Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Our world is often crazy and overwhelming and also messy. Our celebrations of Holy Week and Easter remind us of our real life and where we find the real strength to not just continue, but thrive.

Christianity was born in the midst of conflict, oppression, rejection and persecution—and it continued on, and grew. It did not grow because of anything we did, but because of the Resurrection of Christ, the power of the Gospel, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. In fact, others looked at those early disciples in amazement and we were called 'Christian' for the first time and in that experience they commented, 'Look how they love one another.'

A real sign of a Christian is how we respond when things become difficult. Easter helps us celebrate our identity and strength in a powerful way and gives us a hope, strength and joy that the world cannot give. Christ alive in us enables us to bring Easter into the world. It is important for us to celebrate Easter this year because it is what creates the ground we stand on and the power of Christ's life guiding us.

Have a blessed and holy Easter as we all do our best to stay safe and filled with joy and hope.

Saint James Preschool

The children attended a very special Chapel lesson last Sunday while their parents celebrated Mass. They listened to a story called, Happy Spring, about a garden that wakes up in springtime to new life.

They created colorful butterflies and they sang a song called, The Butterfly Song, about all the wonderful things in our world.

It was a fun and spiritual hour.

Thank you God for new life and butterflies.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,
Happy Easter! Alleluia! Alleluia!

As we celebrate this most holy day, we ask that you consider whether you are called to serve as a volunteer or Catechist in one of our Religious Education programs. We are looking to grow our program offerings next year, but we cannot do that without extra assistance. We can help you discern which program fits your gifts, so please contact the office so we can start you on the path to be prepared to minister with children next September. Thank you for your prayerful consideration, and we hope that you find joy in your heart when you think about sharing your love for God with our children and their families!

For our families in Religious Education, please remember that we return to the classroom this week on April 19 and 20. We look forward to seeing all of you then!

Finally, please pray for Katherine, Mateo, Anthony, and Samantha, who received the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil, as well as all the children preparing for First Communion on April 30 and May 1. What a joyful time for these children, these families, and our entire parish!

May the joy of Easter fill your hearts! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Andrea Sullivan, Director of Religious Education

We always need the following items:

chips	granola bars
lunch meat & cheese	8 oz. water and juices

Some of these items can easily fit into their backpacks.

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks.

Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

F.A.I.T.H. MINISTRY of
St. Lawrence Martyr and St. James

This Week's Topic: Easter!

"This is the Night...O truly blessed night..."

These lyrics, mystically echoing once again among the gathered faithful, flow from an Easter sacramental. It's the solemn, majestically dramatic song of the Exsultet.

This song of vigil is described as being reflective of,

"The anticipatory fulfillment of Old Testament theology, highlighting the life-giving Eucharist in proclamation of the resurrection of our Lord."

The spiritual and temporal themes of darkness and light are part of a vigil that, by its very definition, is a call to "watch and pray."

Q: What further illuminative spiritual insight is present amid the flickering flame of the Paschal candle?

A: The Catechism, among its broad range of teachings about the transcendent events of Easter, states:

"Christ's Resurrection is the fulfillment of the promises of both the Old Testament and of Jesus himself during his earthly life. The Paschal Mystery has two aspects: by his death, Christ liberates us from sin; by his Resurrection, he opens for us the way to a new life."

St. John Paul II remembered the women present in the events leading up to and including the Resurrection and its aftermath:

"He has risen This is the heart of our faith. Mary was a silent witness of all these events. Let us ask her to help us also to receive the fullness of this Easter message."

A Jesuit resource looks beyond the linen wrappings of the empty tomb to ponder and treasure life among the living:

"Let him say not merely, "Christ is risen", but "I shall rise." Our Lord has written the promise of the resurrection, not in books alone, but in every leaf in springtime. Easter is meant to be a symbol of hope, renewal and new life."

Easter taught us this - that life never ends and love never dies."

May we proceed now to sing the Alleluia with joyful faith renewed during these 50 days of Eastertide, culminating at Pentecost, and throughout our faith journey.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

There are many stones in our paths that keep us from truly living and being free.

Some of these boulders have been there for a very long time. They have been there so long that they have even settled into the soil of our lives with other weeds, vines, and compacted soil keeping them firmly in place.

We find them hard to move and trying to do so can be exhausting. What are these suffocating albatrosses that keep us so tethered and immobile? They are many things.

They are past childhood wounds and hurts that stem from disappointment, rejection, or abuse. People may have told us we were unwanted, that the world is frightening, that there are only some acceptable feelings you can have and others you cannot.

We may have tried to love someone or struggled to figure out how and were met with rejection. Maybe we trusted someone completely and were betrayed. We come to life collecting barnacles that begin to attach to other barnacles and before you know it, we have a mass of solid matter blocking our vision and keeping us from moving.

We live in fear.

We are afraid of losing what we have, afraid that the future will be empty, afraid that we won't succeed and even more afraid that we will not be loved. There is so much fear. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't!

Go confidently into the night. Walking with God you will find the light and strength you need. Often without even knowing, God will move those boulders and stumbling blocks that bind us and, with putting one foot in front of the other and looking forward, we will move.

The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. The rocks that bind us keep us spinning the same wheels and doing the same things.

When was the last time you threw caution to the wind and actually did something totally out of character and different?

This is where we find God, in the spontaneous, the adventurous, the fun, and the creative choices we make!

God is not boring and stuck.

God is exciting and engaging.

Jesus Christ is risen from the dead!

Find a way to trust that this is true and live.
