Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Penance Services

On Tuesday, March 28th at 7:30 pm, there will be 12 priests here at St. James to hear Confessions. They will help you clean up and heal by Christ's forgiveness all the overwhelming effects that sin has collected in your heart and soul. Their one goal is to help restore the beauty of God's love in you. The guided Penance Service will provide you with all the words and prayers you need. This Lent calls us to open our hearts to a wonderful Holy Moment. See the schedule of Confessions for additional Penance services at St. Lawrence, Our Lady of Guadalupe and American Martyrs during the week.

Shroud of Turin

We will have a presentation on the Shroud of Turin this Wednesday, March 29 at 7 pm in Kavanagh Hall. It will include the history, scientific studies and significance of the Shroud for our faith. This timely presentation before Holy Week by Philip Tang will be an insightful experience of the passion of Christ through this sacred relic.

Palm Sunday

Next weekend is Palm Sunday and the beginning of HOLY WEEK. Each of our Masses will have the Blessing of Palms as we celebrate

Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem and the reading of the Passion of Christ at the Gospel. If you would like to carry one of the large palms in the procession, please be in church 10 minutes early for instructions.

*Msgr. Mike and
Fr. Thaddeus*

Brief Examination of Conscience Based on the 10 Commandments

1st - I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange Gods before me.

Have I treated people, events, or things as more important than God?

2nd - You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.

Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church, or people?

3rd - Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day.

Do I go to Mass every Sunday (or Saturday Vigil) and on Holy Days of Obligation (Jan. 1; the Ascension; Aug. 15; Nov. 1; Dec. 8; Dec. 25)?

Do I avoid, when possible, work that impedes worship to God, joy for the Lord's Day, and proper relaxation of mind and body?

Do I look for ways to spend time with family or in service on Sunday?

4th - Honor your father and your mother.

Do I show my parents due respect?

Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible?

Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have?

5th - You shall not kill.

Have I harmed another through physical, verbal, or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind?

6th - You shall not commit adultery.

Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and of myself?

7th - You shall not steal.

Have I taken or wasted time or resources that belonged to another?

8th - You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Have I gossiped, told lies, or embellished stories at the expense of another?

9th - You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse.

Have I honored my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love?

10th - You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

Am I content with my own means and needs, or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

Catholic Q&A Topic: Forgiveness

Among the more than 10,000 Saints celebrated by the Church, two notable exemplars of lives imbued with abiding, all-encompassing prayer have their Feast Day this week. These two lived in the second century in the city of Edessa in what was then Mesopotamia, but there was no spiritual middle ground with these two.

St. Abraham, a wealthy nobleman who became Bishop of Edessa, and his niece, St. Mary are examples of lives marked by humility, service, charity, spirituality, a brief fall from grace, redemptive conversion, and above all, the overarching power of prayer. Their specific story is worth reading.

In reflecting upon these saints, author Rev. Alban Butler wrote:

"Oh, that we realized the omnipotence of prayer!"

Q: What does The Catechism of the Catholic Church say about prayer and its omnipotent nature?

A: In the instructive and spiritual realm of over 225 index entries about prayer, (some of them poetically soaring), Catechism #2098 summarizes prayer as part of a life in Christ:

"The acts of faith, hope, and charity, enjoined by the first commandment are accomplished by prayer. Lifting up the mind toward God is an expression of our adoration of God. We ought always to pray and not lose heart."

In this prayerful season of Christ's Passion, our Choir, in a Taizé community chant format continues to sing:

*"Stay with me, remain here with me...
Watch, and pray...Watch and pray..."*

Pope Francis on prayer:

"When we pray, we pray to the same Father...when we pray we join the whole of the Church. Prayer makes us brothers and sisters."

Oh that we realized the omnipotence of prayer...

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion.

It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. You are not alone... hopeafterabortion.com/

Of all Jesus' miracles, the most unsettling might be when he made a dead person alive. We know of three times when he did so: a girl, a young man, and Lazarus. The miracle teaches us he has the power of life and death. He anticipates his resurrection. Sin hurts us. Some sin kills us, spiritually. The three miracles reveal to us that no matter our circumstances, Jesus can give life to us.

The three miracles are instructive of the three ways we feel dead. The little dead girl symbolizes sin before it has time to mature. She's in bed and, once alive, gets right back to her life. The young man is lying in his casket in a funeral procession. This is sin allowed to fester, to grow and become somewhat normalized. Once raised, he has a short walk back home. Lazarus, a full-grown dead man, lies wrapped in burial bands in the tomb. Once he is raised, much needs to be done. He'll need to remove those bands, find new clothes, and travel all the way back home. That is sin allowed to go all the way, unchecked for months or years. It's the most spectacular of the three and reveals Jesus' glory more than the others.

What hope that should give us, for us and those whom we love! Jesus knows our sin hurts us and can even kill us spiritually. No matter the extent of the damage, he is always ready for the miracle of making the dead fully alive.
