Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

St. James Property Development Update

The Parish Center property has been listed for us by the Archdiocese and they are coordinating the sale of the property.

Initial bids have come in from a few developers and I understand that others have indicated that they will be submitting bids as well. It is still too early in the process to comment on what is happening with the sale. We will be including in the sale of the property some lease-back provisions so that we can continue all of our programs through this coming school year.

We are just now receiving proposals from 3 experienced church facilities architects to be considered for the design of the new Parish Center on our "Community Campus" property.

We will be reviewing their proposals and meeting with them to discuss our project in the next few weeks so that we can select an architect who will best help us in this transition phase of our parish.

We are confident in the abilities and qualifications of the architects and so are excited that we are getting close to beginning to actually work on the design of the buildings and development of the property.

Blessings,

Mmgr. Mike

Parishioners Federal Credit Union was founded and chartered in 1961 thanks to the efforts of Monsignor J. Augustine O'Gorman of St. James Parish in Redondo Beach. ## Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations!

We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the months of the pandemic.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members.

We always need the following items:

hamburger buns	cheese sticks
fruit	(oranges, bananas &amp; grapes)
chips	granola bars
lunch meat &amp; cheese	8 oz. water and juices

Some of these items can easily fit into their backpacks.

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks. The above items can be dropped off M,W,F from 11-2pm at Kavanagh Hall.

Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Families, registration for Religious Education for the 2022-2023 school year is now open on the parish website! SaintJames.Church/RE

Whether your family has been involved in Religious Education for years or this will be your first time joining us, we are excited to welcome you into our program. When you visit our registration page, you will see that we have added a family faith formation experience for our families with children in Kindergarten.

You will also see that we have moved the time for our Junior High classes to Tuesdays from 4-5:15 instead of in the evenings.

Please call the Office if you have any questions. We will be happy to assist you.

Along with enrolling children in Religious Education, we are also in the process of recruiting and training Catechists and Aides to help serve in the classrooms next year.

Catechist isn't just a fancy word for teacher. A Catechist is someone who is first and foremost a witness to our faith, a person who knows the love of God and who shares that love with others. Yes, a Catechist teaches children about our faith, but they first echo the love of God in their lives and in the lives of others.

If you feel called to share the love of God with others, please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or email us at religiously@stjamesparish.org. We will provide you with training to be ready to serve as a Catechist or Aide this September.

The Religious Education Program has Catechists who serve in many areas, including in our Religious Education classes, our Sunday School program, and our Children's Liturgy of the Word program.

Our community needs your gifts. Please consider how the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve our parish during the coming school year.

God Bless!

Andrea Sullivan, Director of Religious Education

This weeks Topic: Seek His Kingdom

The summer of 2022.

It's a season of longer days marked by work, play and travels, perhaps amid the now second-nature search in pocket or purse for a mask. As we continue to face the obligations, tasks, appointments and demands on our time, we may experience moments of uncertainty, almost as a whirlwind about what we can accomplish. One may even have searching questions that seek a kind of daily motivational philosophy of action.

Q: How does our Catholic faith provide daily direction?

A: The Catechism of the Catholic Church helps in clarifying Catholic foundational and motivational beliefs:

Paragraph #1724-

"The Decalogue, the Sermon on the Mount, and the apostolic catechesis describe for us the paths that lead to the Kingdom of heaven. Sustained by the grace of the Holy Spirit, we tread them, step by step, by everyday acts."

#1718- "...in seeking you, my God, I seek a happy life..."

#1719- "The Beatitudes reveal the goal of human existence, the ultimate end of human acts..."

This is our faith, part of the essence of the living and actionable philosophy of Catholicism. And as St. Paul wrote: "Philosophy without religion is a vain thing." Pope Benedict talked about a time to: "...reassess priorities and reflect on how to live out faith with eternity in mind."

The Saint James Choir sings a song that also touches on our daily directional choices. It's a song based on Matthew Chapter 6, which speaks to us across centuries of faith:

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all things shall be added to you. Alleluia."

As we grapple with the myriad of life's realities, graces and challenges, trying to do our best while juggling the economy of time choices, we may constantly ask ourselves:

What's on the calendar?
Is that appointment today?
What should I do first?
Do I have time?

Goodness! What time is it?

The Book of Hosea gives us a clarifying, validating bottom line in Chapter 10:

"...it is time to seek the Lord."

Seeking God first in our daily choices... sustained by the grace of the Holy Spirit...step by step... with eternity in mind.

"Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God's unexpected gifts.

Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis)." While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the "details" of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!
