Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends and family,

St. James School is one of the highest ranked schools in the Archdiocese, providing an excellent education for our children with an emphasis on our Catholic identity and personal integrity. We celebrated the 100th anniversary of the school and the outstanding leadership provided by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, we have much to be thankful for.

The Open House at the school demonstrated the quality of education and highlights of the school under the leadership of Sr. Mary Margaret Kreuper, CSJ, and our wonderful faculty.

Sr. Mary Margaret will be retiring as principal this year.

She decided that she will be retiring at the end of the school year in June. She has been such a wonderful principal at our school for the past 28 years and we are so grateful for the leadership and vision she has given us.

Under her guidance, St. James School provides an outstanding education and faith foundation for our children. Take time to thank her for her generous service. St. James School office—310.371.0416

Join me in congratulating Louise Ramirez as she advances to her new role as your Office Manager.

She has a busy schedule with her husband Mark as they continue to study for the Diaconate.

Please join me in welcoming Jeannie Haworth as your new Administrative Assistant at the Parish Office. She'll be the voice you'll most often hear as you call the office.

Peace and Blessings,

Msgr. Mike

Grow your Faith—Bible Studies

The Spirituality of the 12 Steps for Everyone

Looking to end the habitual sin that is weighing on you?

Tues. Evening Bible Study
Begins Feb. 6, - April 3
7-8:30 pm

The Spirituality of the Twelve Steps for Everyone by Fr. Anthony Ciorra.

The twelve steps offer freedom by getting to the heart of the most basic of human desires: happiness, peace, and inner freedom. You will understand addiction is anything that stands in the way of the fulfillment of these desires. In some way, we are all addicted to control, trying to orchestrate our lives and the lives of others according to our plans. Fr. Ciorra shows you how to let go of these false desires and embrace a deeper spirituality.

Influenza and the Liturgy

This cold and flu season is severe and we'd like to remind all parishioners to use common good sense. Those who are ill are not obliged to attend Mass and should stay home to recover.

If you are feeling ill today, please refrain from partaking of the Blood of Christ from the chalice. We ask that those who are not well to refrain from offering your hand to others at the sign of peace. In addition, no one who fears infection should feel obligated to share the sign of peace or receive Holy Communion from the communal chalice.

We pray for the health and recovery of all who are ill and not with us today.

Statement from LA Archdiocese About Fr. Juan Cano

Father Juan Cano, who was a transitional deacon at St. James Parish from November 2014 through June 2015, has been placed on administrative leave from his assignment as Associate Pastor at Our Lady of Grace Parish in Encino.

This is as a result of recent reports of inappropriate contact by Fr. Cano involving several females at Our Lady of Grace Parish, including two who were minors at the time of the alleged incidents. The matters have been reported to the authorities; the parish and the Archdiocese are collaborating fully in the ongoing investigation.

Anyone with information or concerns is asked to please contact Detective Rose Gaeta of LAPD at 213.486.0580 or the Archdiocesan Office of Victims Assistance Ministry at 213.637.7650. Please keep everyone impacted by this matter in your prayers.

Catholic Q & A

Q: The Catechism Of The Catholic Church honors them as "Masterpieces of God."

They're also known as: A celebration; a ceremony; an observance; a practice; a ritual; a service; a commemoration; a custom; a formality, tradition, formula, service, solemnity, and - a vow. What are these signs, tokens, and symbols that are so highly exalted in our richly universal, Catholic Church?

A: They are, of course, The Sacraments.

The long-standard, and elegantly beautiful ecclesiastical definition of a sacrament is that it, "...was instituted by the Church as a visible sign of an inward grace."

Recently, a Priest eloquently described sacramental grace as, "...an occasion of being touched by God." In the Protestant Church, two sacraments are celebrated. They are Baptism and The Supper of the Lord.

Can you name the Seven Sacraments of the Catholic Church?
J.P. Alegria

Habitat for Humanity Build Days

The Habitat for Humanity Catholic Coalition has set aside one Saturday each month until June for a multi-parish build day. As a member parish of the coalition, St James can provide up to 8 volunteers for each date.

The build days will take place in Long Beach on February 10, March 17, April 14, May 12 and June 16.

If you want to volunteer on one or more of these dates, email Tom Miller at tmillerosu@aol.com or 310.971.7589

Four homes are being built at the site and are in various stages of construction, so there will be a variety of tasks. Volunteers must be at least 16 years old.

More details will be provided to volunteers as each build day approaches. This is a great opportunity to work alongside volunteers from other Catholic churches.

Lazybones Day at the Preschool

Lazybones Day, or Lulilak Dag is celebrated by the children in the Netherlands during the Easter season. It is said to have started long ago when a watchman named Piet Lak fell asleep, allowing enemy troops to march into the Netherlands. Piet Lak became known as Lazy Lak and Dutch children now observe the event with Lazybones Day.

On Lazy Bones Day, the Dutch children march through the streets banging on pans, shouting and making as much noise as possible. They ring doorbells when they find people asleep and wake them up. The sleepyheads must respond by serving Lazybones Cakes (hotcakes with syrup.) When everyone is awake, they all go together to the town marketplace for more treats and more Lazybones Cakes.

The St. James Preschool version of Lazybones Day is a fun day of wearing our favorite pajamas, eating breakfast for snack and waking up our friends with noisemakers. It is such a fun day that we don't wait for the Easter season to celebrate it!

The children in the Yellow Room, with help from Mrs. Bailey, sewed some comfy pillows and enjoyed scrambled eggs and sausages.

It was a fun day enjoyed by all.

Gospel Reflection

For most of us, the dynamic between prayer and action is imperfect.

Breakfast needs to be made and the kids dressed. Work demands our energy and additional responsibilities fill our evenings and weekends. Then there's the football game or a new TV series to stream. After all, don't we need to relax?

We're all busy. But just imagine Jesus' situation in today's Gospel. He heals Peter's mother-in-law, drives out demons, and cures diseases late into the night. With very little sleep, he arises before dawn to capture some peace and quiet, only to find "those who were with him pursued him." How often do we feel pursued by the harried commitments, even when we try to seek rest? Perhaps we can learn something from the response of Jesus.

Jesus models two key things: the essential nature of prayer and the essential call of vocation. "He went off to a deserted place, where he prayed."

Despite inevitable exhaustion, Jesus prioritizes time with the Father. We might not have easy access to deserts and mountaintops, but today's Gospel challenges us to take intentional time set apart for God. We can designate a "prayer chair" in a corner of our home or leave a little earlier to pick our children up from school so we can snatch time in a nearby chapel. We can pray the rosary on our commute or take the dog for a long walk in silence.

However, when the Apostles arrive, Jesus doesn't linger overlong in the deserted place or make an excuse for why he can't return with his friends. Jesus is true to his calling. He continues on in his state of life, serving the people nearest to him.

Like Jesus, we are invited to set intentional time for communion with God so that we can be refreshed and empowered for our communion with others.
