Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

“There once was a person who had a fig tree
planted in his orchard,
and when he came in search of fruit on it
but found none, he said to the gardener,
‘For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none.
So cut it down.

Why should it exhaust the soil?’

He said to him in reply,

‘Sir, leave it for this year also,
and I shall cultivate
the ground around it
and fertilize it;

it may bear fruit in the future.

If not you can cut it down.” Lk. 13:6-9

St. James Synod Sessions

Pope Francis has summoned the Church to participate in a worldwide synod.

Instead of an assembly of bishops in Rome only, Pope Francis invites the whole People of God to participate in the synod—to “journey together” with our brothers and sisters in Christ along the path of renewal, guided by the Holy Spirit. Every parish—everywhere in the world.

St. James' Synod Sessions “Walking With Jesus”, will begin next Sunday afternoon (March 27) and everyone is invited to come join us. We encourage all to participate: young adults and seniors, active parishioners and those who have drifted away, as well as those who feel marginalized from the Church. By sharing our faith stories we will listen to each other and reflect together on how the Holy Spirit is calling our parish and the Universal Church to move forward. It is our time to speak—and to listen to each other.

Our reflections will become part of a report sent to the U.S. bishops and then, on to Rome and the Pope, but the real impact will be for US at St. James as we discern how we can be ‘church’ better together.

A new topic on each of these Sessions:

- Sunday, March 27 from 1 to 3 PM
- Tuesday, March 29 from 6:30 PM to 8 PM
- Wednesday, March 30 from 6:30 to 8 PM

Blessings,

Mmgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.
And maybe you are worried
that you won't be welcome here.
We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

When you attend, you'll have a chance to hear powerful music, learn from authentic Catholic clergy, and grow in faith.

Learn to be the holy, healthy, vibrant person that God has created you to be. Learn to use your gifts to make a difference in the lives of others.

Maybe God is calling you back.
Just as you are.
Welcome home.

Carrying the Cross

Bat noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And at three o'clock, Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lina sabachthani?" which is translated, "my God, My God, why have you forsaken me?" Some of the bystanders who heard it said, "Look, he is calling Elijah." One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying "wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down." Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last. - Mark 15:33-37

In trying to understand the true power of stewardship, we need not look any further than the cross. It serves as a tremendous example of giving everything away freely for God and the people of God. Jesus answered the call, regardless of the cost, and the cost was life itself.

Most of us will never have to sacrifice our lives in response to God's call. But there are Christians all across the globe that do every day. Missionaries have died due to violence or disease. Activists stood up for the basic rights of others and have lost their own right to live. Men and women who swore to keep the peace or rescue others from disaster have traded a lifetime with family and friends for the sake of the vulnerable. These people answered that call and responded with courage and commitment.

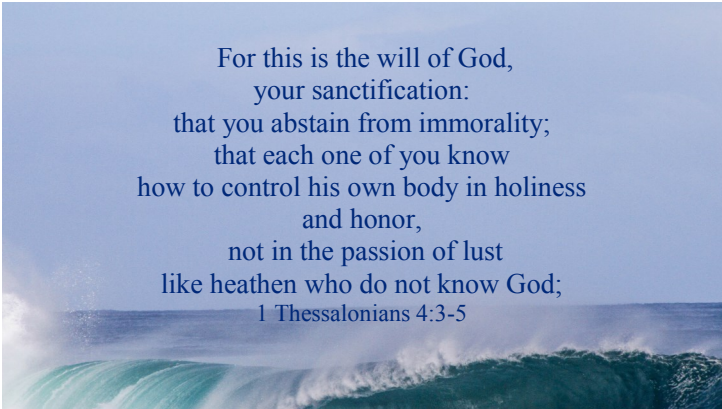

But even though our sacrifice might not be as great, it does not diminish the power of the response. Perhaps through our small everyday actions, someone will be touched by God and then transformed. It is not the size of the sacrifice that counts, but the complete willingness to give that sacrifice. Jesus' Sacrifice is sufficient for the salvation of all humanity. Now, we are called to translate that reality into our somewhat simple lives.

On those days when being a good steward seems too difficult, look to the cross and find strength in a God who knows how hard this earthly life can be at times. Look to fellow stewards who are carrying their crosses and find empathy and companionship. Reflect on the lives of saints and those who gave their lives because of their love of God. Then go forth into a world that so badly needs Jesus and give thanks for knowing how hard the day otherwise would be without him.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Religious Education classes will meet at the church this Tuesday and Wednesday. Remember that we will continue our collection of items for our Lenten Feed the Needy Drive during this week, so your children are encouraged to bring their donation to church with them. Please see your emails for more information!

The next Children's Liturgy of the Word will be on Sunday, April 3rd. We look forward to seeing you then!

