October 1st, 2023
Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Love God. Love all People. Make Disciples

Sunday Masses (Sat 5:30 pm) | Sunday 6:30 am, 8, 10, 12 noon, 5:30 pm | Monday-Friday 8, 12 noon, Saturday 8 am

Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us!
We are not complete without you!

A man had two sons.
He came to the first and said,
'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.'
He said in reply, 'I will not,'
but afterwards changed his mind and went.
The man came to the other son and gave the same order.
He said in reply, 'Yes, sir, 'but did not go.
Which of the two did his father's will?" Mt. 21:28-31

Pastor's Letter

St. James Seminary Intern
now Bishop Albert Bahhuth

In 1995, a young seminarian Albert Bahhuth was assigned to St. James for his Pastoral Internship under the direction of Fr. Tim Nichols. But he was no 'ordinary' seminarian. Born in Beirut, Lebanon in 1956, he came to the U.S. in 1976. After receiving B.S., M.S. and Doctorate in Chemical Engineering, he moved to Los Angeles in 1984. He soon found his calling to priesthood and entered St. John's Seminary in 1991.

Ordained in 1996 he served in several parishes until 2015 when he was selected to be the Vicar General (COO) of the Archdiocese where he served until 2020. After 3 years as Pastor of Holy Family Church, South Pasadena, he was called to become an auxiliary bishop for Los Angeles in July. His ordination as bishop was this past week, Sept. 26th, at the Cathedral.

Thanks to many of our 'old timers' who helped in his formation back in 1995. We are happy to celebrate the new mission and ministry of Bishop Albert Bahhuth as he becomes the Regional Bishop for the San Fernando Region of the Archdiocese.

Blessings,

Msr. Mike & Fr. Thaddeus

is new to a ministry or is a parent who wishes to volunteer at St. James School.

Please call the Parish Office at 310.372.5228 to register.
Space is limited.

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary
to take that first step.

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

Feed the Needy Ministry

We thank you for all your donations! We continue this year of providing meals on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Because of your generosity, we have continued to feed our homeless community throughout the year.

Our work continues and we once again ask for your assistance to ensure that we maintain the items needed for our homeless community members. We always need the following items:

hamburger buns                      cheese sticks
fruit                                      (oranges, bananas & grapes)
chips                                      granola bars
lunch meat & cheese              8 oz. water and juices

In addition to the food items we are in need of toiletries and socks. Due to the pandemic and limited storage space we are unable to accept used clothing.

Again we thank you in advance for your generosity in allowing us to keep our homeless community fed and healthy.

If you have any questions regarding our ministry I can be reached at 310.488.9480.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

If you are interested in learning more or starting the OCI process in September, please contact:

and unite myself wholly to You.*

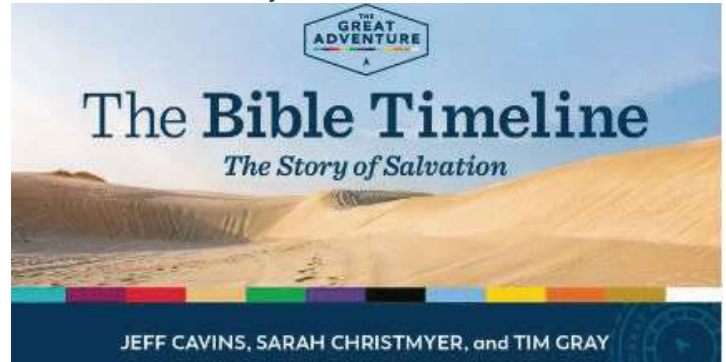

*Never permit me
to be separated from You. Amen.*

Tuesday Night Bible Study

New Session begins
Tuesday, October 10th at 7pm

Please join us in Kavanagh Hall when we begin our next course

"The Bible Timeline - The Story of Salvation"
by Ascension Press.

