Pastor's Letter

Mission Appeal Supporting:

Clinica Santa Maria de Guadalupe, A.C., Mexico

My name is Rev. Rudy Valenzuela. I founded Holy Spirit parish and Clínica Santa María de Guadalupe 15 years ago in one of the poorest and most desolated areas in San Luis Rio Colorado, Sonora, Mexico. I am a member of Friars of the Sick Poor of Los Angeles, a Public Association of Consecrated Life, based in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and serving various healthcare and education-related ministries.

In 2020, and while other private and public healthcare institutions were not taking patients with COVID-19, the clínica provided healthcare services to over 45,000 patients at low or no cost, taking care of those affected by the COVID-19 virus.

Also, throughout 2020 & 2021, parishioners and other people of good will have organized themselves to deliver weekly food items to about 30 families living in the periphery of San Luis, thus alleviating some of the financial burden that affected many families, especially those more vulnerable.

Throughout the year, the community has continued to provide spiritual assistance and daily mass via internet. We held outdoor burial services for the dead, and assisted the sick with the sacraments following the recommended health protocols as insomuch the circumstances allowed. Since the end of last year, the church has opened its doors to limited numbers of parishioners, especially to celebrate the sacraments of initiation for the couple of hundred children and young adults who were not able to receive them last year, as well as daily and Sunday Masses.

Needless to say, things have changed and life will never be the same as this pandemic has affected us greatly. The increase of non-paying patients, the additional financial burden and need for more medical supplies and equipment to protect patients and medical staff, the worsening local and national economy, and the increased unemployment rate in Mexico have all resulted in an increased struggle to provide much needed healthcare and spiritual services to the poorest of the poor.

Thank you in advance for your prayers and support of this mission.

Yours in Christ,

Rev. Rudy Valenzuela, FSP

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations!

We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the months of the pandemic.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members.

We always need the following items:

hamburger buns	cheese sticks
fruit	(oranges, bananas &amp; grapes)
chips	granola bars
lunch meat &amp; cheese	8 oz. water and juices

Some of these items can easily fit into their backpacks.

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks. The above items can be dropped off M,W,F from 11-2pm at Kavanagh Hall.

Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Families, registration for Religious Education for the 2022-2023 school year is now open on the parish website! SaintJames.church/RE

Whether your family has been involved in Religious Education for years or this will be your first time joining us, we are excited to welcome you into our program. When you visit our registration page, you will see that we have added a family faith formation experience for our families with children in Kindergarten. You will also see that we have moved the time for our Junior High classes to Tuesdays from 4-5:15 instead of in the evenings.

Please call the Office if you have any questions. We will be happy to assist you when we return from our break on August 15.

Along with enrolling children in Religious Education, we are also in the process of recruiting and training Catechists and Aides to help serve in the classrooms next year.

Catechist isn't just a fancy word for teacher.

A Catechist is someone who is first and foremost a witness to our faith, a person who knows the love of God and who shares that love with others. Yes, a Catechist teaches children about our faith, but they first echo the love of God in their lives and in the lives of others.

If you feel called to share the love of God with others, please contact the Office of Religious Education at 310.379.3221 or email us at religioused@stjamesparish.org. We will provide you with training to be ready to serve as a Catechist or Aide this September.

The Religious Education Program has Catechists who serve in many areas, including in our Religious Education classes, our Sunday School program, and our Children's Liturgy of the Word program.

Our community needs your gifts. Please consider how the Holy Spirit is calling you to serve our parish during the coming school year.

God Bless!

Andrea Sullivan, Director of Religious Education

This weeks Topic: Do This in Memory of Me

Q: In thinking about the words of Jesus and the everlasting gift of the Eucharist during the Church's current renaissance in appreciation of the sacred mystery of body, blood, soul and divinity, what can we more fully appreciate?

- The St. James Choir never ceases to celebrate the bread of life and the cup of salvation. A Bernadette Farrell song highlights these as our, "hope for the world..."
- In Luke's Gospel, the faithful and busily practical Martha of Bethany learned from Jesus the value of what Pope John Paul II called "the enduring mysteries of the mission of Jesus... the resurrection and the life..." The Pope wrote: "The paschal mystery is summed up in those words addressed to a woman."
- Among the decades of the Rosary we pray about and unceasingly celebrate the Fifth Luminous Mystery - "The Institution of the Eucharist."
- The Catechism of the Catholic Church also quotes St. John Paul II who wrote beautifully about the abiding essence of the Eucharist: "The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let our adoration never cease."
- Fittingly, the very word Eucharist, derives from the Greek, eucharistia, for "thanksgiving."
- Thankful for the gifts he has given us we continue to proclaim, with increased praise and adoration, that ever-present "hope for the world."
As our faith tells us:
"Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb."

This is the day
the Lord has made,
let us rejoice
and be glad.

Ps. 118:24

An inward transformation occurs in a person who decides to follow Jesus Christ. Things change. They see the world differently, understand their journey more deeply and profoundly, have their sights fixed on eternity and union with God and hold themselves to higher standards and virtues. It requires a conscious choice to be a Christian, and this choice must be renewed at least daily. While the basic premise of Jesus' message may appear heartwarming and straightforward: love of God, neighbor, and self, the implications of doing so are challenging. The true disciple is called to live radically, and often finds themselves at odds with the world or even with those in their own homes.

Holding ourselves to higher standards comes with a price. We have to leave other things behind. It is difficult to be people of faith, hope, and love in a world often fixated with its own fulfillment and self-absorption. Justice, temperance, prudence, and fortitude require sacrifice if they are to be lived with integrity. God's ways are not ours. This becomes crystal clear to those who have enough courage to stand against the tide. Putting love into action requires that we challenge accepted modes of doing business and fight complacency. This is what makes the saints stand out as witnesses. They are simply sinners, just like us, who persevere.

People do not want to be told that they're sailing their ships in the wrong direction. Clinging to their insistence and need to be correct, they can become defensive when challenged. This can happen even with those closest to us. As much as the Gospel calls us to unity, it also can easily create division. When we love seriously, we encounter more than feelings of warmth and acceptance. "What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has the feet to hasten to the poor and needy. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of men. That is what love looks like (St. Augustine)." Love also has the courage and honesty to tell people what they may not want to hear but need to, and model, without wavering, a life of humble, loving, and faithful service. Don't lose heart! There are many examples of faith before us and around us. If Jesus endured the voices of opposition, so too can we. There is no need to apologize for speaking the truth.
