Sunday Masses (Sat 5:30 pm) | Sunday 6:30 am, 8 ,10, 12 noon, 5:30 pm | Monday-Friday 8, 12 noon, Saturday 8 am

Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith.”
The Lord replied,
“If you have faith the size of a mustard seed,
you would say to this mulberry tree,
‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’
and it would obey you.” Lk. 17:5-6

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

This week we will be distributing baby bottles for donations for the Pregnancy Help Center.

Now is a good time to purchase Big Red Opportunity Drawing tickets for a chance to win cash prizes and support our SJS fundraiser.

I will be attending the Oberammergau Passion Play on Thursday, Sept. 29th and returning on October 1st.

Thank you for keeping our pilgrimage in your prayers as we offer our Masses and prayers for the St. James Community.

Blessings,
Msgr. Mike

Children's Liturgy of the Word

We encourage you to worship together as a family on Sundays during our 10am Family Mass. CLOW uses the Children's Lectionary (shorter, simplified readings tailored to little listeners!) and features a homily specifically addressed to young people.

CLOW will start again on October 9th.

About Children's Liturgy of the Word

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be available at the 10am Masses in the Parish Hall. This important ministry invites children to participate in Sunday worship and hear a reflection at an age appropriate level.

Children, ages 4-8, are invited to attend. Children's Liturgy of the Word is considered "church" even though the children are dismissed from the larger congregation for the Liturgy of the Word.

We provide sacred space for them to worship together with their peers. The children learn how to walk in a procession, sit quietly to listen to the Gospel story, prayerfully reflect on God's Holy Word with the adult leader, and then offer their own Prayers of the Faithful.

They, then process back into church to sit with their family for the rest of the Mass.

Process during Mass

After the opening prayer at Mass, the Presider will invite the children to the front of the church for a blessing. The children process from Mass to Kavanagh Hall. Parents are always welcome to attend with their children.

Leaders

We are currently looking for leaders and teen volunteers to help with this ministry. The leaders for the Liturgy of the Word for children receive special training and resources. We will have two adult leaders who prepare for this special ministry with children.

Each Liturgy of the Word leader must have a current VIRTUS certificate prior to working with the children and must be fingerprinted by the Archdiocese.

Children's Liturgy of the Word is offered on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at 10am Mass. Please check the bulletin for details.

Contact

If you would like to learn more about this ministry or about becoming a leader for the Children's Liturgy of the Word, please contact: Megan Pollard: meganpollard@sbcglobal.net, or call 310.489.5843.

Msgr. Mike and pilgrims in Germany.

Please remember to keep them in your prayers for a safe journey and return as they experience a deeper and meaningful spiritual experience as they participate in the re-enactment of the Passion of the Christ.

 PREGNANCY HELP CENTER Baby Bottles for your donations in support of the Pregnancy Help Center will be available on Sunday Oct 2nd. <https://phctorange.org/>

About Candles

St. James is one of the few remaining churches in the South Bay that uses real candles. Lighting a candle for someone is a way to both extend your prayers and show solidarity with the person the prayer is being made on behalf of or as a sign of gratitude to God for answered prayers. For those who are able to help offset the recent increased cost of these candles, the coin box is located below Mary's statue in the front of the church. Suggested donation is $4. Adapted from Mercyhome.org/blog/sunday-mass/why-are-prayer-candles-used-in-the-catholic-church/

Sunday School Enrollment

We're back! This year we are offering Sunday School during the 10am Sunday Mass to students ages 3 1/2 to 7 years old in the Red Room at the St. James Preschool. All current COVID-19 county guidelines will be followed during instruction.

For more information regarding the program, enrollment, and volunteering, please call the Religious Education office at 310.379.3221 and view the informational video at SaintJames.Church/Sunday-school. Thank you and we look forward to a wonderful school year!

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations!

We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the months of the pandemic.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members.

We always need the following items:

hamburger buns	cheese sticks
fruit	(oranges, bananas & grapes)
chips	granola bars
lunch meat & cheese	8 oz. water and juices

Some of these items can easily fit into their backpacks.

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks. The above items can be dropped off M,W,F from 11-2pm at Kavanagh Hall.

Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

This Week's Topic: Walking with a Purpose

In the summer of 2003 Pope John Paul II gave a homily that posed a direct question to all Christians.

Q: What is the vocation of a Christian?

A: The answer, he explained, is demanding but clear.

"The vocation of a Christian is holiness. It is a vocation that has its roots in baptism and is proposed anew by the other sacraments, and principally by the Eucharist."

Citing the Gospel of Matthew in a homily at a Mass in Gdansk, Poland, the Holy Father talked about words set down by St. Matthew which

"...express the fullness of our human vocation: to be like God, filled with love..."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, in the section called "Life In Christ", teaches:

"All Christians in any state or walk of life are called to the fullness of Christian life. All are called to holiness. The way of perfection passes by way of the Cross."

St. Gregory said:

"Christian perfection has but one limit, that of having none."

The Catechism offers assurance that we can move toward realization of greater holiness:

"It is in the Church that the Christian fulfills his vocation. From the Church he receives the Word of God, the law of Christ, the grace of the sacraments that sustain him on his way. From the Church he learns the example of holiness."

The Choir sings a lovely song of God's kingdom that offers directional hope as we strive to move in answering the call of vocational holiness:

"Lead me Lord, lead me Lord,
by the light of truth to seek and to find the narrow way;
lead me Lord, today."

As the Pope said about the dispositional attitude of holiness:

"Be like God, filled with love."

As adults, unless we are dealing with children, "obedience" is not a word we typically like to hear.

It often brings connotations of military protocols, deference to superiors at work, or conforming to laws and practices. In a culture that has learned to challenge authority, being obedient is understood more as something I "have" to do, not "want" to do. Do you ever see merit in wanting to be obedient? Encouraged to develop independent, self-sufficient egos and personas, we learn to focus on our own wills and merits as we strive for success and achieve a sense of well-being. Giving ourselves over to the will of another, especially when done blindly, can sometimes carry more risk than we are willing to take. Also, blindly following orders without any deference to ethics or morality can lead to atrocious crimes and violence against humanity.

St. Ignatius of Loyola states, "There are three sorts of obedience; the first, obedience when a strict obligation is imposed upon us, and this is good; the second when the simple word of the superior, without any strict command, suffices for us, and this is better; the third, when a thing is done without waiting for an express command, from a knowledge that it will be pleasing to the superior, and this is the best of all." St. Ignatius sees obedience as an act of love. When the person we are obeying genuinely has our best interest in mind, acting themselves with love and integrity, then what St. Ignatius says makes excellent sense. When mutual trust and a bond of love and respect are present, obedience can lead to freedom and truth.

We ask God to increase our faith. In other words, increase our trust that God knows best how to live and act in this world. We desire the same confidence, determination, and patience Jesus had that the fulfillment of God's vision would one day come. Nurturing a deep love of God and trusting in his providence, we obediently do what we know is pleasing to God: love, repent of sin, show mercy, be compassionate and fight injustice. As we willingly give witness to our faith, we do only what we are obliged to do, expecting nothing in return. Spared from the task of having to figure it all out for ourselves, we discover freedom.
