Sunday Masses (Sat 5:30 pm) | Sunday 6:30 am, 8, 10, 12 noon, 5:30 pm | Monday-Friday 8, 12 noon, Saturday 8 am

Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

On the first day of the week,
Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning,
while it was still dark,
and saw the stone removed
from the tomb.

So she ran and went to Simon Peter
and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them,

“They have taken the Lord
from the tomb,
and we don’t know where they put him.” Jn. 20:1-2

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

We want to welcome all of our guests this weekend. Easter always brings visitors from far and wide and we want to know that we are glad that you are with us. If you are returning "home" welcome back! If you are with us for the first time come back again. You are always welcome to pray with us and we are a better community due to your presence!

The story of Holy Week is not just a story about Jesus, it is a story about us, and God's great love for us. It is about the journey of our lives. So many of us are struggling and need reassurance that there is hope. All was lost on Good Friday: the savior was crucified and his followers ran away. But even on the darkest day in history, hope broke through and walked away from an empty tomb. So, there's hope for all of us.

The world tells me to take care of "me" and focus on "my" needs. My strength. My feelings. My pleasure. My thoughts. My value. My purpose. When I focus on myself, life quickly spins out of control. My thoughts, my wisdom, my strength. These cannot lie at the center.

Only Jesus can be our center.

The Sacred Paschal Triduum, those holiest days of the year, are filled with rich symbols and rituals — from the washing of feet on Holy Thursday, to the adoration of the Holy Cross on Good Friday, to the Easter Fire dispelling the darkness and the baptism of new Christians at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. These rituals are at the core of who we are: a people of service, faithful to the example and command of Jesus, who embrace the Cross, which is our hope, so that we might share in the newness of life that is ours in the risen Christ.

Whether you are here every Sunday, or haven't been in the church for a long time, Easter is about God's tremendous love for you and his desire to transform and inspire you with a new life and a new hope. Join us this Easter and simply open your heart that Christ's abundant love for you might become the healing grace and hope you seek.

Easter Blessings,

Mmgr. Michael Meyers

Fr. Thaddeus Agbason

Fr. Jim Kavanagh

Deacon Bob and Patty Miller

'Do not fear, for I am with you;
Do not be afraid, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
I will also help you,
I will also uphold you with My righteous right hand.' Is. 41:10

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step..

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Sunday, April 16th, at 2pm.
Chaplet to follow Mass at 3pm

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us — all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

Join us for this powerful devotion and feel His love for you in this most intimate devotion.

Isn't anyone listening to you?

It's something we do well.

If you feel it would be helpful to have a confidential space and caring listener as you are trying to work out a problem in your own mind, please consider a call to a Stephen Minister. We would be happy to act as a sounding board as you work out solutions. Contact: Didi Egnatuk 310.540.0329

Tuesday Night Bible Study

Join us on April 11th in Kavanagh Hall at 7pm for Session Four– The Holy Spirit and The Church
This ten week bible study explores

"What We Believe - The Beauty of the Catholic Faith".

This video presentation is followed by discussion and Q&A plus prayer intentions.

Discover the Amazing Riches of the Catholic Faith!

What is the Catholic Church all about?

What does it mean to be Catholic?

What do Catholics actually believe?

The Catholic Church is extraordinary. Founded by Christ himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in his Word, his sacraments, and his saints.

The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation.

Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church.

If you are not able to participate in person you can also join us using Zoom. Priests participate in our study when their schedules permit.

Please contact Donna Wilson at dwilson94@gmail.com if you are interested in joining this study.

Come, share and participate in our Church Community.

