Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Making Lives Whole Again

When we have hurt someone or they have hurt us, we tend to pull away and create a distance between us and many times the reconnecting is difficult.

The same is true in our faith-life and our relationship with God. When we have made poor decisions or acted out in some less than good ways it stays with us and affects us deeply and often causes us to drift away from God. We may say that things are alright with us, but it's not. For many of us it is time to reconnect in a healthy way with the One who loves us the most and who simply wants us whole again.

On Tuesday, March 28th there will be 12 priests here at St. James to hear Confessions. They will help you clean up and heal all the overwhelming clutter that sin has collected in your heart and soul.

Their one goal is to help restore the beauty of God's love in you. The guided Penance --Service will provide you with all the words and prayers you need.

No excuses.

This Lent calls us to open our hearts to a wonderful Holy Moment.

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Remember the happiness of discovering life and all its mysteries?

God is calling you and wants you to experience His profound love for you and feel this joy again. Meet Him in Confession.

Maybe you haven't been to church in a while.
And maybe you are worried that you won't be welcome here.
We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.
Maybe God is calling you back.
Just as you are.
Welcome home.

Tuesday Night Bible Study

Join us on March 21st in Kavanagh Hall at 7pm for Session Three – God the Father, Creation, and the Fall

This ten week bible study explores "What We Believe - The Beauty of the Catholic Faith".

This video presentation is followed by discussion and Q&A plus prayer intentions.

Discover the Amazing Riches of the Catholic Faith!

What is the Catholic Church all about?

What does it mean to be Catholic?
What do Catholics actually believe?

The Catholic Church is extraordinary. Founded by Christ himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in his Word, his sacraments, and his saints.

The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation.

Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church.

If you are not able to participate in person you can also join us using Zoom. Priests participate in our study when their schedules permit.

Please contact Donna Wilson at dwilson94@gmail.com if you are interested in joining this study.

Come, share and participate

St. James Catholic School

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

This week, Monsignor Mike, Father Thaddeus, and Father Jim offered the Sacrament of Reconciliation to our students in grades 3 – 8.

Monsignor led a brief penance service with the Gospel and Music. Students then were able to meet with the priests and receive the Sacrament. Having the opportunity to receive the Sacraments during the season of Lent is one of the many blessings of a Catholic School.

Registration for the 2023 – 2024 School Year is open. Applications are available at the school, the preschool, the parish office, and on our website SJSCatholicSchool.org.

St. James has a Transitional Kindergarten Program for students turning 5 after the September 1st deadline. Full Day Program!

TK and Kindergarten families are invited to visit school with their child, visit the classroom and find out more about our program.

TK is a steppingstone and a bridge to begin your child's academic journey. Call or email to reserve a time.

Private tours are available by appointment for all grades.

A Catholic School Education is a gift and a blessing!

God Bless you,

Noreen Maricich, Principal

Catholic Q&A Topic: Forgiveness

The Third Sunday of Lent came on a day without measurable rain, yet it did impart a deluge of profound spiritual lessons.

There was a homily about the miraculous power of the gift and the exercise of forgiveness. There were scripture readings that included the Good Shepherd, present among both Israelite and Samaritan as the embodiment of a well of living water.

Luke's Gospel reading earlier this week solidified that theme of charitable forgiveness as we witnessed a lost son, found. All in all, it was a synthesis of inspirational catechesis, a wonderful affirmation of faith among the realms of forgiveness and love.

Sunday's Mass went a good measure in answering a question posed in John 13 this week:

Q: How will all know that you are my disciples?

A: This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.

In the Catechism of the Catholic Church we find in its Index: Love: See Charity.

Paragraph# 1889: "This is the path of charity, that is, of the love of God and of neighbor. Charity is the greatest social commandment. It respects others and their rights. Charity inspires a life of self-giving."

Catechism #2013: "All Christians ...are called ...to the perfection of charity. All are called to holiness."

That Third Sunday of Lent liturgy underscored Catechism #2011:

"The charity of Christ is the source in us of all our merits before God."

If only we love one another...

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion.

It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. You are not alone... hopeafterabortion.com/

God asks a rhetorical and slightly sarcastic question to Samuel, the prophet:

"How long will you grieve for Saul, whom I have rejected as king of Israel?"

Like us, Samuel is depressed that the old king failed. It's painful to admit that the old regime is done. But God won't let us wallow our pity-party forever.

"I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem," announces the Lord, "for I have chosen my king from among his sons."

Samuel finally goes and anoints the young David as the new king. And his kingdom is glorious; it's the golden age of Israel's earthly history.

How discouraging to see that my own selfish ego is no longer in charge!

How long will I grieve that money, power, pleasure, and reputation have been rejected as the ruler of my life?

How wonderful that God has a new future in store for you and me.

He is sending us to Bethlehem to anoint the new David as our king. His kingdom won't fail us.

He'll slay our goliaths, unite our dispersed energies, and build a Temple where God himself will dwell.

So how long will you grieve?

How long? — Father John Muir

O Lord, who may dwell in your sanctuary?
Who may abide on your holy mountain?
The one who leads a blameless life
and does what is right,
who speaks the truth from the heart
