Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

True story. After my father passed almost 5 years ago, my mom found it was more convenient and comfortable for her to sleep in the rocker-recliner chair in the den.

When she decided to de-clutter the house and give things to charity, she started collecting things and sorting them in her bedroom. Little by little the room got more and more things in it until it was almost full.

We tried to help, but mom insisted that she would take care of it herself, she just needed a little more time. The room got fuller and the bed was even out of sight. The task was now so big that she was overwhelmed, yet couldn't admit that she needed help. Even the thought of the bedroom was oppressive for her.

Then three months ago, mom fell and needed to be hospitalized for a couple days and a few more days in rehab. In 2 quick days my brother, sister and I went through the entire bedroom sorting and boxing things and got them out of the house to St. Vincent de Paul. When we told her what we had done, it didn't take long before she thanked us with tears in her eyes. A huge weight had been lifted from her.

Has it been over 10 years since your last Confession?
Have you forgotten all the prayers for it, including the Act of Contrition?
Have you shoved all your misdeeds back into a corner where they are out of sight and out of mind—yet somehow they still fester—and leave a dull pain in your heart and soul?
Does cleaning up the clutter of your life seem overwhelming? Congratulations!!
Lent has been custom-made just for you!

On Tuesday, March 28th there will be 12 priests here at St. James to hear Confessions. They will help you clean up and heal all the overwhelming clutter that sin has collected in your heart and soul. Their one goal is to help restore the beauty of God's love in you. This guided Penance Service will provide you with all the words and prayers you need.
No excuses. Make this your best Lent, ever.

Has it been less than 10 years since your last Confession?
Come on in. You'll blend in perfectly.
Blessings,
Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Session Two – The Journey of Faith

This ten week bible study explores "What We Believe - The Beauty of the Catholic Faith".

This video presentation is followed by discussion and Q&A plus prayer intentions.

Discover the Amazing Riches of the Catholic Faith!

What is the Catholic Church all about?

What does it mean to be Catholic?
What do Catholics actually believe?

The Catholic Church is extraordinary. Founded by Christ himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in his Word, his sacraments, and his saints.

The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation.

Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church.

If you are not able to participate in person you can also join us using Zoom. Priests participate in our study when their schedules permit.

Please contact Donna Wilson at dwilson94@gmail.com if you are interested in joining this study.

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

We are grateful for all of our families who gather this morning for our Religious Education Family Mass at 8am and for all the children who said yes to serve as liturgical ministers. What a blessing to have so many children and their families together today!

You can help our Feed the Needy Program by donating needed items, cleaning, organizing supplies, and writing cards to go into the lunches for the needy. Through our service together, we shine the Light of Christ, not just for those we help, but for ourselves and our families, helping us know more deeply what it means to love our neighbor as ourselves.

Parish families are also welcome to participate in the Religious Education program's annual Service Project for Lent, which is a collection of food and other items needed by our Feed the Needy Program.

Here are the requested items:

Catholic Q&A Topic: Lent: Blessings and Renewal

The Index of The Catechism of the Catholic Church lists over 125 entries about the nature and workings of Sin.

In a Sunday Homily, Father Thaddeus spoke about sin, the Lenten Season, and how we should be in a "ready mode" in order to identify and to resist sin.

Q: What helps us to achieve that mode of readiness?

A: Father advised that we entrench our spiritual efforts by way of the word of God.

In considering the big picture, the pillars of Lent: Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving, Catechism #540 states:

"By the solemn forty days of Lent the Church unites herself each year to the mystery of Jesus in the desert."

The Baltimore Catechism #3 says:

"...Can you watch and pray with Jesus?"

Pope Francis said,

"Lent is a privileged time for prayer..."

The Archdiocese of New Orleans states:

"Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving lead us to the heart of what Lent is about - a deeper conversion."

The Church teaches about Lent as a time of renewal as we seek a closer relationship with God, "a season of repentance and reflection" along the lines of the kind of discernment that Father Thaddeus was outlining in his homily.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops helps us focus on a key feature of Lenten conversion and redemption:

"Jesus entrusted the ministry of reconciliation to the Church. The Sacrament of Penance is God's gift to us so that any sin committed after Baptism can be forgiven. In Confession we have the opportunity to repent and recover the grace of friendship with God...with absolution we are reconciled to God and the Church."

As Father said, we can move away from sin by turning to the word of God. That Lenten preparatory outlook, that "ready mode" regarding sin includes conversion, repentance, and atonement.

Lent, a season of reconciliation; finding the grace of His friendship.

"Not by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God."

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion.

It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. You are not alone... hopeafterabortion.com/

When I became the pastor of a large parish, I soon found myself, for the first time in my life, riddled with anxiety, headaches, difficulty making decisions, and fatigue. I called a therapist friend and told her my symptoms and asked if she thought I needed a serious medical exam. She said, "How much water do you drink?" I told her, "I haven't had time to drink water lately." She responded, "You're chronically dehydrated. Drink eighty-five ounces a day and call me in a week." I started guzzling water and in a week all my symptoms went away. I felt great.

Like me, the people in the Exodus wanderings were dehydrated. But unlike me, they knew it. Their symptoms were bad. They fight with each other. They accuse God of being a monster who wants them and their children to die of thirst. Their thirst drives them to plot the bloody assassination of the man who rescued them. God responds by using Moses to strike a rock from which rivers of living waters flow to quench their thirst for years to come.

The Holy Spirit is the living water of love which flows from the pierced side of Jesus, the new Moses. What symptoms in your life suggest you're spiritually dehydrated? Anger at God? Cynicism at your leaders? Bitter rivalry and bickering with others? Don't panic.

Of course we have those symptoms. Ask God to provide his water to quench your spiritual thirst, and he will. And all those symptoms will soon disappear
