Pastor's Corner

Dear Friends and Family,
New Year Blessings!

May the Lord bless you all in 2020.

On Monday we celebrate Epiphany and next Sunday, January 12th is the Feast the Baptism of the Lord and the end of our Christmas season. While the rest of the world has moved on to other things, we continue to stay focused on the promise and hope we have for the power of Christ in our lives.

We have given out nearly 3,000 copies of the Matthew Kelly book, "Rediscover the Saints" in the last 2 weeks. I really believe there is wisdom and inspiration in the book for each of us, but it can only happen if we pick up the book and begin to read it. I encourage you to commit to reading the book—only one chapter at a time-- and let the lives of some of our holy people inspire you to recognize and use those same gifts in your own life.

Also, next Sunday is an important day for St. James as we will have a special video presentation at all of the Masses about St. James as well as information to share with you about our hopes for the future. We ask that you make every effort to be here for one of the Masses.

Finally, on Sunday, January 19th, Bishop Marc Trudeau will be at St. James to celebrate the Noon Mass and then officially Bless and Dedicate our new property. We will continue the celebration with an Open House of the buildings and refreshments. Please plan to join us for Mass and the dedication.

Getting to Know You

Join your friends for fellowship, coffee and conversation after the 8 & 10am Masses in Kavanagh Hall. Served today by members of our Hospitality Ministry

Welcome!

Friends and Family
GATHER HERE

Welcome one another, then,
as Christ welcomed you,
for the glory of God.

Romans 15:7

Maybe you grew up Catholic.
Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.
Or, you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.
And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step. Questions.
Doubts. Yearning, but not sure for what. We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Would You Like to Receive Your Sacrament of Confirmation?

Are you a baptized Catholic, but have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation? If so, contact us about becoming a candidate to complete your Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation).

Our Winter, 2020 series of classes is scheduled to begin on Thursday, January 23, 2020.

If you know of someone who may benefit from this process, please feel free to pass this information along to them. To receive further information and details on this process, please contact Deacon Bob & Patty Miller at dnbob99@gmail.com or call us at 310.371.0985.

Our Next Tour of the Church!

As we enter the period of Ordinary Time from Christmas to Lent, the pace of church life begins to slow. It is a great time to join us on a tour of our beautiful church.

We'll talk about when, why, and who brought Roman Catholicism to our part of the world and together explore the many signs, symbols and structures we find within our worship space. We'll do our best to provide seating during as much of the tour as we possibly can.

Please join Deacon Bob and Patty on Tuesday evening, January 28. The tour will begin promptly at 7pm and will conclude at approximately 9:15pm. Park in the west parking lot and meet us in the back pews of the church. RSVP to Parish Office: 310.372.5228. Hope to see you on January 28

New Year's Prayer

Heavenly Father, as we begin the New Year we must first give thanks to you for this past year—both the good and the bad. They remind us that in all things we rely on the Lord for the graces to live each day and each situation with an open and trusting heart.

We ask for the gift of Wisdom, that the Holy Spirit will inspire in us a loving and understanding heart that we might be compassionate to the weakness of others and not merely self-seeking for our own advantage or gain. Guide our desires and decisions that our thoughts and actions will be rooted in your name and completed with your love.

Protect our families and friends that we might be kept safe in your care and surrounding love. Help us to begin each day by opening our hearts to you, seeking the guidance your Spirit, that in all things we might bring your loving Word and Heart.

Help me to be humble enough to recognize my limitations and faults and find healing in you that I might be kept safe on the path of life where you alone are my joy, my hope and my salvation and where I learn to be generous of heart with others as you are with me.

To you be glory and honor, in this New Year, and forever. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.

Consider Spiritual Adoption This Year

This is done by praying that the one particular but unknown child's life be spared abortion and be allowed to continue to live. A great way to deepen your faith in 2020.

Archbishop Fulton Sheen prayed

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

To help accomplish this, say this or other prayer daily for a period of nine months.

Children's Christmas Choir

Thank you to all the children who participated in the Christmas choir. In addition to singing at Mass, they brought holiday cheer and the reason for the season throughout the South Torrance Lighted area as they sang with the South Bay Strummers and The Salvation Army. Thank you to the parents and Kevin Babuder for all the support.

Nursery of Heaven—Now in the Gift Shop

Miscarriage, stillbirth, and infant loss happen more often than we realize, leaving many to suffer in isolation. Nursery of Heaven is a companion to help those grieving from child loss as they search for comfort and meaning.

"This book will help people understand the pain of pregnancy loss. It is helpful for those who have experienced loss to know they are not alone and helpful to those who love them in understanding this often-hidden experience and how to help."

Special Needs Parent Group

A Special Needs Parent Fell in a Hole

Family member: What hole?

Boss: Oh that's a shame. You can take the day off.

Doctor: Can you keep a diary of your experiences in the hole?

DBHDD: We will assess the size of the hole. However, it may take up to 18 months.

Local authority: Sorry we don't have enough money for a ladder.

Charity: Here's a form. Fill it in to apply to get on the waiting list for a ladder.