The Easter Homily of St. John Chrysostom

If any man be devout and loveth God,
Let him enjoy this fair and radiant triumphal feast!
If any man be a wise servant,
Let him rejoicing enter into the joy of his Lord.
If any have laboured long in fasting,
Let him now receive his recompense.
If any have wrought from the first hour,
Let him today receive his just reward.
If any have come at the third hour,
Let him with thankfulness keep the feast.
If any have arrived at the sixth hour,
Let him have no misgivings;
Because he shall in nowise be deprived therefore.
If any have delayed until the ninth hour,
Let him draw near, fearing nothing.
And if any have tarried even until the eleventh hour,
Let him, also, be not alarmed at his tardiness.
For the Lord, who is jealous of his honour,
Will accept the last even as the first.
He giveth rest unto him who cometh at the eleventh hour,
Even as unto him who hath wrought from the first hour.
And He showeth mercy upon the last,
And careth for the first;
And to the one He giveth,
And upon the other He bestoweth gifts.
And He both accepteth the deeds,
And welcometh the intention,
And honoureth the acts and praises the offering.
Wherefore, enter ye all into the joy of your Lord;
Receive your reward,
Both the first, and likewise the second.
You rich and poor together, hold high festival!
You sober and you heedless, honour the day!
Rejoice today, both you who have fasted
And you who have disregarded the fast.
The table is full-laden; feast ye all sumptuously.
The calf is fatted; let no one go hungry away.
Enjoy ye all the feast of faith:
Receive ye all the riches of loving-kindness.
Let no one bewail his poverty,
For the universal Kingdom has been revealed.
Let no one weep for his iniquities,
For pardon has shown forth from the grave.
Let no one fear death,
For the Saviour's death has set us free.
He that was held prisoner of it has annihilated it.
By descending into Hell, He made Hell captive.
He embittered it when it tasted of His flesh.
And Isaiah, foretelling this, did cry:
Hell, said he, was embittered
When it encountered Thee in the lower regions.
It was embittered, for it was abolished.
It was embittered, for it was mocked.
It was embittered, for it was slain.
It was embittered, for it was overthrown.
It was embittered, for it was fettered in chains.
It took a body, and met God face to face.
It took earth, and encountered Heaven.

We've Missed you!

The church is open for quiet prayer from 7am- 7pm daily.

Our daily Mass is at 8 am and 12 noon
Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately
afterward.

Our Saturday Mass is at 8am. Receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host. Find what you've been missing!

Take a moment to rediscover what's missing in your life!
Come back!

We're not complete without you!

It took that which was seen, and fell upon the unseen.
 O Death, where is thy sting?
 O Hell, where is thy victory?
 Christ is risen, and thou art overthrown!
 Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen!
 Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice!
 Christ is risen, and life reigns!
 Christ is risen, and not one dead remains in the grave.
 For Christ, being risen from the dead,
 Is become the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
 To Him be glory and dominion
 Unto ages of ages. Amen.

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations! We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the year.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members. We always need the following items:

hamburger buns                      cheese sticks
fruit                                      (oranges, bananas & grapes)
chips                                      granola bars
lunch meat & cheese              8 oz. water and juices

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks. Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing. Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy. If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Alleluia! Alleluia!

We joyfully announce that Adacio and Thiago, along with four adults, were baptized, confirmed, and received their First Communion at the Easter Vigil!

Please include them in your prayers of thanksgiving during this joyous season.

Also, please keep in your prayers all the parish children who are preparing for First Communion over the final two weekends of April. If you stop in the vestibule at church, you can see the artwork they created after a family faith formation session entitled, "Families Transform."

Please note that there will be no Religious Education classes this week due to Spring Break at our local public schools. Also, the Office of Religious Education will be closed from April 10th-14th for Easter Break.

Children's Liturgy of the Word is also on break for Easter today and will not meet again this month due to the upcoming First Communions.

May you have a blessed and joyful Easter! Alleluia! God bless!

Andrea Sullivan, Director of Religious Education

Then God said: Let the water under the sky be gathered into a single basin, so that the dry land may appear. And so it happened: the water under the sky was gathered into its basin, and the dry land appeared. Gn.1:9

Saint James Catholic Preschool

The children at St. James Catholic Preschool love the rain!

