Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

We pray that you and your family shared a blessed and SAFE Christmas as these very challenging times continue. This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany and we especially pray for all of our families that you, too, encounter Christ in a special way and continue to grow in His love.

We want to remind you that our special Christmas gift to your family is the new book by Matthew Kelly, "Life is Messy", a very helpful and common-sense book that will help you understand life in the midst of a very uncertain world, made whole in your relationship with God. It is especially important to keep our heart, mind and soul in focus and strong in this time of COVID and we think this book will be an important gift for you.

As we begin the New Year, we ask God's blessing upon you and our entire community that we might find hope, strength and love in the Eucharist and the Word of Christ that we share each time we gather.

Blessings to you all,
Monsignor Mike
Father Thaddeus
Father Jim

Invite Someone to Mass

The church is again open for quiet prayer from 7am- 7pm daily.

Our daily Mass is at 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward.

Our Saturday Mass is at 8am. Help others attend Mass and receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host.

Many persons are Interested in attending, but may lack transportation. For those unable to attend Mass, please assist them in setting up their computer or iPad or phone to view the Mass that's posted online daily by 9:30 am. Reach out to those who have been away, and check on their well being. God Bless!

Have you ever wondered
"Why am I here?"
"What is life all about?"
"What is my purpose?"
You are not alone.

The answers you're looking for,
the joy you are desperate for,
the connection you crave
are closer than you think.

Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.
And maybe you are worried that you won't be welcome here.

We get it.

We've been there.

Now we are here.

When you attend, you'll have a chance to hear powerful music, learn from authentic Catholic clergy, and grow in faith.

Learn to be the holy, healthy, vibrant person that God has created you to be. Learn to use your gifts to make a difference in the lives of others.

Maybe God is calling you back.

Just as you are.

Welcome home.

The Gathering Place

If your family has suffered the loss of a loved one, The Gathering Place, a nonprofit associated with Providence Little Company of Mary, offers support groups for children and adults. For more information, please visit their website at www.providence.org/locations/gathering-place.

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion.

It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

You are not alone...

Ideas for new year's resolutions

Here are some things you might consider for your interior life in the New Year:

1. Head to confession

What a better way to celebrate a new year than with a clean soul? Our priests are available for confession on Saturdays from 4-5 pm or by appointment. You can schedule an appointment by calling the parish office 310.372.5228

2. Take time for daily reflection

Resolve to not give into the hustle and bustle of the holidays and simply abide with the Lord in this time. A great way to be present to the Lord is by attending Adoration or Benediction. Our next Adoration is January 14th and Benediction is on January 21st after the 8am Mass until 12 noon.

3. Give generously

Dr. Seuss famously wrote, "Maybe Christmas doesn't come from a store. Maybe Christmas, perhaps, means a little bit more!" We each have special gifts (charisms!) that we can give others, and they aren't gifts that we can pick up off of the shelf at Target. Target is wonderful, but it only has so much.

This year, donate your time with an organization that you're passionate about. Maybe you have a gift of teaching. Spend time at an after school program in your area and invest in the kids of your community and parish. Our Youth Ministry, Sunday School and other ministries are always looking for volunteers. See our website: SaintJames.church/ministry for ideas.

Regardless of what your gifts and talents are, there is a way to share them (and your time!) with the world and your community. Spend time researching the options out there for you and commit to one during this new year!

4. Ask a saint to walk the journey with you

Need some special help for the (Catholic) new year? Maybe you're looking ahead to major life changes, new jobs, or trips. Perhaps this upcoming year will be full of opportunities to trust the Lord.

Regardless of what your new year will look like, you don't have to go at it alone. You're surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses, and the saints are an incredible source of help. Pick a patron for your upcoming year and start getting to know them and including them in your daily prayer.

5. Pray the rosary

Looking for some Heavenly help, protection against temptation, and an opportunity to receive an indulgence? Look no further than adding a Rosary to your daily prayer life this new year! We pray the rosary daily after the 8am weekday Masses. Also, every Monday evening in Kavanagh hall with the Medjugorje Prayer Group. Consider joining the Catholic Daughters and pray the rosary at the beginning of each meeting.

Already pray the Rosary on a daily basis? That's awesome! This year, resolve to invite others to pray the Rosary with you, or teach others to pray the Rosary.

6. Take a look at your media

It can be easy to think that what we consume on social media, television, and our smart phones won't affect our relationship with the Lord, but we'd be fooling ourselves to think that the media we consume doesn't make a difference in our lives.

This new year's, take a good long look at your Netflix queue, Spotify playlists, iTunes podcasts, and the social media accounts you're following. Do they lead you closer to the Lord?

