Thanksgiving, Advent & Scams

This Thanksgiving we give thanks to the Lord for you and the love of Christ living powerfully in your lives. May the gift of his Spirit continue to strengthen you and inspire you that your faith will become a source of hope for your families and our community.

Attendance at Masses continues to grow with the safety of vaccines. A faith community physically gathered together to share in the power of the Eucharist is something that online-worship can never give.

Next Sunday we begin our journey towards Christmas with the beginning of Advent. It is a time of longing for the healing gift of God's love in Christ and for us a horizon of hope for God's blessing upon us and our families.

Scams

Holiday seasons are always a time for scam artists to try to take advantage of us. Please be assured that other than our Giving Tree in the Church, you will NOT be receiving any e-mail or text message requests from St. James or me for emergency assistance.

Scammers are good at creating look-alike e-mail addresses trying to mimic me or the parish. PLEASE, if you receive any such requests, don't be scammed!! If you need to, please call the office to verify any requests you might receive—there is NEVER an emergency that can't wait until the office opens again and you can talk to us.

Thanks for staying safe.
Blessings,

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Invite Someone to Mass

The church is again open for quiet prayer from 7am- 7pm daily.

Our daily Mass is at 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward.

Our Saturday Mass is at 8am.

Help others attend Mass and receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host.

Many persons are Interested in attending, but may lack transportation. For those unable to attend Mass, please assist them in setting up their computer or iPad or phone to view the Mass that's posted online daily by 9:30 am. Reach out to those who have been away, and check on their well being.
God Bless!

Maybe you grew up Catholic
Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.. Questions.
Doubts. Yearning. But not sure for what. We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.
Welcome home.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Children's Liturgy of the Word is on a break for Thanksgiving and will return Dec. 12th and Dec. 19th. We hope to see our parish children then!

While Thanksgiving may be the focus of this next week, Advent, a time where we slow down to look for God coming into our world, begins next Sunday and is a wonderful season to celebrate in your home.

Lighting an Advent wreath at the start of dinner, putting up a Nativity scene at home, or reading Christmas books while snuggling with your children at bedtime are all great ways to bring the spirit of Advent into your family's daily routine.

Another way to help your children understand the season of Advent is to take time to do something for someone else. By baking for neighbors, selecting a gift from the Giving Tree at church, or donating food to our

Feed the Needy program, you can help your children see how they can bring the light of Christ to others.

The joy that is so close to the surface in the season of Advent, that springs up in unexpected places as Christmas draws near, is a glimpse of God coming into our lives. May this upcoming season of Advent bring you and your family great joy!

Have a blessed Thanksgiving!
God bless!

Andrea Sullivan, Director of Religious Education

We will have food for everyone and Santa will be there with toys for the children. We are asking for your generosity once again in the following areas:

Warm clothing such as sweat shirts with hoods and pants sizes L and XL, scarves, gloves, hats and sleeping bags for adults.

Gift cards for Smart&Final, Target and Walmart.

Our traditional "Giving Tree" is in the church vestibule. It is decorated with cards indicating the gender and age of the children who will receive Santa's gifts. We will begin collecting gifts from Monday, Nov. 21st through December 7th. Unwrapped gifts can be dropped off at Kavanagh Hall Mon., Wed. or Fri. from 11-2pm or at the Parish Office.

Once again, we thank you in advance for your good will during the holiday season for our needy community.

We often come to life expecting all of the pieces of the puzzle to nicely fit together. We want and expect harmony, order, and fairness, the achievement of rewards for good behavior, good health, and happiness.

We can more easily accept death when it comes naturally after a good long life, but have a real difficulty comprehending the meaning of it all when it is cut short. Willing to put in a good measure of effort, we desire positive results.

When things go wrong and life gets hurtful, unjust, and downright ugly, we become unsettled and can quickly fall into despair. This is especially true if we are people of faith who believe in a God who sees things on our terms and works in favor of our life agenda.

What happens to our faith when we find ourselves sitting in a mess?

Does it help to know that God understands and that hardship, failure, disappointment, injustice, confusion, and all of life's ugliness do not make faith irrelevant or irrational?

God is wonderfully and surprising creative! He turns the tables on not only our understanding of life, but of what it means to be a king. God sends us a king who is not exempt from life's ills but embraces them. The king that God gives to us knows what it means to be poor, suffer insults, be ridiculed, face rejection, endure suffering, be betrayed, and face a most unjust and horrific death. This is our king. Jesus is not a king of prestige or grandeur but a king who brings light to darkness, hope to despair, sinners to mercy, and new life out of death. Christ dances before us pleading with us to hold on, cling to love, avoid being negative, stop feeling cheated, and be strong in faith! There may be hardship and disappointment now but there are more surprises to come.

Once we understand this truth, we will also understand that we are on a most incredible and awesome universal journey to Christ and becoming one in Christ.

We all carry within us the image of God, the image of our suffering king. The One who lives in us also lives in all of our brothers and sisters. Failing to see this universal Divine Presence in all is one of the greatest mistakes we can make, for we also fail to see God, our king, as well. There are many things that can bring hardship to life. If we keep our head about us and do not lose hope, we can persevere and strive for the greatest degree of justice possible. Even though there are ample things that can challenge our faith, we also know that our deepest joy comes from union with God and our brothers and sisters. One day, the fullness of that joy will be ours to have when we are all eternally one with Christ our King forever

Q: The Catechism of the Catholic Church offers insight into the theological virtues of faith, hope, and charity, calling for each person to directly participate in the "divine nature that animates Christian moral activity." What are some of the ways in which we find ourselves moving amid the realms of a life of virtue, hoping for and appreciative of that divine nature?

A: Individually, and as a faith community, we hope for the best and pray for our family and ourselves through all the phases of our lives. We pray for friends and those who need our prayers as we proclaim at each Mass.

We pray for our priests, who face the many challenges within their pastoral calling, including the stewardship of the future of our Parish. In addition, they, too, face the vicissitudes of personal health challenges along the journey. The Catechism marks these settings of hope as present among the "dignity of the human spirit."

Pope Francis says that to hope is "to see the world through the eyes and heart of God. To hope is to place all one's trust in the mercy of God..."

A liturgical season is approaching, which contains the threads of our hopes; the Season of Advent. Pope Francis writes:

"For the great human family, it is necessary to renew, always, the common horizon which we are journeying. The horizon of hope! The time of Advent returns us to the horizon of hope, a hope that does not disappoint because it is founded on the word of God."

The Catechism sums up the common horizon found within our prayers of hope:

"Hope is the theological virtue...by which we place our trust in Christ's promises, relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit. Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation...we are led to the happiness that flows from charity."

The Catechism also cites the Our Father as a summary of everything that hope leads us to.

Another measure of the spirit of hope is to be found among the decades of the Holy Rosary.

One example is found in the Second Glorious Mystery; The Ascension, as a desire of the virtue of hope, thinking about the ascension of Jesus Christ, forty days after His glorious resurrection, in the presence of Mary and His disciples.

The Church teaches that a virtue is a habitual and firm disposition to do good, and to give the best of ourselves.

We are blessed to be disposed to place our hope in God; the divine nature that helps to animate our lives. Rejoice in your hope.