They bring their boots, rain coats, and umbrellas to splash and play. Sometimes they create chalk masterpieces on a rain-soaked canvas. The results are a cheerful reminder of God's beautiful world. We are thankful for the rain. Call 310.376.5550 for a tour.

"Keep Kids Safe" Pinwheel Resource Booklet

In recognition of April as Child Abuse Prevention Month, the Office of Safeguard the Children has created the 2023 "Keep Kids Safe" Pinwheel Resource Booklet. This useful Resource Booklet will help parishes and schools plan and prepare for Child Abuse Prevention Month. It is also available to individuals who wish to know more about Child Abuse Prevention Month. The Resource Booklet includes order forms for the colorful "Keep Kids Safe" pinwheels and stickers and the 2023 Working Together to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse Brochure, as well as prayers, petitions, and homily helps. For more information go to: lacatholics.org/child-abuse-prevention-month/

St. James Parish Families came together for a Family Day of Service to assist our Feed the Needy Program. The children and parents were enthusiastic helpers!

Catholic Q&A Topic: Keeping The Covenant

At a local resort, a man found a lost wallet which contained cash, credit cards, and a hotel room key. This real-world scenario prompts object lessons about the actionable presence of our faith.

Now we're in a week where scripture readings include Deuteronomy 13 with the words:

"The Lord your God is testing you...his commandments you shall keep..."

And Genesis 17, "...keep my covenant to the thousandth generation..."

Q: In light of those scripture readings, and in facing the realities of daily life, what does the Catechism reflect in matters of doing what is right, not just with a found wallet, but across a life of faith?

A: The Catechism of the Catholic Church, in Paragraph #2510, with beautifully essential terminology: "The golden rule helps one discern, in concrete situations, whether or not it would be appropriate to reveal the truth to someone who asks for it."

Catechism #1785: "In the formation of conscience, the Word of God is the light for our path, we must assimilate it in faith and prayer and put it into practice...guided by the authoritative teaching of the Church."

The Catechism, #1966, talks about the Beatitudes as the New Law which we read about in Matthew's Gospel. The Catechism says about the Sermon on the Mount:

"This sermon contains all the precepts needed to shape one's life... the perfect way of the Christian life."

Pope Francis said in 2015:

"Let us remember the Golden Rule, do unto others as you would have them do unto you. This rule points us in a clear direction. The yardstick we use for others will be the yardstick which time will use for us."

Now as to our man with the wallet, putting his Catholic faith into practice he saw that clear direction that the Holy Father spoke about. Honoring that holy covenant, and in the spirit of the golden rule, the man turned in the wallet to the hotel, and continued his life, pointed in the right direction, ready to face more concrete situations, confidently honoring the beatitudes of a faith that serves to light the path.

H:PE It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion.
AFTER ABORTION

It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness. You are not alone... hopeafterabortion.com/

"When Jesus had risen, early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons." (Mark 16:9)

Popular Catholic piety sometimes posits that the newly risen Jesus appears first to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a happy thought, but it's simply not what the scriptures report. We are told quite directly that he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, "out of whom he had driven seven demons."

Why would the gospel writer remind us of this unsavory detail of Mary's past? Historians tell us women were not qualified to give legal testimony. On top of that, to be possessed by not just one, but seven demons, is unsavory and terrifying. What damage had they done to her? What did she do to allow herself to be home to such evil? It doesn't seem to matter. Jesus chose Mary Magdalene to be the first one who saw him risen from the dead. He decided she was qualified.

Do you think that you are disqualified from seeing and announcing the risen Jesus because of your past demons?

Maybe they are the demons of despair, confusion, self-hatred, pride, addiction, failure, boredom, laziness, or other sins. Well, don't. In the light of the Risen Jesus, all these past demons make our witness that much more believable — only if we allow ourselves to be touched by the liberating hand of Christ, just as Mary Magdalene did. — Father John Muir
