Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

This Advent season awakens something special within us.

We first start to be aware that something is missing in our lives and our world, that there must be more to life than what is happening around us. These feelings are the calling we have to live a better and fuller life.

This 3rd Sunday of Lent, marked by the lighting of the pink candle, is a call for hope for our lives. We are reminded of God's creative hand in our world and the great love He has for us. We renew the holy in us, reconnecting us to God and affirming in a powerful way the meaning and purpose of our lives.

Our hearts find hope and an anticipation of good things to come—not in flashing lights, presents and parties, but the deep-felt awareness that in Christ, we are whole and we are most fully real. We are created to be holy and in Christ the reality of our holiness renews us.

In a most wonderful way during this 3rd week of Advent we have two special Reconciliation services to help us reclaim our lives and encounter the healing grace of Christ that renews the love of God in us and the real meaning of who we are. The opportunity to go to Confession is a real and powerful experience.

On Monday evening, Dec. 12th the Reconciliation service will be at American Martyrs Church at 7pm. On Tuesday, Dec. 13th at 7:30pm it will be here at St. James.

If you have been struggling at all with life and where your heart is and things that overwhelm us, these evenings are what God wants most for you to experience.

There will be plenty of priests at each service ready to pray with you and over you and it will be the most precious gift you give to yourself and your family.

Blessings,

*Mmgr. Mike, Fr. Thaddeus,
Fr. Jim, and Fr. Paul*

Maybe you grew up Catholic.
Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step..

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.

But not sure for what.

We get it.

We've been there.

Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.

Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Advent: Prayer, Fortitude, Humility

In his Sunday 10 am homily, Monsignor Mike talked about life's difficulties present at the time of the 8th century Israelite prophet, Isaiah. He pointed out that, similarly, our own busy days find us experiencing a panoply of joys, sorrows, and life challenges.

Q: As we wait and watch for the fulfilling grace of this season of Advent, can we pause to consider some brief examples of direction from the word of God and by the example of the Saints, all amid a multi-faceted Catholic faith that grounds us and guides our spiritual outlook, as we work through the vicissitudes of life?

A: Monsignor Mike firstly offers a particular foundational prayer for God's compassion which offers a welcome equilibrium of essential guidance and peace:

"Almighty God... I ask you...to sanctify my thoughts and endeavors, that I may never begin any action without a pure intention, nor continue it without your blessing..."

Philippians 2 holds many guiding principles of the good news that exhort the faithful to adhere to the bottom line of humility as we make our way through a life of faith:

"Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves..."

And in 1 Peter: "...clothe yourselves with humility toward one another..."

The words and teachings of Jesus and the Holy Bible offer supreme guidance to an uncertain world. Our Choir harmonizes some of these directional words in music:

"Your words are spirit and life, O Lord: richer than gold, stronger than death. God's love is perfect, refreshing the soul, reviving the weary spirit..."

The Saints provide shining examples of fortitude, perseverance, and positive spiritual navigation in challenging times.

One such example comes from St. Bonaventure, who, when elevated to the office of Cardinal, was offered the Cardinal's pastoral hat just as he was in the process of washing dishes at a convent near his Order near Florence.

He instructed the visiting delegation to please hang the hat on a nearby bush, take a walk, and allow him to finish his humble task at hand.

So it is, then, that in good times and bad we proceed in our endeavors, big and small, compassionately armed with prayerfully pure intentions, cloaked in humility and comforted by the grace and guidance of a loving, merciful God.

Life can leave us feeling dark and desolate.

Sandy was just twenty-eight when her husband, Rob, died, leaving her to raise their two young children. She was without paid employment. Rob went to work one morning and never returned home. Sandy, though, had faith and trusted that somehow God would help her through, even though most days brought deafening, piercing loneliness. She persevered, and the darkness gave way to light. Remarking one day to a friend hesitant to commit to a relationship, Sandy shared her wisdom. Even if she knew the outcome would be the same, she would marry Rob again. She assured her friend that she would even do this if eight years could only be eight minutes. We are being led by God and God transforms the darkness into light.

"Be strong, fear not!" Those are easy words to say. Putting them into practice is the challenge. When our paths are dark and life's roads become treacherous, we can easily complain about life's unfinished nature. When will the pain go away? Will the loneliness ever cease? Will I experience happiness again? As the farmer needs to exercise patience with the soil, we need to do the same with our lives. We have to wait for the early and late rains to come, properly tend to our gardens, and ensure that the rich nutrients of God's merciful and tender presence continue to enrich us. God is not done. God has only just begun his work in us.

We cannot allow life to hold us captive. The systems, agendas, protocols, regulations, expectations, and unfinished business can distract us from what it means to be God's child. Life can leave us feeling cheated, negative, and parched. All times and seasons of our spiritual and liturgical lives lead us to three virtues: faith, hope and love. Stop complaining about what is wrong and look to what God can make right! Joy that flows from the Baptist's message: in Jesus, the one mightier than he, are found healing, reconciliation, and freedom. Christ will save us from life's distortions, illusions, and disappointments. Do you believe this? ©LPi
