

Two young girls are standing in a grassy field at sunset. The girl on the left is wearing a dark blue sweater with a sequined butterfly and has her arm around the girl on the right. They are both looking down at an open book held by the girl on the right. The girl on the right is wearing a maroon sweater with a white unicorn and floral design. The background is a soft, golden glow from the setting sun over a field of tall grass.

Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

Go,
therefore,
and make disciples
of all nations...

Archbishop Gomez at St. James for Confirmation

This past Friday evening Archbishop Gomez was at St. James for the celebration of the sacrament of Confirmation for 75 of our high school youth and 5 adults. The Archbishop was last here for the celebration of our 125th anniversary as a parish in 2017.

Our youth, along with the faithful Confirmation Team under the direction of Gretchen Nobleza, have been very dedicated during the last 2 years of preparation participating in the study nights as well as retreats, prayer services, youth conferences and a long list of service projects.

In addition to our adult team of leaders, 49 of our students who were Confirmed during the last 2 years continued in leadership roles as Teen Disciples. This year 55 youth who were confirmed on Friday intend to continue in leadership roles of our youth ministry program as Teen Disciples!

We are very proud of these youth and the exceptional way they have grown in faith and discipleship in the program. Pictures from the Archbishop's visit and the Confirmation are available on the Youth Ministry page, our parish website and our Facebook.

Special Memorial Day Mass

On Monday, May 29th

we will celebrate a special Mass at 9 am to honor all of our service men and women who have died in the line of duty defending freedom. In preparation for the Mass we invite you to the podiums by Mary's statue where you will find binders to enter the names of family or friends who have died in military service. These names will be presented during the Mass on Memorial Day.

We will also honor our loved ones with flag presentations and prayers. We hope you take advantage of this opportunity to honor those who have given their lives for our protection.

This Mass at 9 am will replace both the 8 am and Noon Masses on Memorial Day and our parish office will be closed.

Sincerely in the Lord,
Mmgr. Michael Meyers

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you
won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Memorial Day Remembrance

Memorial Day recognizes the sacrifice of those who died on the battlefield. It mourns the loss of these men and women, as well as the sad reality of violence and war.

*God of power and mercy,
you destroy war and
put down earthly pride.*

*Banish violence from our midst
and wipe away our tears,
that we may all deserve
to be called your sons
and daughters.*

*Keep in your mercy
those men and women
who have died
in the cause of freedom
and bring them safely
into your kingdom
of justice and peace.*

*We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.*

Join us as we honor these heroes

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Thank you to all of our families who participated in Religious Education this year. It has been a joy to walk with you as you raise children of faith. If you missed our Closing Mass on May 3rd, please stop by the office with your child and their Faith Formation Passport so that they can receive their stamp for the year.

Thanks, also, to our dedicated Catechists, Aides, and Volunteers. We literally couldn't have served the children and families of the parish without you!

Thank you to Maureen Bradford, Marcella Codero, Bertha Forst, Yoli Baluyot, Carrie Emhof, Michelle LaMontagne, Barbara Bowman, Rosemarie Williams, Dianne Staso, Stephanie Garcia, Susan Hernandez, Jennifer Wong, Viola Nicholson, Oliver W., Elaine Ketchmere, Annie Wheeler, and Ben Aranda, who have served as Catechists and Aides in our RE classes.

Thanks to Christine King, Shawn Brow, Paula Woon, Brandon Courter, Shawna Courter, Jacqueline Castillo, Karen Cuni, and Meg Kedrowski, who helped as Traffic and Yard Monitors during classes this year.

Thanks to Megan Pollard, Neliza Catipon, Jaime C., and Virginia Solis, who led Children's Liturgy of the Word, and Arianna Huppertz and the Preschool Staff for their efforts with Sunday School.

Thank you to Leanne Raad, Thomas Pham, Juddy Kendall, and Ken Lee, who served as the team for the youth in RCIA this year.

We are more of who God calls us to be at St. James because you said yes to sharing the gifts God has given you with the children and families of our parish. Thank you!

Of course, as one year ends, we look to the year to come, so we ask parishioners to consider whether you are called to serve in one of our Religious Education programs. We can help you discern which program fits your gifts, so please contact the office so we can start you on the path to be prepared to minister with children next September.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration, and we hope that you find joy in your heart when you think about sharing your love for God with our children and their families!

And if you are considering helping out in Religious Education or another parish ministry, please consider signing up for our upcoming Virtus® Training class, a first step for ministry in the parish. The original class will be held on May 25th from 6-9pm; please call the office to sign up.

Finally, Children's Liturgy of the Word is back for a final week on May 28th at the 10am Sunday Mass. We look forward to seeing our parish children, ages of 4 and older, for Children's Liturgy.

God Bless!

Topic: Mercy

In Shakespeare's comedic play The Merchant of Venice, a debt was owed. Portia begs Shylock to show mercy to Antonio. The play's lines in a particular speech about mercy are not only enduringly familiar by their sheer poetic beauty, but are also said to epitomize, "an attribute to God himself:"

*"The quality of mercy is not strain'd.
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven,
Upon the place beneath. It is twice blest;
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes..."*

Q: What is the Church's "take" on Mercy?

A: The graces and virtue of mercy can be found throughout sacred scripture, the liturgy, sacred tradition, the sacraments, the Catechism, and in our prayers. Pope Francis, spoke at Angelus on the realms of forgiveness and "the true justice of God:"

"It is a justice that comes from love, from the depths of compassion and mercy that are the very heart of God..."

At a Papal audience in March, we were reminded that the fifth Beatitude says:

"Blessed are the merciful for they shall obtain mercy..."

The Pope reminds us that in the Lord's Prayer we pray:

"forgive us...as we forgive..."

The Catechism essentially summarizes:

*"The works of mercy are charitable actions..."
"...works of justice, pleasing to God."*

The St. James Choir often sings hymns with themes of mercy such as "O God Beyond all Praising":

*"For we can only wonder at every gift you send.
At blessings without number and mercies without end."*

God's quality of mercy.

Falling as a gentle rain from heaven.

Traditionally, the four writers of the Gospels are symbolized by four creatures that make their way into Church art and architecture: Matthew, an angel; Mark, a lion; Luke, an ox; and John, an eagle. These images can be found in churches across the world, a nod to those who recorded the stories of Jesus for us, thousands of years ago.

Today's Gospel was written by John. There are a few reasons why John is symbolized by an eagle, but my favorite explanation is that his writings soar like an eagle into the sky with their beautiful, poetic language. The prayer we hear today is no different — Jesus invokes God in a long discourse that might seem mystifying at times, the same way that a poem can be perplexing to understand when we are unfamiliar with the pacing or format.

Consider holding onto the shortest sentence in this prayer: "I pray for them."

Jesus prays for us. For me. For you.

Let that sink deep into your being.

Jesus is on your side. He is aware of what you are holding at this moment. He is aware of your pain, your faith, your mission. And He's rooting for you. This prayer was recorded thousands of years ago, far before you were born. Since before you were born, you were held in prayer. With that certainty, we live. — Father John Muir
