Jesus told his disciples this parable:
“The kingdom of heaven
will be like ten virgins

out to meet the bridegroom.
Five of them were foolish
and five were wise.
The foolish ones,
when taking their lamps,
brought no oil with them,
but the wise brought flasks
of oil with their lamps.”

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends and Families of St. James,

Thank you very much for your response to the financial situation of the parish.

During the month of October those who increased their offertory contributions brought our income close to last year's income and allowed us to be able to pay all our expenses without incurring any further debt.

While we remain at a $70,000 deficit for the fiscal year we are hopeful that as more parishioners consider increasing their contributions in the Sunday collection baskets or through automatic contributions through FaithDirect, we can achieve financial stability.

We are all blessed to be in this wonderful community of faith where God's generosity constantly uplifts us.

We are in the process of preparing twenty new Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist to help us with Sunday Masses to be able to receive the precious Blood of Christ.

We hope to be able to start receiving from the chalice by the New Year. Thank you all for being an integral part of our St. James family.

Blessings,

Mmgr. Mike & Fr. Thaddeus

Why Fast?

Fasting, at its root, is a spiritual exercise.

When we fast our body feels weak. We come face to face with our humanity and are humbled.

When we take away what our body wants, it quiets down.

Our souls become stronger and prayer becomes more powerful.

It is a transformative experience and a powerful spiritual weapon that helps order our flesh that tries to control us.

Fasting is a great way to practice self-control and progress in our spiritual lives.

St. Thomas Aquinas, one of the greatest Catholic theologians to ever live said that we fast for three reasons.

"For we fast for three purposes:

1. to restrain the desires of the flesh;
2. to raise the mind to contemplate sublime things;
3. to make satisfaction for our sins.

These are good and noble things, and so fasting is virtuous." — St. Thomas Aquinas

Your Continued Support of St. James is Vital and a Blessing!

Our parish ministries continue because so many people need our help. Recurring gifts helped sustain our parish in unprecedented times, and continue to be a vital source of support for ministries that are a lifeline to those in need in our community.

Maybe you grew up Catholic.

Maybe you think of yourself as Catholic.
Maybe you haven't been to church in awhile.
Or you are worried that you won't be welcomed here.

And maybe it feels awkward and scary to take that first step.

Questions. Doubts. Yearning.
But not sure for what.

We get it.
We've been there.
Now we are here.

Maybe God is calling you, too.
Just as you are.

Welcome home.

- Warm clothing such as sweat shirts with hoods and pants Sizes L, XL and XXL,
- scarves, gloves, hats,

We thank you in advance for your good will during the holiday season for our needy community.

Opportunities to Deepen your Faith

Why do we have to go to confession?

Lesser sins can still be forgiven by prayer, fasting, works of mercy, and participation in the Eucharist, and greater sins—mortal sins—still need more. Our sins still affect others, and through the ministry of the priest we ask forgiveness of God and reestablish our bond with the community. Available Saturdays 4-5pm in church.

Invite Someone to Mass

The church is again open for quiet prayer from 7am- 7pm daily.

Our daily Mass is at 8 am and 12 noon Monday-Friday with the rosary prayed immediately afterward.

Our Saturday Mass is at 8am. Help others attend Mass and receive the Eucharist; the true body and blood of Christ hidden in the form of a host.

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

The Order of Christian Initiation (OCI), formerly the RCIA, is the process for adults who desire to join the Catholic faith. It is the process for an unbaptized person to be baptized into the church and for those baptized by another Christian denomination to enter into the Catholic Church. While coming to know Jesus and His invitation to become a disciple, the OCI process involves the journey of faith, formation and conversion. A person is introduced to the beliefs, life, liturgy, and apostolic work of the Catholic Church.

In this revolutionary approach to Bible study, The Bible Timeline divides the Bible into twelve color-coded time periods that make the narrative thread easier to follow. Using a unique color-coded chart, you will learn the major people, places, and events of the Bible and discover how they all come together to reveal the remarkable story of our Faith. The Bible Timeline will teach you how to read and understand the entire Bible and introduce you to the wonderful narrative of Scripture in a way that will transform your life!

Catholic Q&A Topic: Saintry Ways: The Road to Perfection

As a standard against which everything else is measured, it is more than humbling to read Matthew 5, where Jesus, in describing an anti-pagan outlook says:

"Be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect."

And a second admonishment in Matthew 19 where Jesus tells the young man to finally sell his possessions and give all to the poor. That young man went away sad, and we may also be dismayed; thinking ourselves a long, long, long way from perfection.

Q: What does the Church teach about striving for personal perfection?

A: In this season of solemnity that highlights the lives of beloved souls, and also commemorates a vast litany of saints, it is appropriate to mark what the Catholic Bishops say about the road to perfection:

"All Christians are called to perfection... all Christians are called to be Saints."

Monsignor Mike, in a homily on All Saints morning, pointed out that the vast majority of saints are not among the Patron Saints or even name-recognition level saints, yet each one offers examples of the virtues of sainthood. Pastor Mike referenced Mother Teresa and St. Therese of Lisieux, who, without fanfare and with much humility, taught and remain exemplars of that which is achievable:

"Doing small things with great love."

The Catechism directs that if you want to research what the Church teaches about saints and, by extension, lives well-lived, that you do as it says in the Index:

Saints: See Holiness. Now then, it's left to each of us, whether we simply adopt the old adage, "Nobody's perfect," or heed the word of Jesus and strive for holiness.

Monsignor Mike mentioned spiritual author, Matthew Kelly, who informed us about reachable "Holy Moments" despite the fact that "Life Is Messy." In seeking holiness, doing small things with great love with an eye toward perfection, we may follow the bottom-line advice of a British mother who always advised her son when he faced doubt, uncertainty, or adversity to simply:

"Get on with it."

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word.

Today's parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude.

I'm serious. Take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps.

He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lampless virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost.

Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden.

The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions.

The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy.

We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way:

"Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out.

This week let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark.
