Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Easter Brings God's Healing Love

On this Palm Sunday we join with the crowd celebrating Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. "Hosanna to the Son of David" they and we shout! In the gospel we will share the way to Calvary, but we also know the end of the story is Resurrection and our salvation.

God's love, compassion and mercy for us is made real and moves our heart to celebrate a reality that the world cannot give us. This most holy week of the Church refocuses everything for us. This is not only consoling and hopeful, it is exciting. The real suffering comes from life without God and we now celebrate the healing of our entire being and real life given to us in the events of Easter.

Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Vigil will all be in the Church and we invite you to join us for this journey with Christ. On Easter Sunday morning our Masses are at 6:30, 8, 10 and Noon in the Church as well as a 9:30 am Mass in the O'Gorman Center at our school at 4625 Garnet St. at Anza in Torrance and a 10:15 am Mass in the Chapel of our 'Community Campus' property across Vincent Street in front of the church. This will be our first Sunday Mass in the Chapel, which seats 200, since we acquired the property in 2019. May our celebration of the risen Christ make us whole in mind, body and spirit. Gathered together we will celebrate the real Good News of our lives.

Remember that our 'Community Campus' parking lot is open for parking for Church every Sunday. The entrance to the lot is on Broadway, just south of Vincent Street and will be especially helpful for parking on Easter.

Until Easter,

Mmgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Parking for Mass at O'Gorman

Overflow parking for the 9:30am Easter Sunday Mass at the Saint James School - O'Gorman Center is at the Henderson Library Parking lot located at:

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support parishes, Catholic schools, and offer religious education in the Holy Land. It also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity including those in Jerusalem, Nazareth, Bethlehem and other locations. Please write 'Holy Land' in the memo field of your check or on the welcome envelope in the pew.

Thank you for your generous support!

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you
won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step..

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Most glorious prince of the heavenly hosts, Archangel St. Michael, defend us in the battle and in the tremendous struggle we carry on against the Principalities and Powers, against the rulers of the world of darkness and all evil spirits. Come to the help of man, whom God created immortal, fashioned to His own image and likeness, and rescued at a great price from the tyranny of the devil. With the great army of the holy angels fight today the battle of the Lord as thou didst of old fight against Lucifer, the leader of the proud, and his apostate angels, who were powerless against thee, and they had no longer a place in Heaven; and that monster, the old serpent who is called the devil and Satan, that seduces the whole world, was cast into hell with his angels.

But now that first enemy and homicide has regained his insolent boldness. Taking on the appearance of an angel of light, he has invaded the earth, and with his whole train of evil spirits he is prowling about among men, striving to blot out the name of God and of His Christ, to capture, to destroy, to drag to eternal perdition the souls destined to the crown of eternal glory. That malignant dragon is pouring abroad, like a foul stream, into the souls of men of ruined intellect and corrupt heart the poison of his wickedness, the spirit of lying, of impiety and blasphemy, the pestilent breath of impurity and of all vice and iniquity. Most cunning enemies have filled with bitterness and drenched with gall the Church, the Spouse of the Lamb without spot, and have lifted impious hands against all that is most sacred in it. Even in the holy place where the See of Blessed Peter and the chair of truth was set up to enlighten the world, they have raised the abominable throne of their impiety with the iniquitous hope that the Shepherd may be stricken and the flock scattered abroad.

Arise, then, unconquerable Prince, defend the people of God against the assaults of the reprobate spirits, and give them the victory. Holy Church reveres thee as its guardian and patron; it glories in thee as its defender against the malignant powers of hell; to thee God has committed the souls that are to be conveyed to the seats of the Blessed in eternal happiness. Pray, then, to the God of peace, that He may put Satan under our feet, so completely vanquished that he may no longer be able to hold men in bondage and work harm to the Church. Offer up our prayers before the Most High, so that the mercies of the Lord may prevent us, and lay hold of the dragon, the old serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and hurl him bound in chains into the abyss where he may no longer seduce the souls of men. Amen.

V. Behold the Cross of the Lord, fly ye hostile ranks.

R. The Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, has conquered.

V. May Thy mercies, O Lord, be fulfilled in us.

R. As we have hoped in Thee.

V. Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto Thee.

Let thy mercies be upon us, O Lord. /

As we have hoped in thee.

O Lord, hear my prayer. /

And let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

O God, and the Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ, we call upon Thy holy name and humbly beseech Thy clemency, that, through the intercession of the ever-immaculate Virgin and our Mother Mary, and of the glorious Archangel Saint Michael, thou wouldst vouchsafe to help us against Satan and all the other unclean spirits that are prowling about the world to the great peril of the human race and the loss of souls.

Amen.

