Pastor's Letter

Visiting Priests This Summer

Fr. Wissam Koury

St. James has been asked to host another priest for 4 weeks this summer. Fr. Wissam Khoury, a monk in the Lebanese Maronite Order will be arriving here this Wednesday, June 28th. He is coming here to help perfect his English. Ordained in Lebanon in 2001, he received his PhD in Private Law in France in 2011. He is currently the Dean of the School of Law and Political Science at Holy Spirit University, Kaslik, Lebanon. He is also the CEO of Notre Dame des Secours University Hospital.

Since his main interest is perfecting his English, please feel free to talk to him or invite him for breakfast, lunch or dinner—or to take him to anywhere you wish.

Fr. John Callanan

Fr. John will be returning to St. James this summer after his Covid-forced hiatus. He will be arriving on July 21st and will be here until August 20th. We look forward to his wit and humor and his unique reflections on the Scriptures and life.

New Principal at St. James School

The 8 members of the Search Committee, selected for their experience and long-standing involvement and commitment to St. James School and Catholic Education, have been such a blessing to make sure that we have the best Principal to carry on the excellent tradition of St. James School. I want to thank them for accepting the invitation to be part of the Search Committee and for the dedication and keen insights each of them brought to the process.

I am pleased and excited to be able to introduce our new Principal of St. James School, Mrs. Danina Flores-Uy. Mrs. Uy will begin on July 1st. She is an experienced principal of elementary school education in the Archdiocese. With over 20 years in administrative experience, Mrs. Uy has her BA in Communication and Fine Arts, an MA in Elementary Education and an MA in Catholic School Administration—all from Loyola-Marymount University. For the last four years she has been teaching middle school grades at St. Anastasia School, Westchester.

Mrs. Uy is a woman of great faith and committed to the complete development of our children and the growth of our school. With her leadership, St. James will continue to achieve the high standards of Catholic faith formation, academic excellence and formation of responsible members of the community in service to church, local and global communities.

Continued Blessings to you all,

Msgr. Mike and Fr. Thaddeus

Peter's Pence Collection next weekend

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.obolodisanpietro.va/en.html

“Friend” your children online

One way to keep up-to-date on what your children are doing online is to actively follow their accounts on social media. Consider including a “friend” policy in your family's social media rules, where your child has to accept your friend request and give you open access to what they are viewing and posting. Make sure you have your children turn off any settings that allow them to limit how much information friends can view on their pages. You might also consider sharing a password so you can access their direct messages. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article “5 Keys to Monitoring Kids Online Activity” at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/

Join the Catholic Daughters of America

We donate generously to several charitable causes.

Members give their time, energy and support to help others in the service of Christ.

CDA members enjoy each other's company at their monthly meetings held on the third Wednesday of each month at Kavanagh Hall.

We are inviting all Catholic women of all ages to join us as pray the holy Rosary before each meeting.

WELCOME

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

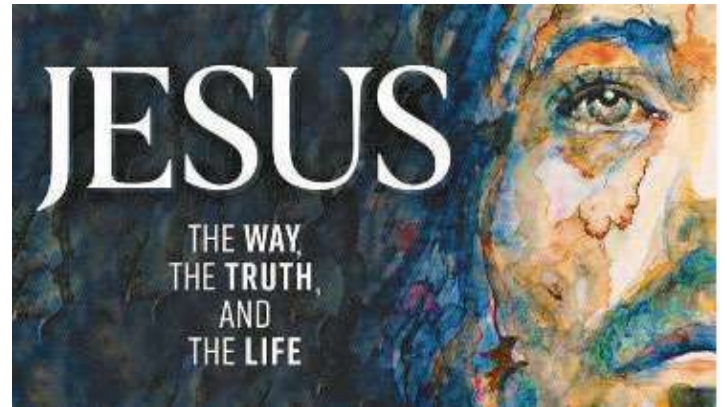

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Tuesday Night Bible Study

Next Session is
Tuesday, June 27th at 7pm

Please join us as we begin our new course
"Jesus: The Way, The Truth and The Life"

Session Three – The Desert Way.
by Ascension.

