Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

This week I will be leading a pilgrimage to Oberammergau, Germany for the Passion Play which has been performed there since 1634, since it was spared from the Black Death plague which killed about 60% of the population of Europe and the rest of the world. The play is performed every 10 years, but was delayed because of our own Covid plague.

There will be 43 pilgrims joining me, many of them from St. James. We look forward to this unique and moving event as we experience in a special way so many people in the gospels whose lives were changed because of their encounter with Christ.

We will be attending the play on Thursday, September 29th and returning on October 1st. Please keep our pilgrimage in your prayers.

Blessings,

Mmgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Our daily Mass is at 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward.

Our Saturday Mass is at 8am. Help others attend Mass and receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host.

Many persons are Interested in attending, but may lack transportation.

For those unable to attend Mass, please assist them in setting up their computer or iPad or phone to watch the Mass on YouTube. Visit SaintJames.church for the link.

Reach out to those who have been away, and check on their well being.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

We encourage you to worship together as a family on Sundays during our 10am Family Mass. CLOW uses the Children's Lectionary (shorter, simplified readings tailored to little listeners!) and features a homily specifically addressed to young people.

CLOW will start again on October 9th.

About Children's Liturgy of the Word

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be available at the 10am . Masses in the Parish Hall. This important ministry invites children to participate in Sunday worship and hear a reflection at an age appropriate level.

Children, ages 4-8, are invited to attend. Children's Liturgy of the Word is considered "church" even though the children are dismissed from the larger congregation for the Liturgy of the Word.

We provide sacred space for them to worship together with their peers. The children learn how to walk in a procession, sit quietly to listen to the Gospel story, prayerfully reflect on God's Holy Word with the adult leader, and then offer their own Prayers of the Faithful.

They, then process back into church to sit with their family for the rest of the Mass.

Process during Mass

After the opening prayer at Mass, the Presider will invite the children to the front of the church for a blessing. The children process from Mass to Kavanagh Hall. Parents are always welcome to attend with their children.

Leaders

We are currently looking for leaders and teen volunteers to help with this ministry. The leaders for the Liturgy of the Word for children receive special training and resources. We will have two adult leaders who prepare for this special ministry with children.

Each Liturgy of the Word leader must have a current VIRTUS certificate prior to working with the children and must be fingerprinted by the Archdiocese.

Children's Liturgy of the Word is offered on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 10am Mass.

Please check the bulletin for details.

About Candles

St. James is one of the few remaining churches in the South Bay that uses real candles. Light has always had a special significance because it represents Christ. These candles are seen as an offering that indicates we are seeking some favor from the Lord or the saint. Lighting a candle for someone is a way to both extend your prayers and show solidarity with the person the prayer is being made on behalf of. The faithful also light candles as a sign of gratitude to God for answered prayers. Candle donations are not expected of the poor, but for those who are able to help offset the recent increased cost of these candles, the coin box is located below Mary's statue in the front of the church. Suggested donation is now $4. Adapted from Mercyhome.org/blog/sunday-mass/why-are-prayer-candles-used-in-the-catholic-church/

Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.
And maybe you are worried that you won't be welcome here.
We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

When you attend, you'll have a chance to hear powerful music, learn from authentic Catholic clergy, and grow in faith.

Learn to be the holy, healthy, vibrant person that God has created you to be. Learn to use your gifts to make a difference in the lives of others.

Maybe God is calling you back.
Just as you are.
Welcome home.

This Week's Topic: Grace Notes

When St. James Director of Music Kevin Babuder announces that the Adult Choir is currently seeking and welcoming new members, it prompts consideration of the role and the value of liturgical music.

In the Letter to the Ephesians, which scripture tells us is the great Pauline letter about the Church, St. Paul deals with the purpose of the Church.

He also deals with singing as part of the will and purpose of God and his Church, not only in Ephesus in Asia Minor, but the worldwide Church; (now including Redondo Beach). In Chapter 5 of Paul's Letter we read:

*"...be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns
and spiritual songs,
singing and playing to the Lord..."*

As part of a confident prayer of deliverance, Psalm 57 of the 150 Psalms, says:

"My heart is steadfast, God, I will sing and chant praise."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says:

"The musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value..."

The Second Vatican Council issued a document, Musicam Sacram, about the function of music in the liturgy. In this document music is defined as for

"the glory of God and the sanctification of the faithful...created for the celebration of divine worship..."

Pope Francis, a staunch proponent of the music of the Church, captures the essential elements of sacred music:

"Music has the ability to make a deep impression on moments in people's life..."

Never stop this commitment to music...

Your music and your song are a true instrument of evangelization..."

Notably, the now reigning King Charles III quotes Shakespeare about the divinity of music, in tribute to his Mother:

"May flights of Angels sing thee to thy rest."

The Patron Saint of musicians and music is St. Cecilia. In the Prayer to St. Cecilia we find:

"O gentle Cecilia, sweet voice and melody of the Heart of Jesus...teach us to sing to glories of God... Give us the voice to sing the "Ave" as you did... Pray for us as a martyr with a singing heart."

And as our Choir often harmonizes in joyous polyphony:

"How can I keep from singing?"

"If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead."

Regardless of how the message of faith is received, a total conversion of mind and heart is needed for it to take root and have meaning. It is easy to become complacent and comfortable with all that life can afford us. Life can become "all about me," preserving my livelihood and protecting my securities. Often, this drive can become so strong that we eagerly strive to protect our self-interests at the expense of others. Other people are necessary only to the extent that they are "useful" to us and profitable.

Merriam-Webster defines entitlement as "the belief that one is deserving of or entitled to certain privileges." In a world that pretends to offer us so many necessities, this is perhaps the greatest contemporary sin. When we feel "entitled" to something, even if it is perceived necessary, our relationships can get skewed. Unless we adopt a global vision of entitlement wherein everyone is entitled to the same things, we risk becoming extremely self-focused and selfish. All we care about is defending our rights and protecting our turf. This impulse can be so strong that we pursue it even at the expense of another. Is this what God intends for his children?

Holding on to this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no real concern to us. Relying on our own merits and becoming resilient to life's challenges, we replace the true and real God with the one we created ourselves. Jesus and the prophets before him have consistently reminded us of the dangers of wealth, ignoring the poor and the needy, and becoming too fiercely independent and arrogant.

Yet, we conduct our lives as if that message has never been preached. We give our faith a nod and never consider for a moment that we may be wrong in terms of what we see as important.

"The things that we love tell us what we are."
(attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas).

Ponder those words a bit and remember that when we leave this world and go to the next one, what we loved here is what we will look for there. What we sought here may not be there.
