Pastor's Letter

Blessing of Our Wall of Remembrance

We are so thankful that the COVID numbers are going down and for so many of our parishioners who have received the vaccine to help everyone stay safe.

Only a very few have contacted us regarding a 'religious exemption' from getting the vaccine, but with Pope Francis calling upon all Catholics of the world to get vaccinated and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and our own Archbishop Gomez encouraging all to get vaccinated, it is obvious that there is no 'religious exemption'. In fact, it has become a 'moral imperative' for all to get vaccinated—not just for themselves, but more for the protection of their family, co-workers, friends and neighbors and everyone any of them may come in contact with, whose lives are put in danger by someone not being vaccinated.

This weekend we pray for all of those who have died during the pandemic, whether from COVID or other reasons. With 4.5 million people who have already died from COVID alone, the burden of caring for loved ones who have died during the pandemic has been heavy on us all.

The pictures on the wall of our church create our Wall of Remembrance. They are parishioners, family members and friends from around the world who have died during the pandemic and represent only a small number of the losses we have experienced as a community.

May our prayer for them bring them more fully into the arms of our loving Father and may we find consolation and help in God's tender compassion for us all.

Our Wall of Remembrance Prayer will be prayed at each of our Masses this weekend as we honor, bless and commend our deceased brothers and sisters to the Lord. Blessings,

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

WALL OF REMEMBRANCE PRAYER

God in your wisdom you know the span of our days.
You have chosen to call to yourself in the past year these our brothers and sisters whose pictures are on the Wall of Remembrance of our St James Church.

We commend them and all who have died during the pandemic to your merciful keeping.

In Baptism, we began this journey towards you,
We ask you to take them now to yourself.

Give them the life you promised to those born again of water and the Spirit, and in your all-embracing love, we pray that you give them happiness forever.

Strengthen the bonds of the families and our Christian community who have suffered these losses. May we be consoled in hope, faith and love that one day, we may stand in the company of the saints in heaven.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Tuesday Night Bible Study—New Series

The Tuesday night bible study is beginning a new 24
session course Matthew:
The King and His Kingdom
on Sept. 28th 7pm
in Kavanagh Hall.

Jesus fulfills God's promises to Israel and establishes his kingdom on earth. Through references to the Old Testament promises of God to his people and the messages God sent them through the prophets, this Bible study provides the key to understanding the rest of the New Testament and Christ as the fulfillment of God's plan. For those who will not be able to participate in the hall, we also have the ability for you to join us via Zoom.

Please contact Donna Wilson: dwilson94@gmail.com if you are interested and joining and would like additional information. Come, share and participate in our Church Community.

Have you ever wondered

“Why am I here?”

“What is life all about?”

“What is my purpose?”

You are not alone.

The answers you're looking for, the joy you are desperate for, the connection you crave are closer than you think.

Maybe you haven't been to church in a while. And maybe you are worried that you won't be welcome here.

We get it.

We've been there.

Now we are here.

When you attend, you'll have a chance to hear powerful music, learn from authentic Catholic clergy, and grow in faith. Learn to be the holy, healthy, vibrant person that God has created you to be. Learn to use your gifts to make a difference. In the lives of others.

Men's Retreat in Sierra Madre

Our Retreat was a success as expected. What a great weekend of Spiritual Guidance!

As it is a silent retreat you have a lot of time to ponder each seminar. We attended Mass in their chapel starting Friday night and ending Sunday at Noon.

As Mater Dolorosa is known for its Stations of the Cross, we also participated in the Holy walk. while praying the stations.

On Sunday before me, we had a review of the Theme of the weekend with an enthusiastic test of all we did.

It is always a good way to refresh the soul for the entire weekend. We will be back next year again.

Last Sunday Mass in the Courtyard

This Sunday, September 26th 8:30am.

Our normal Sunday Mass schedule resumes on October 3rd.

There will be no more courtyard Masses. Join us for the 6:30, 8, 10, 12 noon or 5:30 Masses inside the church.

Join the Catholic Daughters of America

We donate generously to several charitable causes. Members give their time, energy and support to help others in the service of Christ. CDA members enjoy each other's company at their monthly meetings held on the third Wednesday of each month at Kavanagh Hall.

At this time, we are inviting all Catholic women of all ages from all surrounding parishes who are dedicated to Church and country to join our Court. Before each meeting we start by saying the holy Rosary.

