Pastor's Letter

Advent is a Time to Renew Ourselves

As we prepare now for Christmas, the readings remind us of God's merciful forgiveness and his desire to create us anew in his love. Part of the process to the healing presence of God is our desire and willingness to step away from where we have been and be open to God's love in our lives.

A powerful part of the process is the Sacrament of Reconciliation. To acknowledge our weaknesses, our sins, and give voice to them and to hear God's love expressed in forgiveness can be life transforming. Matthew Kelly reminds us in his new book, that we are gifting to you at Christmas, that 'Life is Messy' and what Peace Christ restores to us in this holy season.

We have dedicated this next week to be available to pray with you and share in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. On Monday evening, December 13th, from 7:30 pm until we are done, our priests will be at American Martyrs in Manhattan Beach hearing confessions. On Tuesday evening December 14th, at 7:30 we will all be here at St. James for confessions.

We encourage you to take advantage of this gift of God's healing love to bring wholeness to your life.

As an added part of God's healing love we will be celebrating the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick this Sunday, December 12th at 1:30 pm.

Please see this bulletin for all of the scheduled services from now through Christmas and the New Year.

Blessings,

Msgr. Mike & Fr. Thaddeus

Family Christmas Movie Nights

Snuggle up on the couch together with popcorn and cider and relax with a family movie. If you start early enough that everyone is still awake enough at the end to engage. . . continue the “cozy” by having a simple conversation about the movie.

The Nativity Story

The Fourth Wiseman

It's a Wonderful Life

Miracle on 34th Street

The Bells of St. Mary's

White Christmas

The Ultimate Gift

The Star

The Polar Express

The Grinch Who Stole Christmas

The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe

Muppet Christmas Carol A Charlie Brown Christmas

Conversation Starters:

- What was your favorite part/line? Were there any artistic elements that you particularly enjoyed?
- What questions do you have after watching?
- Did you like the main character? Why/why not? What good/bad qualities did he/she have? Did he/she make good choices? What were the consequences of those choices? How did this character change throughout the movie?
- What were the most important relationships in the story? Why? Was there faith?
- Was right/wrong, good/evil recognized as such? How would Jesus rate this movie?

Build the ability and habit of reflecting on what you watch will help your kids become responsible consumers of media – and increase the impact that worthy films will have on their minds and hearts.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Happy third Sunday of Advent! As we reach the midpoint of this season, we light our rose colored candle to remind us that the joy of Jesus' birth draws near!

The Archdiocesan Office of Marriage and Family Life will be hosting a special online mini-retreat for families this evening, Sunday, December 12, from 5:30-7. The title of the retreat is, 'In Joyful Hope with the Holy Family,' and registration is required. A link can be found on the St. James Office of Religious Education page at SaintJames.Church/RE We encourage families to attend this wonderful retreat as a part of your preparation for Christmas.

Children's Liturgy of the Word meets today, on Sunday, December 12, and again on December 19. We will then be on break until January 9.

Finally, we want to remind our Religious Education families that we are now on break from classes until January 11th and 12th, and the Office of Religious Education will be closed from December 17 until Jan. 3.

The joy that is so close to the surface in the season of Advent, that springs up in unexpected places as Christmas draws near, is a glimpse of God coming into our lives. May this season of Advent bring you and your family great joy!

Happy Advent!

Andrea Sullivan, Director of Religious Education

Torrance Memorial Hospice Seeks Volunteers

"I used to be uncomfortable with death and dying but volunteering with hospice patients has become a passion of mine. It is such an honor to be welcomed into their home and to listen to their lifetime of stories. I have made many friends and this is a wonderful way to give back to the Community."

-Clara Forwell, Hospice Volunteer

Would you like to give back to your community and provide love and support to patients nearing end of life?

Torrance Memorial Hospice Volunteers play an important role with our patients and their families. They provide companionship visits where they may read, go for a walk or play music for the patient. They can also provide respite to the family, assuring them the patient is safe while they are away from the home or getting some much-needed rest. Our volunteers are also trained to provide bereavement support for the families or caregivers of our patients by making phone calls or co-facilitating our weekly support groups. We provide online and hands-on training for all volunteers, request 8 hours a month and a 6-month commitment. If you would like to learn more about this rewarding volunteer opportunity, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator: Christine.McCaverty@tmmc.com

Habitat for Humanity Build Day

Habitat for Humanity build sites have been closed to volunteers for the past 20 months due to COVID-19.

There are now opening on a limited basis and St. James is having another Build Day at the build site in Long Beach. The Build Day is Saturday, January 15, 2022.

We are limited to 10 volunteers at a time, but morning and afternoon shifts are available. No building skills are required and all tools and safety equipment are provided.

