Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

More than anyone else in the world, we are a people of HOPE.

We trust in God's love for us and the plan that he has for our lives—a plan that is not hindered by the difficulties of life. Our faith gives us a resolve in the face of adversity to see beyond these momentary situations and know that God's saving work is still active in our lives and our world.

We, as children of God, have the opportunity and responsibility to continue that work of proclaiming the Gospel and evangelizing our community through that same faith, hope and love—working in our lives in each and every situation.

Take the time this week as we celebrate Thanksgiving to recognize the peace and joy of God's blessings in your lives and to affirm the goodness in people around you. Let your words and life be God's words and life for your family and friends to uplift them and heal them.

This Thanksgiving we give thanks to the Lord for you, the members of St. James, and the love of Christ living powerfully in your lives. May the gift of his Spirit continue to strengthen you and inspire you to become a source of hope and faith for your families and our community.

Blessings,

Msr. Mike

Psalms 1, 18, 34:1

Class will be held in Kavanagh Hall at 7pm.

Our parish priests visit our study when their schedules permit. If you are not able to participate in person you can also join us using Zoom. Please contact Donna Wilson: dwilson94@gmail.com

Come, share and participate in our Church Community.

The School of Prayer

The Holy Spirit inspired them. Israel sang them.

Christ himself prayed them, as did our Blessed Mother. At the heart of the Bible are the Psalms, prayers from God that help us to pray. In the Psalms: The School of Prayer, discover how these sacred hymns become our heartfelt response to God's loving and wondrous deeds for us.

In this 11-session Bible study, presenters Jeff Cavins, Tim Gray, and Sarah Christmyer show you how to establish a deeply personal dialogue with God through the Psalms. Learn how to meditate fruitfully on the captivating words of the Psalms using lectio divina and study the many ways the Psalms foretell the life and mission of Jesus.

Thanksgiving Mass

Our Mass on Thanksgiving will be at 9am.

We'll have a table for your food and wine to be blessed during this Mass.

We are especially thankful to be able to celebrate with our community during this special time of the year. We look back at all the blessings we've received this year and thank God for his Son's sacrifice to open the gates of heaven for us.

Reconciliation Service

We look forward to spending the Advent and Christmas season with you. As always, we'll prepare our souls for this by having a Community Penance Service.

Priests from neighboring churches will be available to hear your confession on Tues., December 13th at 7:30 pm in church.

Why wait?

We offer reconciliation every Saturday at 4 pm in church. Feel the amazing power of God's love in this sacrament.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development Next Weekend

"Remember the time of hunger in the time of plenty, poverty and want in the day of wealth." Sirach 18:25

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ "... to bring glad tidings to the poor ... liberty to captives ... sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

The belief that those who are directly affected by unjust systems and structures have the best insight into knowing how to change them is central to CCHD. CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out. Next weekend envelopes will be in the pews. Thank you for your generosity. Visit www.usccb.org/cchd for more information.

Advent: Stillness, Anticipation, Hope

A Saint James parishioner and her friend were shopping. The parishioner bought an Advent Calendar, an Advent Wreath, and Advent Candles. The friend, a non-Catholic, noticed these purchases and asked about them. The parishioner began to explain how these items were representative, outward elements of a particular liturgical season.

Q: How does the Church define Advent?

A: Pope St. John Paul II, speaking in a homily at a Mass in 2002, explained the ethos of Advent with a single word: "Watch." He spoke about the admonition that Jesus addresses to us in Mark 13:33 and how that scriptural-based spirit of watchfulness is the basic message of the Advent season: "...to be vigilant while waiting for the Messiah..."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church underscores the relevance of the spirit of Advent to our lives today:

"The Church, especially during Advent and Lent and above all at the Easter Vigil, re-reads and re-lives the great events of salvation history in the "today" of her liturgy." That relevant, rejuvenative spirit is part of the essence of Advent.

The publication "Partners in Faith" offers a brief, cogent summary of the season of Advent:

"During this season, we anticipate Christ's birth,(our parishioner's Advent Calendar), and his coming on the last day. Catholics around the world light candles,(her Advent Candles), in an Advent wreath, (her purchased wreath), to signal the coming of the light of Christ."

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops: "The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and to the anniversary of our Lord's birth at Christmas. Our Advent readings call us to be alert and not weighed down and distracted by the cares of this world."

That element of life's distractions calls to mind a quote by St. Augustine in Latin: "Timeo Iesum transeuntem." (I fear that Jesus will pass by me unnoticed.)

The word Advent comes from the Latin ad+venire, which the Catholic News Agency tells us means, essentially "To come to," or "to come toward." Ad+venire is the root of the Latin "Adventus" which means "arrival."

Monsignor Mike spoke in a recent 10 am homily about the arrival of a new liturgical year with the 1st Sunday of Advent on Sunday November 27.

Each year, our Choir captures musically soulful reflections of the feelings and imagery of Advent. Here from a Dan Schutte composition:

"Beyond the moon and stars, as deep as night, so great our hunger, Lord, to see your light.

The sparrow finds her home, beneath your wing, so may we come to rest where angels sing."

To see your light... As Pope Francis said:

"Advent is an incessant call to hope..."

It's not unreasonable to think that if God wanted to make a statement he could do so in a very dramatic way.

After all, he spoke through a burning bush that didn't actually burn, parted the Red Sea, sent manna to the Israelites from the sky, cured lepers, healed the sick and cast out demons. All of that is pretty dramatic stuff, and they made statements!

Now, Jesus hangs dying on a cross. He has been referred to as a king. Considering all of the miracles Jesus did in his short time on earth, isn't one more in order?

If Jesus came down off of the cross, defied death, and parted the waters of suffering and death, onlookers, believers and unbelievers alike, would take notice. It would prove who God is and show us what God wants us to do. Or would it?

Great spiritual masters remind us not to focus on miracles or consolations received from God. They can distract us. Doing anything other than what Jesus did would distract humanity as well, misplacing our focus. It's not about a miracle, at least not the dramatic kind people are eager to see. It's about something more profound. It all goes back to where it began for the earthly Jesus. God becomes one with humanity in Jesus Christ. All that goes into being human is holy and blessed, and that becomes a place where God is born, again and again. God, through Jesus, tells us to hold firm to all of the experiences of being human, the joys and the wonders, the disappointments and the failures.

God's lesson is found in Jesus' vulnerability.

It is only when we are vulnerable that we learn how to love. When Jesus breathed his last, God's unconditional and tender love was realized. Jesus always had a soft spot for the weak, lost, vulnerable, and broken. God wants us to come to Him freely, not because we have witnessed some fantastic display of prowess.

God desires that we find Him through who we are, as our hearts and souls direct. This will mean that our love is authentic as it will be born of the heartache, pain, and turmoil that are a part of life. The fragments of our lives need to be made whole. Our fragmented king, Jesus Christ, is the only one who can help put the pieces together.
