Welcome!

Friends and Family GATHER HERE

Welcome one another, then,
as Christ welcomed you,
for the glory of God.

Romans 15:7

V

Maybe you grew up Catholic.
Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.
Or, you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
And maybe it feels awkward and scary to take that first step.
Question. Doubts. Yearning, but not sure for what.

We get it. We've been there. Now we are here.
Maybe God is calling you, too. Just as you are.
Welcome home.

Mary, our Mother, on Mother's Day

"When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son." Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. (John 19:26, 27)

This tender scene speaks to us of the depth of the Love which inspires, informs and transforms all human love, the Love Incarnate who gives us His Mother.

Prayer to the Mother of the Lord for all mothers:

Mary, on this day when we honor all mothers, we turn to you. We thank the Lord whom you serve for the great gift of motherhood. Never has it been known that anyone who sought your Intercession was left unaided by grace.

Dear Mother, thank you for your "Yes" to the invitation of the angel which brought heaven to earth and changed human history. You opened yourself to God's word and the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us.

Dear mother, intercede for all of our mothers. Ask your Divine Son to give them the grace of surrendered love so that they could join with you in giving their own "Fiat."

May they find daily strength to say yes to the call to the sacrificial love- the very heart of the vocation of motherhood. May their love and witness be a source of great inspiration for all of us called to follow your Son.

On this Mothers day, Mother of the Word Incarnate, pray for us who have recourse to you... Amen.

Blessings on this Mothers' Day

As we celebrate Mothers' Day this weekend, we acknowledge our mothers and all those who have cared for us with motherly love.

We thank you for the years of nurturing children, giving them faith and helping them to know God. You have taught us many of life's lessons and how to love and how to sacrifice for others and to be compassionate.

May the Lord bless you with the graces you need and help you to know how precious you are in His eyes. May the Lord continue to give you the strength, courage, compassion and peace of Mary, the model of faith.

We all love you so much.

Pentecost Sunday— June 4 Multi-Lingual Lectors wanted!

Our parish is made up of many peoples of different nations and cultures; let us rejoice in the fact that all of us, from different parts of the world, are one in Christ Jesus.

Over the past years, the Lector Ministry has encouraged the members of St. James community to live out Pentecost by reading two line petitions in the language of their ancestors and dressing in their native, ancestral or traditional clothing at Masses on Pentecost.

If you speak a second language, we encourage you to participate at this year's Pentecost celebration on Sunday, June 4th

We are looking for four different languages at each Mass. Contact Samantha Pierce with your choice of language and Mass—Lectors@SaintJames.Church, 310.371.1932.

To proudly portray our cultural diversity, we encouraged all St. James parishioners to dress for Pentecost liturgy in their ancestral dress.

From Highland Kilt to Hindi Sari, be part of the joy of this liturgical celebration!

Everyday Stewardship

What do you think is the value of your stewardship? Do you believe that through your actions both great and small that God can touch people, heal them, and change their lives? Too often we can mistakenly assume that what we do, say, or offer can have little effect in the grand scheme of life. We are simply poor sinners in need of salvation so what could we do anyway?

Jesus speaks very powerfully to what can be done by those who believe in him and follow him. He says in John's Gospel, "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father." Greater ones than these? Think about all the miracles of Jesus recorded in sacred Scripture. You and I can do works greater than those?

St. Teresa of Avila said, "Christ has no body now on earth but yours." We are Christ to a world that needs him. It is the Christ in you that responds to the Christ in me.

If it were only you alone going about doing good works and deeds, then your stewardship would amount to little.

But if you bear the name Christian, and you approach your discipleship seriously, you can truly do greater things. If you understand your stewardship as a way that Jesus works in our world, then this way of life, cultivating and sharing your gifts at every turn, becomes more valuable than all the gold in the world.

Catechism Q&A

Q: The Catechism of the Catholic Church draws on the Bible, the Mass, the Sacraments, Church tradition and teaching, and the lives of the saints.

On this solid foundation of faith, the Catechism offers a positive, coherent, contemporary map for our own spiritual catholic journey.

We're at letter U in this series of alphabetically generated topics in the catechism. What subjects, if any, are listed beginning with letter U?

A: There are two subjects beginning with letter U; Unity and Understanding. Let's stand united and go with the subject imparted as one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit: The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. Map out your harmonious possibilities amid this realm of virtuous understanding in your catechism.

For Matthew Kelly, the problem of resistance in Resisting Happiness is that it is an enemy, an obstacle standing between you and the person God created you to be. In Chapter 1, called "Resistance", Kelly starts off by proposing a better understanding of the dynamics of resistance by naming it, analyzing it in its many forms, and presenting ways to conquer it.

Thank you Holy Spirit for your gifts!

Looking for understanding?

Here at St. James, you are encouraged to read your catechism, and to read your spiritually enriching books of faith. The Lord be with you!