We have various functions throughout the year to help raise funds for the different charities we support. If you are looking for a Catholic women's group to join, we are the one! Please call Kristin Flannery for further information if you are interested. 310.529.6813

Upcoming Dates:

Year 1 Confirmation: Sunday, 10/3
 Year 2 Confirmation: Sunday, 10/10

This month, we kicked off both our Year 1 & Year 2 Confirmation programs with our new hybrid format - meeting both in-person & via Zoom. It was especially great being able to see many of our Year 2 candidates in-person after doing all of their Year 1 Confirmation via Zoom. This successful kick-off is not possible without our amazing team of adults & teens who have dedicated their time to journey with our candidates. We are truly blessed!

Our vibrant ministry is always looking for people who are willing to walk alongside our teens in their journey with Christ. For more information on how you can share your gifts & talents with the community, please contact us at one of the options below.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

We encourage you to worship together as a family on Sundays during our 10am Family Mass. CLOW uses the Children's Lectionary (shorter, simplified readings tailored to little listeners!) and features a homily specifically addressed to young people. CLOW will start again on October 3, 2021.

About Children's Liturgy of the Word

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be available at the 10am. Masses in the Parish Hall. This important ministry invites children to participate in Sunday worship and hear a reflection at an age appropriate level.

Children, ages 4-8, are invited to attend. Children's Liturgy of the Word is considered "church" even though the children are dismissed from the larger congregation for the Liturgy of the Word. We provide sacred space for them to worship together with their peers. The children learn how to walk in a procession, sit quietly to listen to the Gospel story, prayerfully reflect on God's Holy Word with the adult leader, and then offer their own Prayers of the Faithful. They, then process back into church to sit with their family for the rest of the Mass.

Process during Mass

After the opening prayer at Mass, the Presider will invite the children to the front of the church for a blessing. The children process from Mass to Kavanagh Hall. Parents are always welcome to attend with their children.

Leaders

We are currently looking for leaders and teen volunteers to help with this ministry. The leaders for the Liturgy of the Word for children receive special training and resources. We will have two adult leaders who prepare for this special ministry with children. Each Liturgy of the Word leader must have a current Virtus® certificate prior to working with the children and must be fingerprinted by the Archdiocese. Children's Liturgy of the Word is offered most Sundays at 10am Mass. Please check the bulletin for details.

Contact

If you would like to learn more about this ministry or about becoming a leader for the Children's Liturgy of the Word, please contact:

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Last week we had our first all school Mass of the year. We continued with ‘Mass on the Grass’; it was a beautiful celebration attended by all our students and many of our parents.

We are moving into October and our month for the St. James Harvest Festival!

We ask for your help in donating to our Silent Auction and purchasing tickets for the Big Red Raffle.

The Festival will be the weekend of October 22-24; we hope to see many parishioners visit us for good food and music.

Noreen Maricich,
Principal

St. James School—Silent Auction

St. James School is holding their annual Silent Auction on October 22nd, 23rd & 24th.

We are collecting new & unused items:

Kids/teen toys, video gaming items, holiday decorations, household items, computer/electronic equipment, event tickets, sports memorabilia to name just a few. Restaurant, hotel, spa, etc. gift certificates are always a huge success.

Donations can be dropped off after the 8am, 10am and 12 noon masses by the bench at the parking lot exit of the church on:

September 26
October 3, 10 & 17

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Our next year of catechesis begins in October!

We will start the month with our first Children’s Liturgy of the Word session during the 10am Mass on Sunday, October 3!

This is a great opportunity for families with children ages 4-8. Please see the CLOW announcement in this bulletin for more information about this great program.

Next, Religious Education classes will begin on October 12 and 13, and Sunday School will begin on October 17.

If you hope to enroll your child in Sunday School or start them on the path to First Communion or simply hope to continue their faith formation through Religious Education classes, there is still time to sign up.

Please visit our page on the parish website to find the links for enrollment in Sunday School or Religious Education at SaintJames.Church/RE

God bless!

Feed the Needy Update

We again want to thank you for your generosity over the past year and a half. We could not have had such success in helping our homeless community during this COVID time without your support. We have begun preparing hot meals on Mondays and continue to distribute lunch bags on Wednesday and Fridays. We are currently preparing 180 lunches weekly and continue to distribute toiletries as needed.

Your kind assistance remains needed whenever possible in the following areas:

Hamburger Buns, cheese and lunch meat, cheese Sticks, oranges/grapes and 6-8 ounce water and juice bottles. We would also welcome fresh vegetables such as tomatoes, cucumbers, lettuce and most items that can be put into a salad.

These are item that fit it the lunch bags and their back packs. Items can be drop off M,W,F from 11am-2pm at Kavanagh Hall

We can not accept or distribute used clothing due to COVID restrictions.