As you journey through Lent, we also ask that you consider whether you are called to serve as a volunteer or Catechist in one of our Religious Education programs. We are looking to grow our program offerings next year, but we cannot do that without extra assistance. We can help you discern which program fits your gifts, so please contact the office so we can start you on the path to be prepared to minister with children next September. Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

Finally, please remember in your prayers the four children who are preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil, along with all the children preparing for First Communion during the Easter Season.

May your Lenten journey be blessed
God bless!

Andrea Sullivan,

Director of Religious Education

Completed application packages should be submitted to the parish office no later than Monday, April 4th, 2022.

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations! We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the months of the pandemic.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members.

We always need the following items:

hamburger buns	cheese sticks
fruit	(oranges, bananas &amp; grapes)
chips	granola bars
lunch meat &amp; cheese	8 oz. water and juices

Some of these items can easily fit into their backpacks.

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks.

Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

Respect Life Ministry

Your help is urgently needed to stop mail order abortion! Sign the petition to stop the FDA from removing health and safety standards required for the distribution of the dangerous Chemical Abortion Pills aka RU486. Before these pills are prescribed, women are required to visit a doctor to determine gestational age and rule out ectopic pregnancy. Lifting standards would endanger not only the life of the preborn baby but also the woman's life and allow her to purchase by mail without a doctor's exam. Deserts can be lonely, isolated, and treacherous places.

When a person wanders in a desert, they can easily get disoriented, dehydrated, confused, lost, and vulnerable. Temptation is at its peak, especially when confronted with something that may offer some respite or relief, even a mirage. Deserts can bring us to our weakest moment and tempt our faith. The Christian journey can be described as a desert experience as we vacillate back and forth, falling victim to the mirages of our lives versus the true, life-giving water offered by God. We need a burning bush experience in our lives that convinces us of the power of God and reveals Him as the "I am" of all existence.

Moses was leading his flock across the desert when he found himself at Mount Horeb. Mountains give us a fuller perspective of life, a panoramic view of what would otherwise be hidden from the limitations of our sight. That's when Moses met God. We have to find our way to a mountain experience where our vantage point can take on a wider view of life. Many things can do this for us: the birth of a child, the death of someone we love, the joy that comes from marveling at the beauty of God's work, the pondering of life's mysteries, and the ache of longing found deep within our souls. There are many things in life that can wake us up, give us a clearer, better view of things and become occasions where a bush may burn and God's presence as the eternal uncreated One is revealed.

God is very patient and gives us the time and space we need to figure things out and bear some good fruit. He doesn't rush to cut us down or get frustrated with our barrenness. But we have to remember that the desert journeys of our lives come with some risks. The major risk is that we will mistakenly believe that the mirages are real. Thus, we fall victim to thinking that the respite and refreshment we seek is discovered in a place other than where it actually is. Our faith and the life of the Church are the safeguards we need to keep us properly orientated so that we don't get lost or confused and stay on course.

'Do not fear, for I am with you;

I will strengthen you,
I will also help you,
I will also uphold you

This Week's Topic:
"The Guidance of the Good News"

In his homily on the first Sunday of Lent, Father Jim underscored the value of the scripture readings on that day, pointing out that within the liturgy we turn to the scriptures for direction. What follows is comfort and illumination along this journey of faith. In a Lenten Season, a season of prayer, one can truly experience a renewed appreciation of sacred scripture and sacred tradition amid the good news that is the gospel of the Lord.

Q: What else does the Church teach about the guidance of the good news?

A: The Catechism of the Catholic Church contains many entries about prayer and sacred scripture.

"The Church has always venerated the divine Scriptures..."

Here the Catechism quotes Psalm 119, echoing Father Jim's emphasis on scriptural direction,

"Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."

The Catechism describes the "senses" of scripture:

- The literal sense;
- the spiritual sense;
- the allegorical sense;
- the moral sense;

and finally in validation of our theme of directionality: the anagogical, (Greek), sense, meaning in a way that leads us.

In this discussion about the profession of faith, the Catechism quotes St. Therese of Lisieux. "The Little Flower" speaks about her prayerful way and about that aspect of illumination:

"But above all it's the Gospels that occupy my mind when I'm at prayer; my poor soul has so many needs...I'm always finding fresh lights there..."

Paragraph 104 in the catechism stands out as instructive by way of wonderfully sublime imagery: "In Sacred Scripture, the Church constantly finds her nourishment and her strength for she welcomes it not as a human word, but as what it really is, the word of God. In the sacred books, the Father who is in heaven comes lovingly to meet his children, and talks with them."

It may be fitting to close this discussion of Lenten prayer, and the guidance of the good news, with the words of Pope St. John Paul II who spoke at the World Day of Prayer in 1995:

"Sacred scripture is a sure guide, when it is read, welcomed, and meditated upon in the church. Coming to know the events involving the major figures of the Bible and, above all, the reading of the gospels provide moments of unexpected insights."