Gospel Reflection

"Whoever believes in me will do the works that I do."

What were the works that Jesus did? Miracles, sometimes, but what were the essence of these miracles?

Caring for the sick, comforting the sorrowful, feeding the hungry ... much of Jesus' ministry was spent in carrying out what we call the works of mercy. But he did more than that; he also preached and publicly shared the good news, he fostered fellowship and community, and he prayed. All of this makes a kind of plan of action for us as Christians. As Jesus says today, if we truly believe in him, we will follow in his footsteps and do these same things.

What this all suggests is that belief itself--having faith, being Christian--is only part of the picture. Jesus expects us to take this faith and put it into concrete, practical action. Apparently this goes hand in hand with real faith. If actions don't follow, then faith is not being lived to its fullest.

This of course presents a real challenge. Our lives are busy and our plates are full, just with the tasks and demands of daily existence. It can seem like a burden to serve others, to share the Gospel, to be actively involved in a faith community, to find time to pray.

But these are meant to be priorities for true disciples of Christ. And as many will testify, when we sincerely ask God to help us get our priorities in order, he has a way of miraculously multiplying our time. Somehow, we find the opportunities right before us to follow God's will and bring our faith to life.

That simple prayer of asking for help may be where we need to start. The first step is not so much to fill our calendar as to fill our hearts, or just to pray that God will fill our hearts, with the desire to "do the works" of Jesus.

(l to r) Leslie, and her sponsor Kim, Steven and his sponsor, John. Leslie and Steven completed their sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist and are now fully initiated into the Catholic Church. Please welcome them and ask them about their faith journey.

Prayer after Communion

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds, hide me.
Never permit me to be parted from you.
From the evil enemy, defend me.

At the hour of my death,
call me and bid me come to you,
that with your Saints I may praise you for age upon age.

Amen.

More St. James History Highlights

Our Church's historical record includes the following:

- * The 1914 St. James Church saw a social hall added in 1935.
- * Remodeling of that Church took place in the 1940's, celebrated by a performance by the St. James Choir, featuring a soprano solo.
- * The cornerstone of our church that was embedded in 1914, situated outside the original baptistry, contains a time capsule. Its contents: a 1914 issue of The Tidings, old coins, and a letter placed by Father O'Callaghan.
- * In 1911 St. James featured a Choir in the Dominguez Chapel.
- * The Choir's first director was Viola Niland, who was also the organist.
- * Choir members, (all 25 voices), met on Wednesdays.
- * In 1944, funds were allotted for the reinstallation of a Kilgen Organ from the Dominguez Chapel to St. James.

Kilgen was a prominent American builder of organs which was in business from the mid-19th to the mid-20th century.

*1961 saw a Children's Choir formed with 75 voices, all girls in grades 6,7, and 8.

* Also In 1961, a young adult group,(18-35's unmarried), was active at St. James. It was called The Compostello Club. It's stated goal: "...to help them be Christ-like in their religious, cultural, social, and athletic lives..."

Santiago de Compostela is the capital of northwest Spain's Galicia region.

It's well-known as the culmination of the Camino de Santiago pilgrimage route, (also known as The Way of St. James), and burial site of our patron saint.

In one of history's many marvelous confluences, Monsignor Mike will be leading such a pilgrimage to these areas of Spain and France this Fall.

Deeper Understanding

"But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light"

.. the very aim of all God's gracious manifestations of Himself is that the men who apprehend them should go forth into the world and show Him for what He is.

Now that aim may be, and often has been, put so as to present an utterly hard and horrible notion. That God's glory is His only motive may be so stated as to mean nearly an Almighty Selfishness, which is far liker the devil than God.

People in old days did not always recognize the danger that lay in such a representation of what we call God's motive for action. But if you think for a moment about this statement, all that appears hard and repellent drops clean away from it, and it turns out to be another way of saying, 'God is Love.'

Because, what is there more characteristic of love than an earnest desire to communicate itself and to be manifested and beheld? And what is it that God reveals to the world for His own glory but the loftiest and most wondrous compassion, that cannot be wearied out, that cannot be provoked, and the most forgiving Omnipotence, that, in answer to all men's wanderings and rebellions, only seeks to draw them to itself?

That is what God wants to be known for.

Is that hard and repellent? Does that make Him a great tyrant, who only wants to be abjectly worshipped?

No; it makes Him the very embodiment and perfection of the purest love.

Why does He desire that He should be known? for any good that it does to Him? No; except the good that even His creatures can do to Him when they gladden His paternal heart by recognizing Him for what He is, the Infinite Lover of all souls.

But the reason why He desires, most of all, that the light of His character may pour into every heart is because He would have every heart gladdened and blessed for ever by that received and believed light.

So the hard saying that God's own glory is His supreme end melts into 'God is Love.'

The Infinite desires to communicate Himself, that by the communication men may be blessed.
