Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Harvest Festival, Ramirez Farewell, Grandparents' Day. Fr. Paul

There are 4 items for our article this week.

Harvest Festival

We are happy that our festival is back in full swing this year. The dates have been moved up a little and this year the Harvest Festival will be the weekend of October 7, 8 & 9. That means that requests for donations for the Silent Auction and Book Store are needed. The tickets for the BIG RED OPPORTUNITY DRAWING are available at the school this week. Next weekend we will announce the details of presale raffle, ride and game tickets.

Farewell Reception for Deacon Mark & Louise Ramirez

Next weekend, September 17 & 18, after all the Masses we will have a reception area set up outside the parking lot door of the church where you will have the opportunity to greet Deacon Mark and Louise before they leave for their new home in Colorado. Both Mark and Louise have been such a wonderful blessing to St. James for the past 22 years. Our prayers and blessings go with them.

Grandparents Day

This Sunday is the national celebration of Grandparents Day. We honor all our grandparents—young and old—for the wonderful witness of faith, hope and love that you give to your families and to our community. Our Grandparents Blessing Prayer is in this bulletin.

Fr. Paul Kuunuba available

Father Paul has now acclimated a bit to his first visit to the United States on his sabbatical. He recently finished his studies in Rome where he received his Master's Degree in Spiritual Theology. He will be with us until the end of the year when he will return to his diocese in Ghana, West Africa. His schedule is open and as he is not able to drive in the U.S., he would enjoy getting to know you and sharing a meal or seeing the sites around Southern California.

See him after Masses or call the parish office.

Blessings,

Mmgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Save the weekend of September 17-18

We want to thank Deacon Mark and Louise for all that they have done for our parish and for their prayers, support and friendship throughout the years here at St. James. On Sept. 17th and 18th we'll be providing an opportunity for you to greet and thank them.

Got Voice?

St. James Choir is looking for singers, especially Sopranos (the highest voice part). If you are interested in joining the choir, please see Kevin Babuder, Director of Music, after a 10am or 12pm Sunday Mass. The St.

Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.
And maybe you are worried that you won't be welcome here.
We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

When you attend, you'll have a chance to hear powerful music, learn from authentic Catholic clergy, and grow in faith.

Learn to be the holy, healthy, vibrant person that God has created you to be. Learn to use your gifts to make a difference in the lives of others.

Maybe God is calling you back.
Just as you are.
Welcome home.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Confirmation Nights

Year 1: Sunday, September 11th

Year 2: Sunday, September 18th

This Sunday, September 11th, we kick off the start of this new Confirmation year as we welcome our Year 1 candidates who are about to embark on a journey toward encountering Christ.

In preparation for this upcoming year, our adult core team participated in a powerful team training that primarily focused on effective ways to walk alongside our teens in their faith journey. Not only did we find ways to encourage our teens, but we were also able to nourish our own hearts in prayer. We're so excited to bring everything back to ministry here at St. James and continue strengthening our young church!

Please join us in prayer for both our teens & our youth ministry team as we kick off this new year ahead.

If you have any questions on registration, joining our team or any future youth ministry events, please feel free to contact us at the information provided below.

Prayer for Grandparents

*Lord Jesus, you were born of the Virgin Mary, the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne.
Look with love on grandparents the world over.*

Protect them!

May they continue to be for their families' strong pillars of Gospel faith and teachers of wisdom and courage that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience.

Help families and society to value the presence and roles of grandparents. May they never be ignored or excluded, but always encounter respect and love.

Accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen

This Week's Topic: Faith in Action

On a humid evening in late August, a newly-acquired relief pitcher for the Los Angeles Dodgers stepped onto the mound, looking to close out a ninth inning lead. Visible on his glove as he leaned in to take a sign was a handwritten notation of a Bible verse. It was Romans 8:39, drawn from Paul's longest letter to the Christians in Rome, all about foundational faith and the saving power of God for all believers.

Q: What is the significance of Paul's letters from circa 56 A.D. referenced on a baseball glove in Citi Field, Queens, New York City, more than one thousand nine hundred years after they were received in Rome?

A: The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches about the enduring Good News, wherein the believer's act of faith:

"...permit us to express the faith and to hand it on, to celebrate it in community, to assimilate and live on it more and more. Faith is an authentically human act; trusting in God and cleaving to the truths he has revealed...possible only by grace and...the Holy Spirit.

Pope St. John Paul II wrote in the winter of 2000: "We must tell the good news to all who are willing to listen."

Now of course, baseball is not actually found in the Bible, though in Genesis 1 we find what happened "In the big inning..." Seriously, in the Book of Job we find in Chapter 9:33 that good and well-tested man of God asking about an arbiter to stand between himself and his God. In some versions of that passage, the word, "arbiter" is replaced by the term, "umpire." It really is.

In the Catholic New American Bible Revised Edition, (available in our Gift Shop), Job 9:33 says "arbiter."

In the One Year Bible Catholic Edition, which includes the New Revised Standard Version, Job 9:33 actually says, "There is no umpire between us..." Another reading has it as: "Would that there were an umpire."

Well, our pitcher's fidelity to the Word in his evangelical messaging amid an athletic setting promotes the Good News in a unique setting. This particular part of the Bible reflects not only the staunch drive and unwavering focus and dedication of an athlete, but reflects an even higher dedication to persevere in a faith that offers eternal life. That chapter and verse on the glove from Romans 8:39 says:

"For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

The Catechism teaches that we can celebrate and cleave to the revealed word of God individually, or in an ecclesial setting, or even among a community of baseball fans. Go Dodgers!

Since God created human beings, we have struggled to keep our focus on God. We wrestle with the question of "who is God" and foolishly believe some of God's job description can be better completed by us. We wander in different directions, lose our way, think that happiness can be found elsewhere and even construct golden calves to worship. Are we simply too independent or just blatantly stubborn? It's a good question to ask. Even with all of our silliness and distractions, God compassionately and patiently waits. He lets us assert our wills and knows that perhaps one day we will actually wake up and realize how lost we are.

"Since happiness is nothing other than the enjoyment of the highest good and since the highest good is above, no one can be made happy unless he rises above himself, not by an ascent of the body but of the heart. But we cannot rise above ourselves unless a higher power lifts us up ... Divine aid is available to those who seek it from their hearts, humbly and devoutly; and this means to sigh for it in this valley of tears, through fervent prayer (St. Bonaventure)." One of the biggest human struggles is discerning what, exactly, is the highest good. We are ordered to achieve it but if we pursue it with clouded vision, we will never truly find it.

One of the greatest obstacles to God's power and love is a stubborn, closed heart of stone. When we are fiercely determined to set our sights elsewhere for happiness or simply ride the popular currents of the day, we will never satisfy the deep ache and longing within. We know that ache well. It is precisely why we scurry all over the place, attempting to find the next best thing to take away its pain. Nothing in the created world ever can or will. We continue our journey. One day, people may wake up and realize that they are grazing in the wrong pasture and putting themselves in harm's way. When this awakening occurs, it will be a most joyous day as we will see God's wide-open arms waiting to receive us. "Lead me, Lord, in your path, and I will enter in your truth. Let my heart rejoice that it may fear your name (St. Bonaventure)."