Class will be held in Kavanagh Hall Tuesday
June 27th and begins at 7pm.

A Powerful Study on the Life of Jesus Christ.

The marvelous treasures of the Catholic Faith
—the Eucharist,
Mary,
the saints,
and the Creed

—are all centered on a single figure: Jesus Christ.

Jesus is more than a historical or theological figure.
He is our Savior, our Redeemer, our Lord, and our God.
While many of us already know a lot about him, how well can we say we really know him?

Filmed on location in the Holy Land,

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life is a new and fresh look at Jesus —who he is, what he is really like, what he taught, and what he did for our salvation.

This encounter with Christ will inspire and empower you to center your entire life on him as you come to know and love him in an ever-deeper and more intimate way.

Class will be held in Kavanagh Hall Tuesday
June 27th and begins at 7pm.

If you are not able to participate in person you can also join us using Zoom.

Priests visit our study when their schedules permit.

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations! We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the year.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members. We always need the following items:

hamburger buns	cheese sticks
fruit	(oranges, bananas & grapes)
chips	granola bars
lunch meat & cheese	8 oz. water and juices

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks. Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Exciting things await in Religious Education this fall!

Registration for the 2023-2024 school year opens in July, and families will have a choice between our Traditional Faith Formation Program and our new and expanded Family Faith Formation Program.

Traditional Faith Formation will take place on Tuesdays during the school year from 4-5:15pm at the Parish Center. Traditional classes are what Religious Education has always offered and will follow a curriculum from Saint Mary's Press.

Our new Family Faith Formation will have two components. The first will be family sessions held in person for the whole family about once a month for an hour and a half on a Sunday afternoon. The second will be family sessions held by each family in their home about twice a month with support from the Office of Religious Education and the great kits that we will provide each family.

We are adding the Family Faith Formation Program this year to provide another way for us to support our parish families who seek to raise children of faith. The Catholic Church teaches that parents are the primary educators in the faith—families are where children first experience God's love through the love given freely to them by their parents.

And all the research (and there really is research on this!) tells us that the key to effective Catholic parenting is to empower parents to authentically and intentionally communicate the faith to their children.

So why are we adding this program to the RE offerings for 2023-2024? Because Family Faith Formation works! It's a big change, but we invite all parish families to join us on this journey. We believe it will bear much fruit.

And of course, we still need parishioners who want to live out their baptismal call by serving in one of our Religious Education programs.

We can help you discern which program fits your gifts, so please contact the office so we can start you on the path to be prepared to minister with children this September.

Remember, there are many ways to help the families of the parish as they raise children of faith, and our programs are open to all parish families, regardless of where your children attend school.

Some activities will occur just once during the year. Other activities occur monthly, twice a month, or weekly.

You can share your gifts with the community in the following programs for parish children and families:

- Traditional Faith Formation classes (Catechists, Aides, Yard Duty, Yard Monitors)
- Family Faith Formation (Catechists, Mentors, Aides)
- Sacramental Preparation (Catechists, Aides)
- Children's RCIA
- Children's Liturgy of the Word (twice a month at the 10am Mass)
- Family Day of Service Coordinators
- Family Field Trip Coordinators
- Family Faith Formation Experiences for Advent and Lent, like last year's Morning in Bethlehem (single day events)

Please call our office at 310.379.3221 for more information about our programs or to learn more about how to get involved.

God Bless!

Andrea Sullivan,
Director of Religious Education

Summer Family Day of Service!

On Wednesday, July 5th, from Noon to 2:30pm, we invite the families of Saint James Parish to our summertime Family Day of Service!

The families that gathered for our Lenten Family Day of Service this spring enjoyed helping the Feed the Needy Program so much that they asked us to bring it back for the summer.

This time, we will assist the Feed the Needy Program as they serve lunch. Signups are required because we can only accommodate ten people for this Family Day of Service.

Please register with the Office of Religious Education at religioused@stjamesparish.org.

Remember, this is a family event, so a parent should be with their child. Please call the Office at 310.379.3221 if you have questions.

Preschool Toddler Time!

