Ukraine Support

The recent collection taken up in the parishes of Los Angeles for the support of the people of Ukraine in response to the devastation of their lives and country has brought in $1.1 million. In the Council of Priests meeting with Archbishop Gomez this past week he shared with us that 100% of all the money collected will be sent to the Bishops' Conference in Ukraine for the support of the people. The collection at St. James was $9,300, but that was only the funds received at the Masses and many people contributed directly to the Mission Office.

We want to thank all of you for your generosity and compassion in responding to this great humanitarian crisis.

Property Development

Our request to sell the Parish Center property is in the final stages through the various oversight and leadership offices at the Archdiocese and we hope to receive final approval in the very near future.

The preliminary work for the development of the new 'Community Campus' continues on pace. At this stage there are meetings of groups with common ministries/activities in the parish to identify their needs, such as space needed, activity areas, food service, A.V. technology, storage, days and times. One of the main groups to meet were our children's ministries, such as the Preschool, Religious Education, Sunday School, Children's Liturgy, Toddler Time, Vacation Bible School, Mom's Group, and SPED (Special Education). We have also met with our Adult Education groups, our Committees/Councils and Parish Organizations. This week we will be meeting with our Youth Ministry/Confirmation program and the Support Ministries.

Once we have gathered all the information from those groups we can begin to look at how we can best design the facilities for the needs of our parish now and into the future.

Dan Young, a parishioner at St. James and an architect for church facilities for the last 30 years who is part of the Property Planning committee, has facilitated these meetings and has been a tremendous help in getting us started and sharing the vision with all our leaders.

First Communions This Weekend

We welcome 56 children of our children who are receiving Eucharist for the first time. What a joy to celebrate as a parish the outpouring of God's love and mercy upon our children as they continue to grow in their life-journey of faith. Thank you for your love and support of them.

Blessings,

Mmgr. Mike & Fr. Thaddeus

Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.

And maybe you are worried
that you won't be welcome here.

We get it.

We've been there.

Now we are here.

When you attend, you'll have a chance to hear powerful music, learn from authentic Catholic clergy, and grow in faith.

holy, healthy, vibrant person that God has created you to be. Learn to use your gifts to make a difference in the lives of others.

Maybe God is calling you back.

Just as you are.

Novena of Masses honoring Mothers

The month of May is for honoring our mothers or those who have acted as mothers in our lives.

This special intention will be celebrated at each Mass.
Envelopes are located in the vestibule.

Cardinal McIntyre Fund

The goal of the Cardinal McIntyre Fund for Charity is service to the “neediest of the needy,” those for whom no other resources exist. Provision of food, shelter, one-time assistance to families in crises: such as assistance with medical, funeral expenses, are appropriate as funds allow and as recommended by those who are familiar with the area/persons.

In other words, the “Fund” provides emergency help to persons who have nowhere else to go. The Fund is not a replacement or supplement for welfare or other forms of public assistance. It does not support persons’ living needs on a continuing basis. Rather the Fund acts to solve immediate, pressing problems. Food and milk for three days. Lodging for the night. Emergency medical care. Rent to tide over a financial crisis. A utility bill to keep the water or heat turned on for the week.

We’ll be collecting for this fund at Masses on May 7th and May 8th. Look for the envelopes in the pews. adladevelopment.org/cardinal-macintyre/

Religious Education

Happy Third Sunday of Easter, Friends and Families of Saint James!

Just as the joy of the Easter cannot be contained in a single day, we hope that the joy of our parish children who are receiving the Sacrament of the Eucharist for the first time spills over into the St. James community!

This weekend, we celebrate First Communions during our parish Masses, and we hope that we may all be filled with renewed awareness of the gift we receive in the Body and Blood of Christ. Please keep the children and their families in your prayers.

Congratulations, First Communicants!
May God bless you!

In other Religious Education news, we only have two more gatherings for this school year. This Tuesday and Wednesday, we will start classes with a May Crowning.

Children may bring their rosaries and flowers for Mary's altar.

Families are encouraged to stay for the Crowning.
God Bless!

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations! We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the months of the pandemic.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members.

We always need the following items:

hamburger buns	cheese sticks
fruit	(oranges, bananas & grapes)
chips	granola bars
lunch meat & cheese	8 oz. water and juices

Some of these items can easily fit into their backpacks.

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks.

Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

Tips for water safety

As the weather heats up, children and their families are drawn to the cool water pools, ponds and the ocean offer. Parents and caregivers should keep a few safety tips in mind when children are near water. Watch children at all times, keep weak swimmers and younger children within arm's reach at all times. At parties or crowded gatherings, choose a water watcher — a trusted adult in charge of watching swimmers and rotate responsibilities as needed. Drowning is a leading cause of death for children, but it can be prevented. For more tips, visit safekids.org/poolsafety.

