you learn what it means to be a memory keeper of God. Please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or email: religioused@stjamesparish.org for more information.

Our community needs your gifts. Please consider how the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve our parish this year.

God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,

Director of Religious Education

Sunday School

Would you like your children to learn about God's love for them? Do you wish there was a way for a preschool aged child to understand the message in the gospel reading?

Consider enrolling your child in our Sunday School program! If you have any questions or would like to enroll, please contact Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221

Feed the Needy Update

We again want to thank you for your generosity over the past year and a half. We could not have had such success in helping our homeless community during this COVID time without your support. We have begun preparing hot meals on Mondays and continue to distribute lunch bags on Wednesday and Fridays. We are currently preparing 180 lunches weekly and continue to distribute toiletries as needed.

Your kind assistance remains needed whenever possible in the following areas:

Hamburger Buns, cheese and lunch meat, cheese Sticks, oranges/grapes and 6-8 ounce water and juice bottles.
We would also welcome fresh vegetables such as tomatoes, cucumbers, lettuce and most items that can be put into a salad.

These are item that fit it the lunch bags and their back packs. Items can be drop off M,W,F from 11am-2pm at Kavanagh Hall

We can not accept or distribute used clothing due to COVID restrictions.

Thank you again for your support. You have been a blessing to our ministry and Homeless Community. Please contact me at 310.488.9480 if you have questions or need additional information.

A Companion on your Journey

As we walk with others who hurt and ache, we as Stephen Ministers pray that our hearts will be warm with compassion and understanding. We are happy to be with you in your time of need. 310.541.1403, a confidential, dedicated phone message line.

We need to get our bearings straight and properly lay life's cornerstone.

Otherwise, the rest of our journey will be skewed, and our judgment clouded. We can recall Jesus' famous rebuke of Peter,

*"You are thinking not as God does,
but as human beings do."*

Even he, as one of Jesus' closest friends struggles with understanding things and grasping the big picture.

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1881-1955) a renowned and learned French Jesuit priest often has these words attributed to him:

*"We are not human beings having a spiritual experience.
We are spiritual beings having a human experience."*

Whether they were actually from his lips, they certainly mimic his thought. These wise words orient us and capture the essence of who we really are.

Many people consider spirituality an option.

It is no wonder that they come to this conclusion when they predominantly define themselves using human terms and concepts. Immersed in this world view, they struggle finding any semblance of God because God does not work according to human expectations!

This is especially true when suffering and death enter life's picture.

If we are only human beings having a spiritual experience, then we wrongly expect our spirituality to serve us as we desire. The human expectation is that my spiritual life is something that is useful in avoiding pain, hardship, and death, not something that gives the courage to live through it!

So, when we protest and get upset with God because our journey is becoming difficult, painful, treacherous, disappointing, and even pointing us toward death, Jesus rebukes us as he did Peter and gently reminds us how to see.

It is God who inspires and opens hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, the true meaning of things is understood, and we receive a depth of insight and understanding that is not found following purely human paths.

It is not our task to understand God, as God is beyond human understanding. Ours is the joyful privilege of simply resting in God's presence simply because God is God and we are who we are. As spiritual beings having an exciting and adventurous human experience, it is in our DNA to do so.

Through prayer we can let go and let be.

This is how we lose our lives but then save them.

Q: In an early Sunday morning homily, Father Thaddeus was bringing the pages of the Bible to life for our edification and application.

He spoke about being aware of some impediments and distractions along our road of repentance and faith which may serve to challenge our journey to God.

Father preached about some long ago examples of Jesus' ministry in Galilee, highlighting three who did not divert their commitment of faith, as we read in sacred scripture :

The faithful woman who, amid surging crowds, focused on a cure by touching the cloak of Jesus; the deaf man with a speech impediment whom Jesus healed after pulling him away from the impedimentary nature of a crowd in the district of the Decapolis near the Sea of Galilee; and Zacchaeus, the tax man who acted as a result of his personal impediment of short stature by climbing a sycamore tree, undistracted, to connect with the savior.

What else does the Church say about what the Apostle Paul proclaimed back in the first century, proclaiming the grace of scripture, or as he referred to the gospel, "the good news?"

A: In Paragraph 104 the Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "In Sacred Scripture, the Church constantly finds her nourishment and her strength... In the sacred books, the Father who is in heaven comes lovingly to meet his children, and talks with them."

Pope John Paul II wrote about reading the Bible:

"From the word of Jesus we learn the very nature of God..."

"From the word of Jesus we know our eternal destiny..."

"From the word of Jesus we learn true dignity..."

"From the word of Jesus we learn how we must behave..."

"From the word of Jesus we know his presence..."

As Father Thaddeus was reminding parishioners in his homily, and as St. Paul is quoted in Colossians Chapter 1:

"Persevere in the faith, firmly grounded, stable, and not shifting from the hope of the Gospel."
