Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

When Mary was betrothed to Joseph,
but before they lived together,
she was found with child...
..the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her.
She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus,
because he will save his people from their sins.”

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

May the Lord bless you and your family during this sacred Christmas season.

As our special gift to you in these challenging times we again have a Matthew Kelly book for Christmas entitled "Holy Moments". In the wonderfully simple ways that Matthew Kelly captures life and its mysteries, he brings us to a new understanding of this journey we are on and reconnects us with the healing love of Christ that makes us whole.

We are reminded that Christ came into the world as healer of souls. He is our hope. He opens our hearts to know that He can heal us to become more beautiful and more loveable than ever before.

Matthew Kelly is a must read and we encourage you to pick up your copy of the book as you leave Mass this Christmas season.

Our community of faith at St. James gives us a strength we do not possess, the Word of Christ brings a hope beyond our reach and the Eucharist gives us the healing of our hearts and souls as only God can give.

This Christmas is a time we can no longer stay home, deepening our isolation. This Christmas, Christ is calling us back to bring His Peace into our hearts even in these uncertain times.

You need the community of Faith gathered together and the Eucharist of Christ present to nourish your soul to find the true 'normal' we long for.

We are not complete without you.
You are not complete without us.
Together, we are in Christ, made new.

To one and all, a very Blessed and Holy Christmas,

*Msgr. Michael Meyers
Fr. Thaddeus Agbasonu
Fr. Jim Kavanagh
Fr. Paul Kuumuba

May your family's Advent practices bring you closer to Jesus and to one another. Have a blessed Advent!

God bless!

A Cardinal Virtue

In this season of gift-giving, Pope Francis, reminds us of a spiritual gift which,

"despite our own natural weaknesses and limitations, is a gift which gives us the strength to do God's will."

He further pointed out that such a gift is "applicable not only in extraordinary circumstances, but as part of the patient pursuit of holiness in our daily lives,"

Q: What is this spiritual gift?

A: The gift is one of the cardinal virtues. The particular cardinal (pivotal) virtue that the Holy Father was referring to is Fortitude. The Catechism teaches that fortitude, "...strengthens the resolve to resist temptations and to overcome obstacles in the moral life. The virtue of fortitude enables one to conquer fear, even fear of death and to face trials..."

What a gift! The Catechism says that we are actually happier people when we practice virtue.

The discussion of virtue in the Catechism is extensive and insightful; well worth reading.

That discussion includes general human virtue; the theological virtues; and the specific gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit, but it all begins with the premise of just exactly what a virtue is. The Catechism presents a concise, foundational definition in Paragraph 1803:

"A virtue is an habitual and firm disposition to do the good."

Another, more layered, and beautifully lyrical description of all things virtuous comes from Philippians Chapter 4:

*"Whatever is true,
whatever is honorable,
whatever is just,
whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely,
whatever is gracious, I if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things."*

We think about the gift of fortitude, one of the Cardinal Virtues; worthy of praise as part of a patient pursuit of holiness.

"Sow a thought and you reap an action;
sow an act ion and you reap a habit;
sow a habit and you reap a character;
sow a character and you reap a destiny."
— Ralph Waldo Emerson

An entire town is wiped out by fire, a tornado rips through several neighborhoods, a bomb claims a maternity hospital and a sudden heart attack takes the life of a soul mate. Life is unpredictable and dramatic. Many buy into the sad illusion that the securities and familiarities we see around us today will remain forever: our homes, our friends, our spouses, our churches, and even our health. We are stunned and shaken by a sudden change, finding ourselves bewildered, mortified, and even embittered. We do not like change, especially change driven by sources beyond our control. Are there any guarantees in life? We often live as if our lives come with lifetime warranties. When they break, they can be fixed or replaced. Such is not the case. Many things are irreplaceable and unable to be fixed. During life's inevitable chaos, God says: "Do not be afraid." Seriously? How can one not be afraid when things are falling apart?

Fear is normal and it has a purpose. It is unrealistic, and somewhat unhealthy, to strive to live without any fear. Fear teaches us lessons and can be a catalyst to discovering more profound things. What we do with fear and how we understand it is critical. Fear can either cripple us or move us forward. God does not want fear to cripple us. If we look around at all that can change in our lives and consider what we might have to do, we can easily wallow in the mire of self-misery. Or we can step up to the challenge, as Mary did, and do what needs doing! We can stand tall, as did Joseph, and do the right and just thing! What gives us this courage? Faith.

God is with us. This is the focus of our Advent preparations. We need to be reminded that we are not in this alone. God not only made us and loves us, but God keeps us! In the person of Jesus Christ, God is the sign we need to persevere! Do not be afraid and do not be unbelieving! Hold fast to what God has done in giving us His only begotten Son. We do not have to anxiously attempt to control life's unpredictability. God has blessed us with the birth of His Son. Trust that He is with us and will not abandon us, even in death.