Saint James Preschool

The children attended a very special Chapel lesson on a recent Sunday while their parents celebrated Mass. They listened to a story called, Happy Spring, about a garden that wakes up in springtime to new life.

They created colorful butterflies and they sang a song called, The Butterfly Song, about all the wonderful things in our world.

It was a fun and spiritual hour.

Thank you God for new life and butterflies.

Holy Hour Adoration

May 13th 7pm

*"Come to Me all of you
who are weary
and find life burdensome
and I will refresh you..."*

This Week's Topic: The Word of God

The ancient West Bank city of Jericho, known for being one of the first walled cities, (as Joshua and the Israelites would attest), sits low in the Jordan Valley. Many sources agree that Jericho is in fact the oldest continuously settled and geographically lowest city on Earth; a remarkable place.

Also remarkable is Luke's Gospel, which relates a parable that occurred just outside this historic settlement, when a blind man repeatedly cried out in absolute desperation to Jesus of Nazareth who was passing by. We know the unfolding sequence of events. Hearing the persistent pleas, the Savior asks, "What do you want me to do for you?"

By his insistent, unwavering, immutable belief, the man received his sight. "Your faith has saved you." The scriptures, the inspired word of God, continue to speak to us across millennia, offering good news, guidance, and the means of salvation, particularly in evidence now, within the season of the path to life that Easter represents. Pope John Paul II wrote: "Sacred scripture is a sure guide, when it is read, welcomed, and meditated upon..."

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, whose 270 members or so, each reportedly average 2 hours of prayer each day give us, as part of their discussion of the Bible, this week's essential inquiry: Q: What is God saying to me?

A: The Bishops, as part of their "joint exercise of pastoral functions on behalf of the Christian faithful" say that the books of the Old and New Testaments "shed light on each other". "Together, these Testaments help us to understand God's plan for human beings."

Pope Francis reminds that "The Catechism affirms that prayer should accompany the reading of Sacred Scripture."

He called the collaborative action of the Bible and prayer,

"...a dialogue with God. God passes continually, and through the scripture..."

Just as He passed by the blind man on the road to Jericho.

Prayer and Sacred Scripture:
Read, welcome, meditate

Could it be that God's image has become so soiled and distorted that it is hard for us to see it?

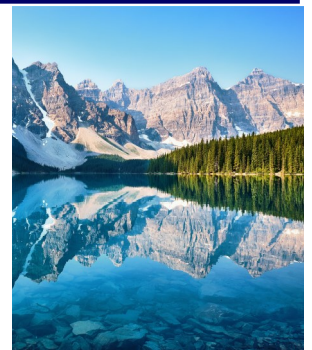

Our self-serving agendas have done a great job twisting God's image into what profits us. We want our agenda to be God's agenda and use prayer as the convincing leverage we need. Worse still, our success and egocentric agenda often erases God's image completely, replacing it with our own. St. Oscar Romero instructs us that the Son of Man "dies on the cross to cleanse God's image, which is soiled in today's humanity, a humanity so enslaved, so selfish, so sinful." Striving to preserve control of our destinies at all costs, we fail to see the risen suffering servant, the Christ, standing right beside us.

Jesus, who suffered and died on a cross and was raised from the dead, corrects our soiled image of God. He shows us God as God is, not who we want to make God to be. God is the God of the poor, the weak, and the marginalized. He is the God who tenderly caresses us when we are suffering and hurting, assuring us that all will be safe and well. He is the God of equity, peace, justice, and compassion who wants happiness for each of His children, desiring their wellbeing and success. God goes where men and women are afraid to go, sitting with the lost, the broken, and the sorrowing. St. Oscar Romero challenges us to illuminate with "Christ's light ... even the most hideous caverns of the human person: torture, jail, plunder, want, chronic illness. The oppressed must be saved." The resurrection calls us to be God's microphone, a messenger, and a prophet (St. Oscar Romero).

Using eyes that see beyond the limited constructs and desires of our world, we can see the true and real Jesus standing before us, calling us to transformation and change. Asking us more than once, "do you love me?" We are beckoned to give an answer. Answering in the affirmative, it is now our task to feed the sheep and the lambs who belong to God. In short, equipped with the power of the resurrection and a corrected image of God our task is to make things better, brighter, holier, more life-giving, and just for all of God's children. Considering our choices, our interactions, our philosophies, and aspirations, how can we do this?

Finally, brothers, whatever is true,
whatever is honorable,
whatever is just,
whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely,
whatever is commendable,
if there is any excellence,
if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.