Another special needs parent: I'm here! I'm coming down there with you. I've been here before. I know how to get out and I won't let you do it alone.

Parents who have been where we are, who can offer direction and support. Parents who can lend a listening ear and who "get it." Parents who can offer suggestions based on their experiences. Our tribe.

It is no wonder many parents of kids with disabilities will say one of the greatest gifts their child has brought them are other parents.

These parents remind us we are not alone, and that makes all the difference.

Our Special Needs Parent Group meets the first Monday of each month from 6-7:30pm in Room 5 of the Parish Center. Please join us on Monday, January 6th for a potluck dinner and discussion. Childcare is available.

The Better Angels of our Nature

Q: In the season of Christmas we collectively join our voices to sing with the angels:

*"Angels we have heard on high,
Sweetly singing o'er the plains...
Echo back their joyous strains..."*

What are we saying, along with those choirs of angels when we echo back those joyous strains with the Latin words, "Gloria in Excelsis Deo" as we celebrate a messianic miracle of birth?

A: "Glory to God in the highest!"

The Gloria. These words are part of what the Church calls the greater doxology. It's a short exclamation of praises to God, often added to the end of canticles, psalms, and hymns. Positively angelic, especially when sung with our choir.

We can read in the catechism about the many facets of angels, including: angels as servants of Christ, fallen angels, guardian angels, angels in salvation history, angels in heaven, and the significance of angels to the Church.

We can read more about angels, doxology, and praise, in our guiding catechism. One form of definition of the words catechism and catechetical teachings, because of the means of oral questions and answers in Christian doctrine is, "to echo the instruction."

"Echo back their joyous strains..." - J. P. Alegria

Prayer after Communion

Receive, Lord, my entire freedom.
Accept the whole of my memory, my intellect and my will. Whatever I have or possess, it was you who gave it to me; I restore it to you in full, and I surrender it completely to the guidance of your will. Give me only love of you together with your grace, and I am rich enough and ask for nothing more. Amen.

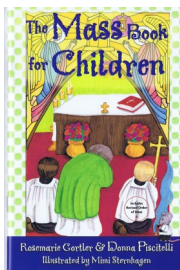

Welcome Parents of Young Children!

Relax! God loves the wiggly little saints and we do too!

We understand how difficult it is to attend Mass with all the supplies a family with young children needs.

We want you and your children to feel welcomed here. We encourage you to sit near the front so they can see what is going on.

Please support these families with encouragement and smiles. Look for these books in the back of the church for use during Mass and return to the basket when done. These books and others that help children learn about their faith can be found in the Gift Shop. Welcome!

Gospel Reflection

We may walk many roads when we search for God, and He leads us all the while.

The men we honor today were not Jews. The Messiah wasn't coming for them, not in the minds of Jesus' contemporaries. These men were astrologers. They were adept at reading portents in the sky, a practice condemned in the Mosaic covenant. Still, to the best of their knowledge and awareness, they were seeking the truth. This truth led them to journey from their own homeland to honor a king they'd never met, one they couldn't be sure truly existed.

"We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." Who do you know seeks God so tenaciously?

"Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem," the Gospel tells us. Who are the seekers in your own life? Maybe it's your cautiously curious co-worker, the neighbor who unexpectedly found peace on a yoga retreat, or your desperately angry child who has chosen, for now, to go their own way. Perhaps they're not overtly headed for Jesus now, not yet. But they may well be seekers of truth in ways we didn't expect. Our invitation is to listen, inquire, and give directions when appropriate.

The magi and modern-day seekers can inspire us as well. When is the last time you sought God's truth so tenaciously? As believers, it can perhaps be easy to become desensitized to the Christmas season and to the miraculous reality we recently celebrated. Mass may have been lovely, but so was the succulent roast beef, the crisp smell of evergreen, and the warm glow of family.

Consider asking yourself, "God, do I know you as well as I should? Would I journey as far as the magi to meet You, if I could? Do I journey to meet You daily in prayer? What do those answer say about me, and about our relationship?"

Perhaps we, like the magi, can once again be "overjoyed" at seeing the Light of the World.

Scenes from Feed the Needy Christmas Luncheon

Happy New Year from the Feed the Needy Ministry

All of us at the Feed the Needy Ministry would like to wish everyone a happy and healthy New Year. We also want to thank our Parishioners for all their contributions of toys, gift cards and warm clothing items. As a result of these contributions we were able to provide a wonderful Christmas Party for our ministry.

We fed around 90 people and Santa gave toys to 50 children. The staff prepared a full turkey dinner with all the trimmings. Our volunteers worked hard to prepare and serve the food as well as decorate Kavanagh Hall.

We would like to thank each of you individually but you know who you are and all the hard work you put into our party to make it so successful. A special thanks to the women of the Guild and Cornerstone. It was a pleasure having you work with us. The Women's Guild made all the table decorations for our party. They were beautiful and added to the day.

In addition to the party, your generosity allowed us to collect around 400 toys and many gift cards for several needy parishes including our sister parish, San Miguel. St James put many smiles on many children's faces.

Thank you again this year