An In-Depth Exploration of Salvation History
The Bible Timeline® study program takes you on a guided journey through salvation history. Presenter Jeff Cavins will show you how fourteen of the Bible's narrative books tell the biblical story from beginning to end and will give you the keys to understanding the amazing story woven throughout Scripture. In this revolutionary approach to Bible study, The Bible Timeline divides the Bible into twelve color-coded time periods that make the narrative thread easier to follow.
Using a unique color-coded chart, you will learn the major people, places, and events of the Bible and discover how they all come together to reveal the remarkable story of our Faith. The Bible Timeline will teach you how to read and understand the entire Bible and introduce you to the wonderful narrative of Scripture in a way that will transform your life!

If you are not able to participate in person you can also join us using Zoom. Priests visit our study when their schedules permit. Please contact Donna Wilson:

Catholic Q&A Topic: Disciples of all Nations

The St. James Mission Statement embraces the concept of evangelization. The Catholic Bishops say that evangelization happens, "when the word of Jesus speaks to people's hearts and minds."

Pope Francis, speaking in France this week, touched on evangelization in terms of inclusion and the universal dignity of all of God's people.

Bible scholarship describes an evangelistic individual who presented the word of Jesus to the early Church. This person was a Greek, a Gentile, a physician, and companion to St. Paul; a wonderfully literate writer of a gospel that is known as the gospel of the poor and of social justice. He is also attributed as author of The Acts of the Apostles.

Q: Who is this man that the Church honors, particularly on his October 18 Feast Day?

A: This man is St. Luke the Evangelist.

His writings in holy scripture are beautifully written as he underscores the importance of women, of children, outcasts of different races and nationalities, the poor, the so-called "insignificant", the disreputable, the sinners and the Samaritans; all friends of Jesus. Luke wrote about the birth, ministry, death, and resurrection of Jesus. He is known for his "lost and found" stories: The Stray Sheep, The Missing Coin and The Wayward Son.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church #2600:

"The Gospel according to St. Luke emphasizes the action of the Holy Spirit and the meaning of prayer in Christ's ministry..."

In his writings about the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies, St. Luke, in his first paragraph addresses his Gospel to Theophilus, which is translated as "friend of God" or "loved by God." Scholars tell us that Luke could have been writing his opening remarks in Luke to a specific person named Theophilus, or to a generic, broader audience. Either way, in the Gospels, Jesus continues to speak to people's hearts and minds. Father Thaddeus spoke at Mass about God's paradise as a place that welcomes everyone among its many mansions of glory. That universal, inclusionary, spirit of evangelization remains a mission to be put into practice.

Our St. James Choir sings a song of communion called
"Taste And See"

"Taste and see, O, taste and see the goodness of God...who hears the cry of all in need."

This song is partly based on Luke 1:52 wherein all hearts and minds are called to experience the word of Jesus as part of the essence of the spirit of evangelization.

A life-long Catholic friend of mine recently mumbled to me, "I can't stand all these converts to the faith. They're always rocking the boat." It surprised me because he is dedicated to evangelization, and yet he struggles with openness to new Catholics. It made me realize how easily I close my heart to those whom I perceive to be outsiders who become new members of the Catholic community. Almost unconsciously I reduce the world to the categories of "us" and "them." The result is that meaningful community silently shrinks in my life. Don't we all do that to some degree?

This week Jesus' punchy parable about the two sons blows up that black and white world. One son said he wouldn't get to work, and then did. The other said he would, and then he did not. "Which did the will of his father?" asks the Lord. Like so many of us, in identifying the first as the answer, the religious authorities manifest hidden hypocrisy in refusing to follow Jesus. They — like us — intuit the correct path but simply won't do it. The tax collectors and prostitutes are indeed following Jesus and thereby getting to work in the kingdom of God. Everyone is called to do God's will regardless of the labels we may apply to them.

This week let's reject the convenient but damaging categories of "insiders" and "outsiders." Instead, let's embrace a grateful attitude that Jesus is calling fallen, weak, and broken men and women like you and me. Then we begin to see that the tax collectors and prostitutes aren't them. They are us. And Jesus wants all of us working in his boat, no matter the rocking.

No sin is new to him.
No wrongdoing too great.
Come to Confession and experience mercy and joy.
Confession is available Saturday from 4-5 pm in Church or by calling the office for an appointment.