Toddler Time is a parent-and-child program designed especially for your busy toddler (1 & 2-year old.) This program will stimulate your toddler's sense of exploration in a safe and friendly environment. Call for a tour: 310.376.5550

St James Moms Group!

The St James Moms Group meets every 1st and 3rd Thursday of the month during the school year, 10-11:30am, at the Parish Center.

This year we will be doing a yearlong discussion on Edith Stein/St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross.

St. James Catholic School

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Registration for the 2023 – 2024 School Year is open. Applications are available at the school, the preschool, the parish office, and on our website SJSCatholicSchool.org.

St. James has a Transitional Kindergarten Program for students turning 5 after the September 1st deadline. Full Day Program!

TK and Kindergarten families are invited to visit school with their child, visit the classroom and find out more about our program.

TK is a steppingstone and a bridge to begin your child's academic journey. Call or email to reserve a time.

Private tours are available by appointment for all grades.

A Catholic School Education is a gift and a blessing!

God Bless you,

Noreen Maricich, Principal

Invite Someone to Mass

The church is again open for quiet prayer from 7am- 7pm daily.

Our daily Mass is at 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward.

Our Saturday Mass is at 8am. Help others attend Mass and receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host.

Isn't anyone listening to you?

It's something we do well. If you feel it would be helpful to have a confidential space and caring listener as you are trying to work out a problem in your own mind, please consider a call to a Stephen Minister. We would be happy to act as a sounding board as you work out solutions.

Topic: Light From Light, True God From True God

On a lovely February afternoon a penitent walked out of the confessional at Nativity Catholic Church in old Torrance. Now walking past the venerable Nativity Catholic School, a weathered plaster plaque above the main entrance of the school came into view.

The inscription in Latin on the faded plaque read:
Lux et Veritas.

That reference and application of light and truth serve to prompt spiritual food for thought. And while we find in John 18 a jesting, mocking, sardonic Pontius Pilate asking Jesus, What is truth? (Quid est Veritas?), today, the faithful, despite what appears at times to be a post-unity, post-truth world, know that within sacred tradition, sacred scripture and by authentic liturgical practice that they can sincerely experience and explore the illuminative light and the enduring truths about their faith.

Q: What does the Church teach about the key precepts of Light and Truth?

A: Light and truth remain as bright stars in our Catholic universe. From Genesis,

"Let there be light..." to John's Gospel, "I am the light of the world..." to the many discourses about truth found in the Catechism such as #2500: "truth,...can evoke...the exaltations of the soul..."

Father Vincent Harkswell reminds that, "Light is an image of the Holy Spirit." He points out that The Catechism of the Catholic Church speaks of light almost 100 times, the Bible more than 250 times."

As to truth, the Catechism in #2464 and #2459:

*"The eighth commandment forbids misrepresenting the truth...
offenses against the truth...
are fundamental infidelities to God...
they undermine the foundations of the covenant...
The virtue of truth gives another his just due..."*

Lux et Veritas.

There is much to consider and to appreciate about the light and the truths of our faith across the ages and today.

So we continue to voice with confidence the words of the Nicene Creed:

God from God,
Light from Light,
true God from true God...

When I was in middle school, there were times I didn't want my fellow students to see my parents drop me off or pick me up in the school parking lot.

I was embarrassed of my parents. Why? I have no idea.

Maybe it was our station wagon. Or I didn't want to look like a little kid. But in retrospect that was a silly thing to do. I was a kid. And I had two parents who loved me and had built a wonderful family. I was afraid of the other kids' judgment. How silly! I should have been afraid of forgetting or downplaying my family, which is where my identity had its deep roots.

This is a way to understand Jesus' words to his disciples this Sunday, when he says,

"Don't be afraid of those who kill the body
but cannot kill the soul;
rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna."

Fear, in this sense, refers to where we find our deepest identity and our highest love. That's why Jesus says next that when we acknowledge him before others, he will acknowledge us before the Father.

It doesn't mean we're brash or boastful.

But rather we unhesitatingly and humbly embrace our identity as followers of Jesus and children of God the Father. After all, if we love who we are and where we come from, who cares what the other kids think about us?
— Father John Muir
