Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Joy to the World! The Lord has come! The Word was made flesh because God cares about us. Jesus lived with the same emotions we do. He loved, he cried, he got angry and he enjoyed a party. He lived among us so we can understand God, Our Father better.

We are still in the Christmas season. Let us carry that message of love and joy to all we encounter. We have seen so many of us returning to church, returning to celebrate the Eucharist together as our St. James Community. What a blessing for all of us!

In his Christmas message, "Pope Francis repeated the words of Pope St Paul VI 'This world in which we live needs beauty so as not to fall into despair.' We should "be custodians of this beauty, which the Lord's Christmas makes shine in every daily gesture of love, sharing and service."

When sometimes Life Gets Messy, it is then we need to take the opportunity to go back to the message from the birth of Christ of love, joy and peace to help us through those times.

As our special Christmas gift to you we again have a Matthew Kelly book entitled "Life is Messy". In the wonderfully simple ways that Matthew Kelly captures life and its mysteries, he brings us to a new understanding of this journey we are on and reconnects us with the healing love of Christ that makes us whole.

With Love and blessings in this Christmas season,

Monsignor Mike

Feed the Needy Ministry

Thank all our parishioners for this year's generosity to our program! As a result of your contributions we collected many toys, warm clothing and gift cards. These items were given to our needy individuals at our annual Christmas Luncheon where we fed ninety individuals. Santa came to visit us and gave many toys to the children and we all enjoyed the laughter and smiling faces.

Again, this year was a very different event with the constraints resulting from the Covid pandemic and was held outdoors but God blessed us with a beautiful day. A special thanks to the volunteers in our program who have stayed loyal all through this last year and the pandemic. In addition, we offer a special thanks to the Cornerstone volunteers, the donations from Catholic Daughters and Saint James School, Romina Gorodo & Ocean Fever and the Redondo Beach Police Department's Domestic Violence employees. We also want to thank our friends at the Knights of Columbus for their toy donations. Many of the toys that we collected will be shared with several inner city parishes including our sister parish, San Miguel.

Our success is always blessed with your generosity and we thank you and wish you Merry Christmas and Happy and safe New Year!

Torrance Memorial Hospice Seeks Volunteers

"I used to be uncomfortable with death and dying but volunteering with hospice patients has become a passion of mine. It is such an honor to be welcomed into their home and to listen to their lifetime of stories. I have made many friends and this is a wonderful way to give back to the Community."

-Clara Forwell, Hospice Volunteer

Would you like to give back to your community and provide love and support to patients nearing end of life?

Torrance Memorial Hospice Volunteers play an important role with our patients and their families. They provide companionship visits where they may read, go for a walk or play music for the patient. They can also provide respite to the family, assuring them the patient is safe while they are away from the home or getting some much-needed rest. Our volunteers are also trained to provide bereavement support for the families or caregivers of our patients by making phone calls or co-facilitating our weekly support groups. We provide online and hands-on training for all volunteers, request 8 hours a month and a 6-month commitment. If you would like to learn more about this rewarding volunteer opportunity, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator: Christine.McCaverly@tmhc.com

Habitat for Humanity Build Day

We are limited to 10 volunteers at a time, but morning and afternoon shifts are available. No building skills are required and all tools and safety equipment are provided.

All volunteers are required to wear an N95 mask while working. We will carpool from the church parking lot for anyone needing a ride to the site.

Anyone interested in being a member of the build team should send an email to Tom Miller at tmillerosu@aol.com indicating whether you want a morning or afternoon shift. Additional details regarding the Build Day will be provided to those who participate.

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate.

This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

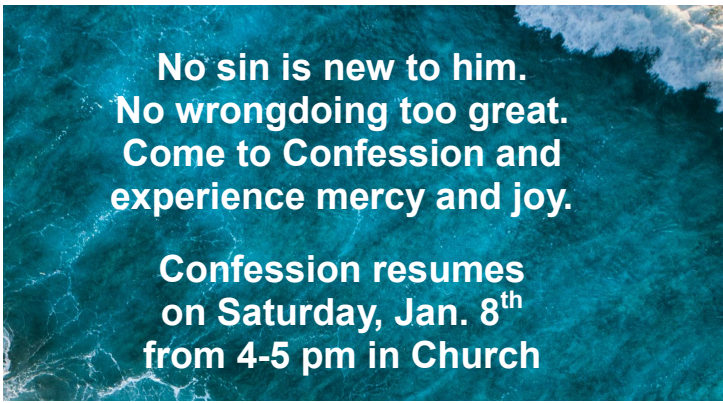

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading?

Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone.

We can too.

Q: This week's scripture readings prompt us to consider some of the workings of sin and aspects of salvation in the light of the teachings of the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

In James, Chapter 1, just before the familiar admonition to be, "doers of the word", we find another directive:

"...therefore rid yourselves of all wickedness."

In Maccabees 2 we read: "God forbid that we should forsake the law and the commandments."

In that Bible verse we also hear from a persecuted servant of God, Matthias. He and his sons were facing martyrdom for refusing to sin against their Christian faith: "We will not depart from our religion in the slightest degree."

Pope Francis, in a speech about engaging in dialogue with God, offered relevant words from John 1:

"If we say we are without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we acknowledge our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from every wrongdoing."

Psalm 50, (fittingly one of the Penitential Psalms), is also illustrative of the dialogue between sinner and savior:

"To the upright I will show the saving power of God." The Catechism of the Catholic Church in the section called "The Celebration of the Christian Mystery," expounds on this topic of repentance, in all its degrees, cast amid the repercussions of sin. At one point, the Catechism characterizes sin as a "shipwreck", with its attendant loss of grace.

What are some of the ways, (in brief), that the Catechism offers to help navigate sin and salvation, as reflected in the essence of the scripture readings above?

A: The Catechism helps to guide the faithful with clarity:

Q: What is sin? A: Sin is, above all else, an offense against God...

Q: What is penance? A: Penance includes a desire and resolution to change one's life...

Q: What is reconciliation? A: Jesus receives sinners at his table; (see the sacrament of Reconciliation or Confession)...

Q: What are the acts of the penitent?

A: ...The penitent must be contrite of heart...

The Catechism, along with scripture, and traditional faith practices, is there; part of a spiritual map for a journey of faith. The Catechism presents many more lessons regarding a life of holiness.

St. Ambrose, speaking about the brokenness that sin engenders, nevertheless struck an unwavering note of hope:

"In the Church there are water and tears: the water of Baptism, and the tears of repentance."

So echoes the Gospel of John: "He is faithful and just..."