Thank you again for your support. You have been a blessing to our ministry and Homeless Community. Please contact me at 310.488.9480 if you have questions or need additional information.

What are the little ones?

They are the poor, the marginalized, the women and men at the well, the Zacchaeus' looking for Jesus from a tree, those mired in sin, the blind who want to see, and the lame who want to walk. They are the lepers and the different ones who have been told that they are unclean, and the ones who suffer from abuse and grave injustices and oppression. They are children who want nothing more than to be loved and enjoy celebrating their innocence. These are all the little ones and they are all vulnerable. Life already brings them burdens, we don't need to add to them.

St. Oscar Romero said, "When the church hears the cry of the oppressed it cannot but denounce the social structures that give rise to and perpetuate the misery from which the cry arises." Why are so many people still so gravely hurting? We have the resources and the means to make things better. We choose not to. There are still those things called greed, pride, lust, apathy, jealousy, gluttony, and anger that prevent us from seeing each other and people to be loved and not objects to be used. Is this how God intended things to be?

God loves what is good and upright. It doesn't matter who did it or where it came from. In God's eyes, the end result is always faith, hope, and love. Those will always unite a person with God. We fill our lives with many things that are not good either for ourselves or for others. All of us have to work to discover what it is, exactly, that leads to the world's brokenness. There are people, systems, and ideologies in place that foster oppression and injustice rather than equity and fairness. Sadly, our complacency can be the greatest evil. Turning a blind eye, ignoring the truth, and believing that we are helpless to fix so great a problem, does little to move us closer to the kingdom of God. As members of the Body of Christ, we cannot condone anything that keeps people in misery.

As it is said, charity begins at home. Perhaps a good place to start is with our own households and making sure their foundations are properly laid. ©LPi

Invite Someone to Mass

The church is again open for quiet prayer from 7am-7pm daily. Our daily Mass is at 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward. Our Saturday Mass is at 8am.

Help others attend Mass and receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host. Many persons are Interested in attending, but may lack transportation. For those unable to attend Mass, please assist them in setting up their computer or iPad or phone to view the Mass that's posted online daily by 9:30 am. Reach out to those who have been away, and check on their well being. God Bless!

Q: "And when we cried unto the Lord, he heard our voice, and sent an angel..." That scriptural excerpt from a verse in Numbers 20 refers to the bringing forth of a people out of Egypt. Part of that deliverance was of an angelic nature. How does the Church teach and celebrate these celestial beings called angels?

A: The Catechism of the Catholic Church provides many entries on the Church's teachings about Angels: "The existence of spiritual, non-corporeal beings that Sacred Scripture usually calls "angels" is a truth of faith."

"Angels are spiritual creatures who glorify God without ceasing and who serve his saving plans..."

"The Church venerates the angels who help her on her earthly pilgrimage and protect every human being." Catholic related readings also attest that since the 4th century, nine "choirs" or types of angels are identified in the Bible: The "seraphim" angels or "burning ones" have the most intense "flaming" love for God. The "cherubim" are related to "fullness of wisdom." The "thrones" order of angels symbolize divine justice and judicial power in contemplation of God's power and justice. The "dominions" type of angels evoke authority and govern the lesser choirs of angels.

Sacred scripture identifies by name three angels, whom we celebrate in our liturgical calendar on September 29 in the Feast of the Archangels. Archangels are the great messengers of God:

St. Michael, mentioned in the Apocalypse as the leader of the heavenly host. St. Gabriel, the bearer of the Annunciation to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Sr. Raphael, the angel who healed Tobit of his blindness. Many more spiritually inspirational deeds of these and other angels are to be found in the Church reference literature.

The readings also point out that we are conscious of the angels in the liturgy: At Mass before the Eucharistic prayer we join with all the angels and saints to sing the hymn of praise, "Holy, holy, holy..." In Eucharistic Prayer I, the priest prays, "Almighty God, we pray that your angel may take this sacrifice to your altar in heaven." In the Funeral Liturgy, the priest prays, "May the angels lead you into paradise..."

In the catechism we find St. Thomas Aquinas: "The angels work together for the benefit of us all."

St. Augustine notes: "Angel is the name of their office, not of their nature...they are spirit...servants and messengers of God; the whole life of the Church benefits from the mysterious and powerful help of angels." That help includes announcing salvation; their song of praise at the birth of Christ; guarding the gates of paradise; or staying Abraham's hand from harming Isaac. Angels are further described in the catechism as evangelical beings, proclaiming the Good News of Christ's Incarnation and Resurrection.

"In Paradisum deducant te angeli..."