If the answer is "no," replace them with media choices that inspire you to grow deeper in your relationship with God. Blessings in the new year!

Online safety review for the new year

Take some time this month to review your family's online safety. Make sure you have strong passwords in place, and that your security settings are updated.

Check where you have passwords stored as well — children who are tech savvy can easily access inappropriate materials on smart TVs and devices where passwords do not have to be entered. Consider installing accountability software on any devices that your children access. Software like Covenant Eyes or other options can keep your child from visiting any inappropriate or forbidden sites.

For more tips, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Revisit Online Safety Practices" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know>.

Feed the Needy Ministry

Thank all our parishioners for this year's generosity to our program! As a result of your contributions we collected many toys, warm clothing and gift cards. These items were given to our needy individuals at our annual Christmas Luncheon where we fed ninety individuals. Santa came to visit us and gave many toys to the children and we all enjoyed the laughter and smiling faces.

Again, this year was a very different event with the constraints resulting from the Covid pandemic and was held outdoors but God blessed us with a beautiful day. A special thanks to the volunteers in our program who have stayed loyal all through this last year and the pandemic. In addition, we offer a special thanks to the Cornerstone volunteers, the donations from Catholic Daughters and Saint James School, Romina Gorodo & Ocean Fever and the Redondo Beach Police Department's Domestic Violence employees. We also want to thank our friends at the Knights of Columbus for their toy donations. Many of the toys that we collected will be shared with several inner city parishes including our sister parish, San Miguel.

Our success is always blessed with your generosity and we thank you and wish you Merry Christmas and Happy and safe New Year!

Torrance Memorial Hospice Seeks Volunteers

"I used to be uncomfortable with death and dying but volunteering with hospice patients has become a passion of mine. It is such an honor to be welcomed into their home and to listen to their lifetime of stories. I have made many friends and this is a wonderful way to give back to the Community."

-Clara Forwell, Hospice Volunteer

Would you like to give back to your community and provide love and support to patients nearing end of life?

Torrance Memorial Hospice Volunteers play an important role with our patients and their families. They provide companionship visits where they may read, go for a walk or play music for the patient. They can also provide respite to the family, assuring them the patient is safe while they are away from the home or getting some much-needed rest. Our volunteers are also trained to provide bereavement support for the families or caregivers of our patients by making phone calls or co-facilitating our weekly support groups. We provide online and hands-on training for all volunteers, request 8 hours a month and a 6-month commitment. If you would like to learn more about this rewarding volunteer opportunity, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator: Christine.McCaverly@tmhc.com

Coffee and Donuts

Join us in Kavanagh Hall following the 8 am & 10 am Masses for coffee, donuts and fellowship hosted by the Sunday Hospitality Ministry.

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI:

“Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction.”

Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world.

Pope Francis continues saying, “Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God’s love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being.”

Look around at people.

Where is life heading for them?

What gives them direction?

Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities.

For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News.

If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved. ©LPI

Q: The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops remind us of the richness of the Catholic Faith:

“The Catholic Church offers a message that is not its own, but comes from God’s self-revelation in Jesus Christ two thousand years ago, yet is ever new and renewing...The Church offers to all people the possibility of encountering the living God today and finding him in lasting meaning and hope.”

Part of the multi-layered aspects of that search for meaning and hope includes what the sources call, “the deeply-rooted presence” of sacramentals.

What are sacramentals?

A: We walk into the church, making the sign of the Cross with dispensed holy water. Holy water is a sacramental. The sign of the cross itself, is a sacramental. Many of our gestures, including genuflecting are sacramentals. Novenas, and other devotional prayers are sacramentals. Incense is a sacramental.

Sacred oils and exorcisms are sacramentals, Music is a sacramental.

We may wear a devotional medal or a cloth scapular.

These are sacramentals. The rosary is a sacramental.

Chaplets, statues, and candles are sacramentals. There are many references to sacramentals among the verses of the Bible.

St. Thomas Aquinas is attributed on the subject of sacramentals:

“They are sensible signs, often with form and matter and they are public means of sanctification. They are intended to produce mainly spiritual effects in the faithful...their efficacy flows from the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Christ.”

The code of canon law calls sacramentals,

“...sacred signs that produce supernatural effects.”

The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines sacramentals:

“These are sacred signs which bear a resemblance to the sacraments. They signify effects, particularly of a spiritual nature, which are obtained through the intercession of the Church.”

The Bishops summarize:

“Blessings are called sacramentals because they prepare us to receive the grace of the sacraments and help us to grow to be more like Christ.”

Sacramentals.

Reverent signs of meaning and hope; with us as we move to encounter the living God each day.