The Easter Homily of St. John Chrysostom

If any man be devout and loveth God,
Let him enjoy this fair and radiant triumphal feast!
If any man be a wise servant,
Let him rejoicing enter into the joy of his Lord.
If any have laboured long in fasting,
Let him now receive his recompense.
If any have wrought from the first hour,
Let him today receive his just reward.
If any have come at the third hour,
Let him with thankfulness keep the feast.
If any have arrived at the sixth hour,
Let him have no misgivings;
Because he shall in nowise be deprived therefore.
If any have delayed until the ninth hour,
Let him draw near, fearing nothing.
And if any have tarried even until the eleventh hour,
Let him, also, be not alarmed at his tardiness.
For the Lord, who is jealous of his honour,
Will accept the last even as the first.
He giveth rest unto him who cometh at the eleventh hour,
Even as unto him who hath wrought from the first hour.
And He showeth mercy upon the last,
And careth for the first;
And to the one He giveth,
And upon the other He bestoweth gifts.
And He both accepteth the deeds,
And welcometh the intention,
And honoureth the acts and praises the offering.
Wherefore, enter ye all into the joy of your Lord;
Receive your reward,
Both the first, and likewise the second.
You rich and poor together, hold high festival!
You sober and you heedless, honour the day!
Rejoice today, both you who have fasted
And you who have disregarded the fast.
The table is full-laden; feast ye all sumptuously.
The calf is fatted; let no one go hungry away.
Enjoy ye all the feast of faith:
Receive ye all the riches of loving-kindness.
Let no one bewail his poverty,
For the universal Kingdom has been revealed.
Let no one weep for his iniquities,
For pardon has shown forth from the grave.
Let no one fear death,
For the Saviour's death has set us free.
He that was held prisoner of it has annihilated it.
By descending into Hell, He made Hell captive.
He embittered it when it tasted of His flesh.
And Isaiah, foretelling this, did cry:
Hell, said he, was embittered
When it encountered Thee in the lower regions.
It was embittered, for it was abolished.
It was embittered, for it was mocked.
It was embittered, for it was slain.
It was embittered, for it was overthrown.
It was embittered, for it was fettered in chains.
It took a body, and met God face to face.
It took earth, and encountered Heaven.

 Christ is risen, and thou art overthrown!
 Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen!
 Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice!
 Christ is risen, and life reigns!
 Christ is risen, and not one dead remains in the grave.
 For Christ, being risen from the dead,
 Is become the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
 To Him be glory and dominion
 Unto ages of ages. Amen.

Catholic Q&A Topic: A Call to Witness

At a 10 am Mass on a gloomy, rainy Sunday, Monsignor Mike's illuminatingly insightful homily drew upon scripture readings to speak about a continuing call to witness. Pastor Mike spoke about the Lord's presence, and some of the key abiding examples of the application of the virtue of trust:

In the readings of that Sunday: Abram "went as the Lord directed him." Psalm 33 featured another call,

"Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you." In the Gospel reading, Matthew's account of the Transfiguration has the disciples trusting in Jesus as he tells them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone."

Q: What does The Catechism of the Catholic Church and additional scripture confirm about a call to witness, trust, and the presence of the Lord?

A: The Liturgy of the Word and that homily on that second Sunday of Lent prompts us to think about more examples of answering the call and the spirituality of trust:

The Annunciation, one of the timeless settings of answering the call and virtuous truth. Luke Chapter 7 has the trust narrative of the healing of a centurion's slave. Jesus voices amazement at such a level of faith. Finally, the Lord's angel stayed the hand of Abraham in Genesis 22, another example of the call, trust, and the presence of God.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church, in the section called "Life In Christ" touches on the presence:

"What faith confesses, the sacraments communicate...Christians are called to lead a life worthy of the gospel of Christ...they are made capable of doing so by the grace of Christ and the gifts of his Spirit, which they receive through the sacraments and through prayer."

We trust, and pray a prayer of thanks for our faith, the Mass, our Clergy, and the saving power of God.

H:PE AFTER ABORTION It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion.

It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. You are not alone... hopeafterabortion.com/

What's your car? Let's say it's a fancy silver Toyota. Now imagine you're having lunch in a restaurant and suddenly see two men outside attempting to steal it. You run outside and confront them. They respond, "The master has need of it." How do you respond? Would you just let them take it, and leave you without a car? I don't think I would.

Yet that is precisely what the owners of the colt on Palm Sunday do. Stunningly, and perhaps a little comically, Jesus instructs two of his disciples to commandeer a colt for him to ride. And when they hear the disciples say, "The master has need of it," they let them take it. Of course, Jesus knew they'd let it go. He gave them the grace to let go of what is rightfully theirs. The result? That colt became perhaps the most famous and important animal ever. The beast plays a role in the redemption of the world.

As Holy Week begins, Jesus perhaps will send people to you to ask for something valuable to you. Perhaps it's your car. More likely it's something like your attention, time, or energy. It's natural to resist at first. We've got things to do, after all. But if the interruption is from Jesus himself, listen to that voice which calmly says, "The master has need of it." And simply let it go. You'll be amazed what the master will do with it.
