... if you pull up the weeds
you might uproot the wheat along with them.
Let them grow together until harvest;
then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters,
“First collect the weeds
and tie them in bundles for burning;
but gather the wheat into my barn.” - Mt 13:29-30

Welcome!
Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

AFTER  ABORTION

It's normal to grieve a pregnancy loss, including the loss of a child by abortion.

It can form a hole in one's heart, a hole so deep that sometimes it seems nothing can fill the emptiness.

You are not alone... hopeafterabortion.com/

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

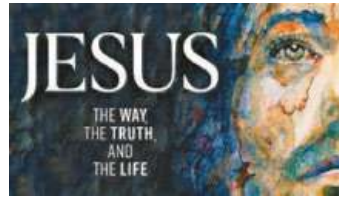

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations! We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the year.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members. We always need the following items:

hamburger buns	cheese sticks
fruit	(oranges, bananas & grapes)
chips	granola bars
lunch meat & cheese	8 oz. water and juices

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks. Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

Religious Education

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Registration for the 2023-2024 school year is open, and families have a choice between our Traditional Faith Formation Program and our new and expanded Family Faith Formation Program.

Please visit our page of the parish website to register: www.saintjames.church/re Traditional Faith Formation will take place on Tuesdays during the school year from 4-5:15pm at the Parish Center. Traditional classes are what Religious Education has always offered and will follow a curriculum from Saint Mary's Press.

Our new Family Faith Formation will have two components:

- The first will be family sessions held in person for the whole family about once a month for an hour and a half on a Sunday afternoon at Saint James School.

- The second will be family sessions held by each family in their home about twice a month with support from the Office of Religious Education and the great kits that we will provide each family.

We are adding the Family Faith Formation Program this year to provide another way for us to support our parish families who seek to raise children of faith.

The Catholic Church teaches that parents are the primary educators in the faith—families are where children first experience God's love through the love given freely to them by their parents.

And all the research (and there really is research on this!) tells us that the key to effective Catholic parenting is to empower parents to authentically and intentionally communicate the faith to their children.

So why are we adding this program to the RE offerings for 2023-2024? Because Family Faith Formation works! It's a big change, but we invite all parish families to join us on this journey. We believe it will bear much fruit.

And of course, we still need parishioners who want to live out their baptismal call by serving in one of our Religious Education programs.

We can help you discern which program fits your gifts, so please contact the office so we can start you on the path to be prepared to minister with children this September.

Remember, there are many ways to help the families of the parish as they raise children of faith, and our programs are open to all parish families, regardless of where your children attend school. Some activities will occur just once during the year. Other activities occur monthly, twice a month, or weekly

You can share your gifts with the community in the following programs for parish children and families:

- Traditional Faith Formation classes (Catechists, Aides, Yard Duty, Yard Monitors)
- Family Faith Formation (Catechists, Mentors, Aides)
- Sacramental Preparation (Catechists, Aides)
- Children's RCIA
- Children's Liturgy of the Word (twice a month at the 10am Mass)
- Family Day of Service Coordinators
- Family Field Trip Coordinators
- Family Faith Formation Experiences for Advent and Lent, like last year's Morning in Bethlehem (single day events)

Please call our office at 310.379.3221 for more information about our programs or to learn more about how to get involved.

We will have a second Summer Family Day of Service on Wednesday, August 9th, from 12-2, helping the Saint James Feed the Needy Program serve lunch to the hungry in our community. Please register using the attached google form. <https://tinyurl.com/bdfez6p2> Remember, we are limited to 10 participants, and parents (or grandparents and Godparents) must attend with children, so call soon! We will fill up quickly!

Finally, the Office of Religious Education will be hosting the Second Annual Family Field Trip. This year, we will visit the Cathedral of Our Lady of Angels on Saturday, August 26th, at 9am; docents will lead our tour. We are limited to 40 participants, so registration is required. Please register by going to this link: <https://tinyurl.com/mtf3b42h>

Families will need to arrange their own transportation. Please plan to meet our group in the courtyard outside the Cathedral at 8:45am. Grandparents, Godparents, and families are all welcome!

God Bless!

Andrea Sullivan, Director of Religious Education

Looking for Material to Make Baby Quilts

Do you have any leftover cotton material remnants that you would like to donate from that sewing project you finished?

We have a parishioner who has been making baby blankets as gifts that are given to the newly baptized babies in our parish. The families love receiving these homemade treasures! He is looking for materials to continue making the baby quilts. Please bring them to the parish offices. Thank you!

