MASKS

With the expected tightening of COVID vaccine requirements in the public and private sector in the next few weeks and the continuing MASK mandate in Los Angeles County, the churches of the Archdiocese will continue to require that masks be worn while in the church and inside all of the facilities at our parishes. We thank you for your generosity in following these procedures.

ALL SOULS DAY MEMORIAL MASS

Tuesday, November 2nd is All Souls Day. Our 7 pm Mass is a time when our community gathers as we remember and pray for our deceased relatives and friends. We invite you to join us for this Mass especially if you have loved ones who have died during the past year. For many it is a time of grace and healing from God's compassionate love.

At St. James it is also a Mass to remember in a special way and honor all of those who have been buried from our parish during the last year (September to September).

We will continue our All Souls Novena during the month remembering those who have died. Envelopes are located in the vestibules of the church and can be returned in the collection basket or brought to the parish office. The envelopes with your loved ones' names will be placed on our altar for the entire month of November.

Blessings,

Mmgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

For this is the will of God,
your sanctification:
that you abstain from immorality;
that each one of you know
how to control his own body in holiness
and honor,
not in the passion of lust
like heathen who do not know God;
1 Thessalonians 4:3-5

Maybe you grew up Catholic
Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.. Questions.
Doubts. Yearning. But not sure for what. We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.
Welcome home.

Confession is available
from 4-5 pm
every Saturday
in Church

Centuries of God's devoted people have found this prayer on their lips:

"Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone!"

The fundamental prayer has been laid as the cornerstone of many spiritual lives.

Where did you learn how to pray or did you?

Maybe there is a wisdom figure in your life who inspired and guided you by the genuine, holy simplicity of their lives. His or her example may have led you to God and taught you how to pray. Or perhaps you discovered this art on your own after stumbling over yourself enough times and finally realizing it was time to reach out to Someone greater than yourself.

There is a timeless truth that we not only tend to forget, but may have never learned. There is only one God, the Lord alone! As a result, we often worship other gods rather than the One true God. Everything in our life gets distorted and we find ourselves lost and off center.

If we haven't learned it yet, there is a life lesson at the top of all of the possible lessons to be learned.

There is One True and Eternal God who alone has a solitary claim on us and must be loved with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength. Until we learn this primary lesson, we run the risk of getting distracted and sidetracked. We will also never really figure out what is at the heart of the relationships we share with the other human beings on this planet with whom we share life.

That one primary lesson will teach us the second most valuable lesson: that we must love our neighbor as ourselves. You cannot have one without the other. The presence of God in the core soul of each one of us requires that all of our relationships work together. This truth is at the heart of the Gospel.

If every human being, each in their own way, could stumble upon and genuinely embrace this truth, look how different life would be!

Our priorities will immediately shift from "I and me" to "us and we" and we will develop a more inclusive vision for our brothers and sisters. Concerned not only about my own wellbeing and happiness but also that of our brothers and sisters, humanity stands a chance at succeeding in the struggle with injustice, abuse, inequity, violence, war, entitlement, and privilege. It seems that getting to this point has been at the heart of the Gospel and the kingdom of God from the moment Jesus first started to preach. It's a wonder why, then, why so many centuries later, we have still failed to achieve his vision.

Maybe we just haven't learned our primary lessons yet.

Q: What does The Catechism of the Catholic Church teach in terms of marking and honoring the Church's communion of saints?

A: Paragraphs #946 and #2683

"The witnesses who have preceded us into the kingdom, especially those whom the Church recognizes as saints, share in the living tradition of prayer by the example of their lives, the transmission of their writings, and their prayer today.

Their intercession is their most exalted service to God's plan. We can and should ask them to intercede for us and for the whole world. The communion of saints is the Church."

Speaking of saints and the Church, at a recent Mass Monsignor Mike recalled the biblical words of Christ who asked if his disciples could drink from the same chalice of which he drank and could they be baptized by the same baptism. Among those disciples was one who later became our own patron saint.

Answering boldly in the affirmative, as scripture attests, the reply to Christ's question was, Yes we can! The Church for many years rendered this response in the Latin language.

Possumus!, meaning we are able to; we can.

One of those followers of Jesus, was our own "son of thunder," our patron Saint James.

As Reverend Alban Butler reminds us, James was among those who demanded fire from heaven to consume the inhospitable Samaritans. He was present at many of the miraculous works of Jesus. He was present at the house of Jairus as the girl awoke; he was on that high mountain during the Transfiguration; he was there during the agony in the garden.

James has been described as impetuous, outspoken, and burning with faith. Brought before King Herod Agrippa, professing the crucifixion of Jesus, James became the first of the Apostles to shed the blood of martyrdom.

As we mark another All Saints Day, may we continue to pray with the saints, whose lives are examples of lives lived and elevated by faith. And may we also continue to internalize and animate the sentiments of St. James, whose words are etched on the northern wall of our church;

"Be doers of the word."

And as we pray with the Saints, we reach that reciprocal point of faith voiced in song by our Saint James Choir from Becker's Litany Of The Saints:

"All you holy men and women, pray for us."