All volunteers are required to wear an N95 mask while working. We will carpool from the church parking lot for anyone needing a ride to the site.

Anyone interested in being a member of the build team should send an email to Tom Miller at tmillersu@aol.com indicating whether you want a morning or afternoon shift. Additional details regarding the Build Day will be provided to those who participate.

To the men of our parish, please consider joining the Knights of Columbus, Council 1990. You can sign up online at <https://www.kofc.org/joinus>.

Enter 1990 for the Council and MCGIVNEY2020 for the special promotion.

The charities we help support include House of Yahweh, Pregnancy Help Center, Rancho San Antonio, Seminarians, and Star House.

Besides serving our church and community, we meet twice a month for business, fun, and fellowship at our Council Hall, 214 Avenue I, Redondo Beach.

We look forward to having you join us!

"From silly devotions and sour-faced saints, good Lord, deliver us!" St. Teresa of Avila

We've all heard the adage, "Laughter is the best medicine."

In many ways, it really is. When was the last time you really laughed? The gift of imagination allows us to see possible things that are yet to be. Imagine a world filled with laughter.

We take life too seriously sometimes.

Fear, uncertainty, pressure, negativity, disappointment, and myriad other human experiences can rob us of the joy needed for laughter. God never promised us an easy road, and we do have to take the course of our lives seriously. However, there is a balance to be sought and a possible joy that can be brought even to the darkest and most challenging of encounters.

St. Therese of Lisieux reminds us that,

"Joy is not found in the material objects surrounding us but in the inner recesses of the soul. One can possess joy in a prison cell as well as in a palace."

Falling in love with God, who is present in all of creation, allows us to bring a depth of understanding to everything we do and experience. We can more easily see above and beyond things while pursuing the only One who can truly satisfy our hearts.

When we realize that God, the king of Israel, is in our midst and with us, there is no further misfortune to fear. We can celebrate the wonder and beauty of God's gift of joy. It is no wonder that many saints radiate joy and have no reservations expressing laughter. They are happy because they have found a pearl of great price.

We celebrate with joy today with hearts filled with expectation, wonder, awe, and beauty as we ready ourselves, even more excitedly, for the coming of our Savior.

Do not fear and do not be discouraged. If you haven't laughed in a while, why?

Something is preventing you from expressing the magnificence of your soul and the presence of God who dwells within. God's power and presence within us assures us that we are loved and kept in that presence. What more is really needed?

Rejoice and laugh in the presence of God! It really is the best medicine and a most perfect way to convince others that God is really with us. "Go ahead, laugh!

Live your life with joy and serve the Lord with laughter! Joy, with peace, is the sister of charity. Serve the Lord with laughter."

(St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina)

Q: The beginning of a new Liturgical Year also presents a good time to appreciate and reaffirm the importance of the St. James Church Mission Statement. What can be said about a mission statement?

A: The Oxford Dictionary of English defines a Mission Statement in part as:

"A formal summary of the aims and values of an organization...to which all subscribe."

Here's our mission:

"The mission of St. James Church is to build up the Body of Christ by evangelizing those weak in faith, healing the hurt and alienated Catholic, nourishing the faith and commitment of its active members.

We encourage those in our faith community to be: Involved in regular Mass attendance; Participants in the sacramental life of the Church; Committed to personal spiritual growth; Registered and contributing members of the Church; Supportive of the community through ministry and service; in right relationship with one another."

Church teachings validate the holy aims and values put forward by our Parish mission statement:

"Regular Mass attendance?" Catechism Entry #2176 states: "...render to God this sign, (the Mass), of universal beneficence to all. Additionally, #2192 states: "Sunday is to be observed as the foremost holy day of obligation in the Universal Church."

"In right relationship, and spiritual growth?" Speaking in a homily, Pope Francis called for a new and universal solidarity, "which recognizes that we are a single human family in need of right relationships."

The Sacramental life? #1084 "Christ is also present every time each sacrament is celebrated...the seven sacraments touch all the stages and all important moments of the Christian life. Christ now acts through the Sacraments."

Evangelizing? Catechism #1086 "Just as Christ was sent by the Father, so also he sent the apostles, filled with the Holy Spirit...the work of salvation, around which the entire liturgical life evolves."

Pope Benedict XVI is eloquent as usual in a general overview of that to which we all subscribe:

"Our faith is well founded...A great effort must therefore be made in order for all Christians to transform themselves into 'witnesses' ready and able to shoulder the commitment of testifying...to the hope that animates them."

We are blessed with an animating, vibrant Parish. This Mission Statement is truly reflective of our parish. It is a litmus test, or faith compass, against which we may judge our direction, amid sometimes challenging winds. It actually is that summary statement of aims and values to which we all subscribe.