Men's Retreat in Sierra Madre September 8th, 9th, 10th

Perhaps there's never been a more appropriate time for a retreat. Most of us are ready to take a break from the challenges we have faced these past many months.

Men from our parish are invited to make their annual retreat at Mater Dolorosa Retreat center in Sierra Madre.

The Center provides a private room and bath, delicious meals, beautifully landscaped grounds, and the guidance of the Passionist Retreat Team.

The atmosphere of this silent, preached retreat will help you relax, reflect and rejuvenate spiritually.

St. James Catholic School

Dear Friends and Families of Saint James,

Registration for the 2023 – 2024 School Year is open. Applications are available at the school, the preschool, the parish office, and on our website SJSCatholicSchool.org.

St. James has a Transitional Kindergarten Program for students turning 5 after the September 1st deadline. Full Day Program!

TK and Kindergarten families are invited to visit school with their child, visit the classroom and find out more about our program.

TK is a steppingstone and a bridge to begin your child's academic journey. Call or email to reserve a time.

Private tours are available by appointment for all grades.

A Catholic School Education is a gift and a blessing!

God Bless you,

Danina Uy, Principal

I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil.
— Romans 16:17-19

Invite Someone to Mass

The church is again open for quiet prayer from 7am- 7pm daily.

Our daily Mass is at 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward.

Our Saturday Mass is at 8am. Help others attend Mass and receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host.

Catholic Q&A Topic: Mercy and Reconciliation

Scripture readings recently celebrated the spirit of the absolving graces of mercy.

In the Book of Genesis this week we heard the pleas of Jacob, who in his latter days begged forgiveness from his son Joseph for the wrongs of Joseph's brothers.

In a spirit of absolution, those pleas and fears were assuaged.

Psalms 145 continues the message in praise of the greatness and goodness of God:

"The Lord is gracious...abounding in mercy."

In Matthew 18 we encounter again the indebted, unforgiving servant, who provides yet another example of personal conduct and its consequences:

"...how often must I forgive?
Jesus answers, not seven times,
but seventy-seven times."

The Catechism teaches about the beneficence of the

"fruits of charity,"

citing Mercy as a key component of the fulfillment of love; one of the works of justice

"pleasing to God."

Pope Francis wrote:

*"He is the loving Father who always forgives,
who has that heart of mercy for all of us.
And let us also learn to be merciful with everyone."*

The Pope recalled the words of Jesus at the fate of the adulterous woman condemned to death:

"Neither do I condemn you .Go and sin no more."

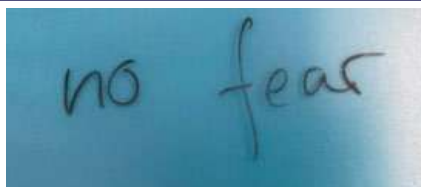

These words, said the Pope,

*"...are words of love;
and mercy leads to conversion."*

Scripture and the Holy Father admonish the faithful to learn to be merciful with everyone.

The Church also directs believers to the confessional where conversion, mercy, absolution, and reconciliation abound; part of the fulfillment of love.

'Do not fear,
for I am with you;
Do not be afraid,
for I am your God.
I will strengthen you,
I will also help you,
I will also uphold you with My righteous right hand.' Is. 41:10

Patience is rooted in Hope.

Life, like the church, is often burdened with evil, smallness, and impurities. The Lord's parables give us a hope-filled perspective on all three.

Evil: in Jesus' parable about the good farmer whose enemy plants weeds at night, Jesus tells us that God is not the cause of evil but permits evil to exist with good out of his patient love. He will finally deal with it, but his love lets things stay messy for a time.

Smallness: It's funny that Jesus says his kingdom looks like ... wait for it ... a bush.

What a letdown! Yet this little shrub still somehow has room for all the birds of the sky. The smallness of the Church, and even our own little lives, still provides plenty of room for all whom God sends.

Impurities: divisions and hypocrisies in the Church and our own hearts exasperate us. Recall that Jesus compares his kingdom to a lump of dough with impure leaven eating away at it and therefore making it expand. It's the secret of the Cross. Not how we'd prefer it.

But finally, great news.

The field, the bush, the loaf: all three parables invite us to embrace a patience rooted in hope: one day the field will be weeded, the bush filled with birds, and the risen loaf leaven-free.

— Father John Muir
