Pastor's Letter

Dear Members of our Parish Family,

Blessings on this wonderful Solemnity of Pentecost!

This feast day is sometimes referred to as the birthday of the Church, for it was on this day that the Holy Spirit was poured out on the initial group of disciples, inspiring them to step out courageously and begin proclaiming the good news. It was on this day that the first new converts were baptized into the community of faith. So happy birthday to us!

Pentecost is also the day which reminds us so powerfully that every human being, whatever our differences of race and language and life-circumstances, is a child of God, created in the very image and likeness of God, cherished by our Father, redeemed by the Son, and showered with grace by the Holy Spirit. The people gathered on that first Pentecost were a multicultural, multiracial, and multilingual assembly and – as the Acts of the Apostles informs us – each was blessed to hear the proclamation in their native tongue.

Pentecost manifests our core Catholic conviction that every human being is God's child, every human being belongs to God's family and has a God-given dignity that is to be respected. Our lives come from God. God loves us into being and puts us on this earth in this time and place with a role to play in God's plan. God wills the salvation of every person and Jesus sacrificed his life out of love for every person. As the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults reminds us,

Attitudes of prejudice and bias against any individual for any reason, as well as actions or judgments based on prejudiced or biased views, violate God's will and law. (U.S. Catholic Catechism for Adults, p. 326)

The violence and hatred directed at groups and individuals that we see in our society and in our world are abominable to God. In recent weeks, we have seen shootings in Buffalo motivated by vicious racism as well as the attack on the church in Laguna Woods which has been characterized as a "politically motivated hate crime." Most recently, we have agonized over the 21 persons shot and killed in Uvalde, Texas, 19 of them young children. While this does not seem to have been motivated by any prejudice, it does reveal an appalling disregard for the dignity of human life that warped the heart and mind of the perpetrator. Hate, prejudice, devaluing and disrespecting life, these are cancers of the spirit. These destroy. These attitudes and actions directly contradict not only the teachings but the very Person of Jesus who took our human nature upon himself and gave his life so that we might have life.

This feast of Pentecost, then, is a time for deep prayer and reflection. We pray for our society and our world that we might all finally come to appreciate and affirm our common humanity. We pray for an end to violence, whether it is directed at a child in the womb, or the violence of war, or the violence stemming from racist ideologies or any other form of hatred. As we do so, let us not simply worry about the splinters in the eyes of others (see Matthew 7:1-5), but also look within ourselves. In whatever ways we rashly judge, use hateful language, act out of prejudice, demean and put down others because of their race or language or background, in whatever ways we are infected by the excessive anger we see in our society that demonizes others, let us pray for the grace to repent and to be healed. For like those disciples at the first Pentecost, we are to proclaim God's love and live as witnesses to the truth that each person is precious in God's sight.

Blessings to you all,

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Join us after the noon Mass on June 12th for this blessing. The Anointing of the Sick "is not a sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. ## Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

It's hard to believe it, but our programs have ended for this school year! If you are interested in suggestions for family faith formation activities to do at home over the summer, please call the office. We will be happy to help you find resources that fit your family's needs. We continue to ask our parishioners to consider the call to serve as a volunteer or Catechist in one of our Religious Education programs. We are looking to grow our program offerings next year, but we cannot do that without extra assistance.

We can help you discern which program fits your gifts, so please contact the office so we can start you on the path to be prepared to minister with children next September.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration, and we hope that you find joy in your heart when you think about sharing your love for God with our children and their families!

God Bless!

Andrea Sullivan,
Director of Religious Education

Happy birthday to the Catholic Church!
Happy birthday to you, who are the body of the Church!

We're all familiar with our own birthdays, and we celebrate them because they mark the day of the year in which we entered into this life. But did you know you have a second birthday?

Because you are part of the body of the Church, Pentecost is the Church's birthday, and yours as well. And like any birthday, it's a cause for celebration.

God is Love and love is his first gift, containing all others. God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us..

The word Pentecost is Greek and it means "50th day." Fifty days after Easter Sunday, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and their followers, and the beginning of their Earthly ministry to make disciples of all nations.

The symbols of Pentecost are the flame, wind, and the dove, which represents the Holy Spirit. The color of Pentecost is red and the priest wears red vestments on this day. Parishioners are also invited to wear red on this day. Red decorations as well as celebrations are appropriate, similar to any other birthday.

Holy Hour Adoration

June 10th at 7pm

*"Come to Me all of you who are weary
and find life burdensome
and I will refresh you..."*

This Week's Topic: Angelic Reconciliation

On a recent Saturday, a penitent acknowledged several venial transgressions to his confessor, who wisely advised that this particular penance take the form of praying the Prayer of St. Michael.

Q: What can we begin to examine about temptation, sin, confession, and angelic intercession?

A: In his, Lives of the Saints, Reverend Alban Butler describes Michael in perpetual battle against sin:

"...the captain of the armies of God, (with) divine fortitude, the champion of every faithful soul in strife with the powers of evil. The Church has ever venerated St. Michael as her special patron and protector in her confession of sin; escort to the realms of holy light."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states:

"...the whole life of the Church benefits from the mysterious and powerful help of angels... who glorify God and serve His saving plans... (they) protect every human being..."

Speaking in an Angelus Address in 1999, Pope John Paul II, in a bottom line summary of the relevance and critical nature of these matters, said:

"The message of conversion and reconciliation as an indispensable demand of Christian love is more urgent than ever..."

That message of saving grace, faith, and the love of God is evident in the penitential Prayer of St. Michael:

*"St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil...
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray..."*

May we at St. James, and faithful souls everywhere, continue to journey humbly toward those realms of holy light.

No sin is new to him.
No wrongdoing too great.
Come to Confession and experience mercy and joy.

Confession is available
Saturday from 4-5 pm in Church

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection.

A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day ©LPI
